

MRS. HARRY BOSCH NEW S. S. LEADER

For Brooks Methodists; School Enrollment Has Excellent Growth

BROOKS, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Harry Bosch was elected superintendent of the Brooks Methodist Sunday school, with Leo Reed, assistant, Dorothy McKnight, secretary and Charles Wade, treasurer, plantist, Miss Bernadine Wheeler.

Mrs. Archie Bailey has returned from Astoria where she was called to the account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Wade Weber. Mrs. Weber received a bad burn on her arm and has been suffering from infection. The Brooks community club held an all-day meeting with pot-luck dinner at the noon hour in the clubhouse Wednesday. One new member was added to the list. Mrs. Ramp gave two good readings.

Mrs. John Colyer and daughters, Mrs. Luther Hutto, Mrs. Nora Smook and sons, Andy Colyer and Clarence Colyer, have returned from Montana, where they were called by the death of their daughter and sister and infant child.

Enrollment Increases
William Jenson, principal of the Brooks grade school, and Miss Ethel Grant, intermediate teacher, entertained their pupils with a Halloween party, as also did the primary teacher, Miss Louise Andrus. Eighty pupils are now enrolled in the Brooks school; 19 in the primary room, 34 in the intermediate room and 27 in the upper room. There are four new pupils, Mary Ziebart in the seventh grade, Rose Ziebart in the sixth grade, Anna Ziebart, fourth grade and Tony Ziebart in the second grade. These pupils are all from Silverton school.

VISITOR DAY HELD AT GRANT SCHOOL

In observation of Education week, Grant school had visiting day all day Wednesday, November 8. The visitors will have an opportunity to observe regular school work. Friday night, November 10, "Open House" will be featured at the school from 7:30 to 9:30. A program is planned for the pleasure of the visitors, consisting of numbers by the patrons of the school and a short talk by Miss Crowley, elementary supervisor. Patrons and interested townsfolk are invited to attend.

Richmond school reports a good time at its "Open House" Monday night when 150 patrons and visitors came in the course of the evening to visit the school where they had an opportunity to inspect the work of the children. Park school observed Education week all day Tuesday. Sixty-two visitors and parents visited school where they observed regular school work.

Leslie junior high school is having visiting day on Wednesday.

Lincoln, McKinley, Highland and Parrish Junior high schools will feature "Open House" on Thursday evening from 7 to 9.

The senior high school will have its open house on Wednesday evening featuring Dr. Doney and the high school band on their program.

Hall's Ferry Clears $25 on Dance Affair

HALL'S FERRY, Nov. 8.—The pie social at Hall's Ferry Saturday night proved a huge success. Portland, Salem, Independence, Pratum, Roberts, Detroit and Woodburn were represented. After a program lasting an hour and a half, 39 pies were sold, bringing nearly $25. Another feature was a dance which was also a great success.

Farmers' Union News

BETHEL, Nov. 8.—"There is no over-production in the world, there is only under-consumption. The difference between what the farmer receives and the consumer is obliged to pay must be reduced. Gambling, speculating and corporation manipulation must be discontinued," declared Roy E. Hewitt, principal speaker at the Monday night meeting of Bethel Local of the Farmers' Union.

There was a large group of interested listeners present and the meeting went on with unflagging interest until a very late hour.

There was no word spoken at the meeting regarding a local farm strike. Visiting members were present from Marion, Dallas, Eola, Brooks, Central Howell, Mt. Angel and Macleay.

L. H. McBee of Dallas spoke on behalf of the elementary schools, some of which have been reduced to a term of only four months of school.

A. C. Anderson, state president of the Truck Owners and Farmers' Protection association, and Percy A. Cupper, attorney for the organization, were present and spoke. The union voted that it is in favor of Anderson's plan of action.

R. W. Hogg, state purchasing agent, Ronald Jones of Brooks, Joseph Bernt of Mt. Angel, and Warren Gray, county president of Marion, spoke briefly.

Mrs. Harry Phillips and Mrs. W. Welch of Macleay took charge of the refreshments.

The December meeting will be election of officers.

MARCELL REAVIS RETURNS

DAYTON, Nov. 8.—Miss Marcell Reavis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wood, who has been on a two months' automobile trip with an uncle and aunt to visit relatives at Minneapolis, Minn., and see the Century of Progress at Chicago, returned home Thursday.

"Ask Me Another" Play Practices on At Mehama School

MEHAMA, Nov. 8.—Mehama has been well represented at Mill City the past week during the evangelistic meeting being held at the Christian church by Archie Word.

Play practice will begin tonight on the play "Ask Me Another," which is to be given November 28 in connection with the Thanksgiving program and decorated pie social, at the school house. The cast is: Pa Dumont, Edgar Ledgerwood; Ma Dumont, Miss Mary Mooney; Marie Dumoon Marquand, Maurice Cothren, and Percival Primbie, Roy Philippi. Miss Harriett Lees will direct the play.

THREE LEAVE HOSPITAL

SILVERTON, Nov. 8.—The Ekman ambulance removed Percy Brown, who underwent a major operation 10 days ago, to his home on McClaine street Tuesday afternoon. The ambulance also took Mrs. Leslie Brown and her baby out to her home at Pine Tree Four Corner's Tuesday.

BUY CHAPPEL HOUSE

FALLES CITY, Nov. 8.—The John Chappell residence has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Emmett North of Detroit. They are refinishing it and will move in soon. Mrs. North is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pierce.
