Portland Symphony Opens Season

Monday night, November 6, will be opening night of the 23rd concert season of the Portland Symphony orchestra, and the beginning of William van Hoogstraten's ninth season as conductor of the Portland orchestra. A series of eight Monday nights and six Sunday matinee concerts have been scheduled and guest artists of national and international reputation engaged to appear as soloists on the symphony programs.

The symphony concerts are Oregon's leading musical attraction and this year great interest has been shown in the booking of the famous Walter Gieseking to appear as solo pianist on one of the programs. It will be Gieseking's first appearance in Portland and the first opportunity for most Oregonians to hear this master pianist. He is a great giant of a man and his huge hands are a surprising contrast to his delicate and black designs provided the decorative note.

Mrs. George Grabenhorst assisted at the refreshment hour. Bidden were the Misses Elizabeth Morehouse, Jean Pound, Shirley Thomas, Anna Mae Grabenhorst, Jere Simmons, Barbara Miller, Jean Harrington, Jewell Minton.

Robert Taylor, Ailee Pearce, Burl Du. on, Francis Lindner, Jack Lansing, Frederick Johnson, Lee McAllister and host, Richard Grabenhorst.

Pratum — The young people of the Pratum Mennonite church were entertained with a Halloween party Friday night at the home of Fred Hensch. Games were the main diversion of the evening, and pumpkin pie and apples served for refreshment.

Present were Mrs. Arthur Holden and Mrs. Bert Evans honored Mrs. and Mrs. J. Reynolds by inviting the close neighbors to the Reynolds home Friday night as a surprise. A social evening was followed with refreshments. Friends present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wendt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Evans, Miss Rae Kinkaid, Ellen Holden, Miss Carol Reynolds, Albert Evans, Mrs. Ruth Simpson and Wayne Russell.

Mrs. John Biver of San Francisco is a house guest of Mrs. Nan Pettyjohn on the river road. Mrs. Biver was a resident of Salem until she moved to California five years ago.

The Sigma Nu Delphians will not meet tomorrow, but on the following Monday, November 6.

Miss Roberts To be Honor Guest

A STELLAR event of this afternoon is the large formal tea given by a group of the debutante set honoring Miss Mildred Roberts. 200 guests have been invited to call between 2 and 8 o'clock at the Hal D. Patton residence on Court street.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Charles Claggett. In the line will be Miss Roberts, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Miss Marie Patton, Miss Jeanne Patton and Miss Jean Eastridge.

The tea table will be covered with a lace cloth over blue and blue tapers will be used. A long basket of pom pom chrysanthemums in shades of orange, bronze and yellow will be the centerpiece. Candlelight will be used throughout the guest rooms.

Presiding at the urns will be Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Frank G. Myers and Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst.

Miss Ruth Breidwell will play piano selections during calling hours. Assisting about the rooms will be the Misses Esther Wood, Cleo Ritter, Margaret Evans, Margaret Corey, Margaret Burdette, Claudia Buntin, Frances Sands, Dorothy Cannon, Dorothea Corey, Frances Marie Kupper, Frances Martin, Isabel George, Lorraine Kinzer, Bula Bailey, Hazel Johnson, Cynthia Delano, Lois Wilkes, Viola Orndorff, Elizabeth Hansen, Edith Friedwell, Kathryn Hayward of Eugene, Margaret Engel of Portland, and Mrs. D. Y. W. Secretary to be Here Tuesday

Miss Julia F. Capen, national secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will arrive in Salem Monday night. Tuesday morning she will meet with members of the board and be entertained at luncheon by them.

Tuesday afternoon Miss Capen will hold conferences with heads of the following committees: finance, girls' work, health education, membership, legislature and business girls.

Philharmonic Orchestra To Play

JACQUES GERSHKOVITCH will wield his baton over the first concert of the Salem Philharmonic orchestra December 7. Miss Mildred Roberts will play the Beethoven Concerto with the orchestra at her homecoming concert appearance after four years' study abroad.

Miss Roberts studied in Dresden under the famous violin coach, Henri Marteau. She was graduated from the Dresden Conservatory of Music this year and gave her debut concert at the Palmer Garten Music Salle where she was enthusiastically received.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts and spent her early years in Salem and Portland attending school before going abroad.

This is the second young Salem artist to be presented at a symphony concert here. Miss Nancy Thielsen was soloist for the opening concert last year.

Mr. GersHKovitch is the well-known conductor of the Portland Junior Symphony and has achieved remarkable success with the local symphony in one year.

The second concert will be given in February with a soloist chosen from piano students competing in the contest to be held December 9.

The third and last concert will be in April, with the Philharmonic choir as guest artists. The choir has been increased to 40 voices under the direction of Prof. Cameron Marshall.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
We have designed this slenderizing model especially for the woman who is stouter than she'd like to be. Its modified lines without "exaggerations" tend to narrow the figure—the crossed bodice bands that button to the belt are alluring, and flared sleeves are so graceful on full arms. Long sleeves are included. Satin, ribbed silk or crepe will be chic.

Pattern 2597 is available in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 38 takes 3 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.
