Debt Worry Unknown to High School

MOLALLA, Nov. 1. - The depression doesn't seem to have hit Molalla high school very hard. According to Glenn Kirkwood, principal, the student body and every student organization is debt free and in many cases the organizations have enough money to run them part of this year.

A number of the student organizations, including the Girls' league, the F. F. A., the Home Economics club, the annual staff and the junior and senior classes have extensive programs, including banquets, entertainments and upkeep expenses, that they must finance each year.

small volume are being closed in the wool market. Strictly combing 56s, % blood territory wool moved this week at 76-79 cents scoured basis. Graded strictly combing 64s and finer territory wools have brought 82-84 cents scoured basis. Eight months Texas wool has recently been sold at 75-76 cents scoured basis. These occasional transactions, however, do ot indicate any general pickup in trading but they do emphasize the firmness of prices in spite of the very draggy demand for wool.

Salem Markets STOCKS OPEN MONTH

NEW YORK, Nov. 1. (A)-Stocks began the new month with a net advance in the averages to day. The rise came just before the close when mining issues, which had been strong during earlier indecision by other sections, put on a fresh spurt. Sales totaled 1,147,130 shares. Favorites in the mining sector were U. S. Smelting, up 6%; International Silver, up 5; American Smelting, up 4%; Cerro De Pasco, up 3 %. U. S. Steel firmed point, while General Motors, Du Pont, Case, United Aircraft, American Can, Westinghouse, Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward were up a point or two.

VICTOR POINT, Nov. 1 .- The pupils of Victor Point have an organized student body with meetings*each Friday morning. Officers are: president, Laurel Krenz; vice-president, Helen Larson; secretary-treasurer, James Darby. The members held a Halowe'en party this Tuesday afternoon at the schoolhouse with the following committees in charge: games, Eline Qualey, Marvin Darby; refreshments, Helen Larson, Wesley Darby; decorations, Donald Larson and Donald Jaquet. The Parent - Teachers' association held its first meeting for the year at the schoolhouse Friday night. Marvin Darby and Ernest Qualey are the membership committee and a prize will be given the one signing the most members at the next meeting. Mrs. M. M. Gilmour is the new member of the lunch committee and Mrs. C: C. Jones will serve on the program committee for the
