Vows Exchanged At Quiet Home Ceremony

A pretty home wedding Saturday night united Miss Ruth Hershberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hershberger of Canby, and Walter Hesel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hesel of Salem.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. R. Sibley at 8:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents. Many members of the immediate families were present.

Vows were exchanged beneath a beautiful floral and greenery arch centered with a white wedding bell. Baskets of dahlias and ferns were placed about the rooms. The bride was becomingly gowned in a floor-length frock of shell pink lace, worn with blue accessories. The couple were unattended.

Miss Mary Hershberger, sister of the bride, played the wedding music.

An informal luncheon was served after the ceremony to 24 guests. The couple left for a short weekend trip and will be at home near Oregon City.

Mrs. Hesel is a graduate nurse from the Salem General hospital and is well known here.

TWO SECONDS to be sure of her Hair*

*DANDERINE insures your hair for a penny a day

When you've washed your hair, a little Danderine will keep it from going helter-skelter. When you pay a dollar for a wave, Danderine will help you keep it. It isn't a sticky dressing, or an oily tonic, and it doesn't leave a telltale odor. Its fresh fragrance is gone a moment after applying—but not that marvelous effect of freshness and cleanliness!

With all the care a woman gives her hair, it is a pity to omit this last touch that means so much. It's no trouble. Yet you can hardly believe anything so mild and delightful as Danderine could bring such a change in the condition and appearance of hair and scalp. Just try it. You can buy a bottle of Danderine at any drugstore for thirty-five cents.
