BUTTER PURCHASES FOR RELIEF START

Chicago Market Basis: Meat Showing Up Better as Calves Cleaned Up

PORTLAND, Nov. 8. (A)-Roy Martindale, head of the Portland produce exchange, announced today that the dairy marketing corporation, a government organization, was to begin buying butter on the local market for government account today.

Purchases for the time being will be made only of fresh churnings. All that is offered will be bought on the basts of the Chicago market, around 23 cents a pound for extras. The government will not buy storage stock at this time. hoping to relieve the general surplus by taking considerable fresh butter off the market.

Prices here have been holding teady recently in anticipation of the government's buying opera-

PORTLAND, Nov. 8. (AP)-Nominal prices continued to be quoted for butter. This applies not only to the Portland market but to practically all Pacific coast cen-

Egg Tone Steady

Market on eggs continued to reflect a steady tone for fresh stock here despite a sharp loss in Southern California. Storage goods continued to show weakness everywhere.

With turkeys so cheap they were taking the bulk of the fowl demand, chicken prices were being maintained by limited offerings recently. There was a small call for live ducks and geese. The first general cleanup of late offerings of country killed calves made at full prices for top block-Country killed lambs were doing better in the local trade with top stuff easily moving at 9c lb. Hogs were also steady with 7c the

Buying Price on Dressed Turkeys In Country Down

PORTLAND, Nov. 8. (A) -The buying price on dressed turkeys at country points, for the Thanksgiving trade, has been cut to 16 cents a pound for No. 1 toms and hens at Pacific northwest sources, according to word received by the trade here today. Medium grade birds were three cents less at 13 cents, and No. 2 grade was quoted at 10 cents a pound. The delivered price in Portland was set at one cent a pound above these figures. Resales to retailers were going at a nominal 20 cent top for No. '1 birds. The demand was not very brisk.

Conditions here reflected a reported drop on the Los Angeles market to 20 cents a pound flat for No. 1 dressed birds, and it was said the San Francisco price was expected to be on the same basis today.
