Petitions to Be Circulated At Once; Relief Work Is One Objective of the coming modes of transportation, the economic one, asserted J. E. Roman, manager of the First National bank of Portland, Salem branch, and formerly of Astoria. "The plight of the port of Astoria is not due to water transportation. If you can get cheap rates to Portland you're going to get business here."

Mr. Roman opined that a commitment might be obtained from the Oregon PWA board relative to granting the Salem dock loan, and offered his assistance in the movement.

Walter T. Jenks, manager for the Willamette Valley Prune association, saying he opposed the dock loan issue defeated at the last city election, announced that "due to the fact that water rates have much to do with rail and truck rates, I think it would be time to have this dock."

One of the chief drawbacks of the present dock, said Fred Broer, assistant manager of the Willamette Grocery company which gives 90 per cent of its shipping to the Salem Navigation company, is the lack of protection against freezing and rats.

A plea to push the project so as to alleviate local unemployment was voiced by E. T. Barnes, manager of the federal reemployment agency here. Local unemployed men do not stand to benefit greatly from such projects as the Bonneville dam and the Oregon Coast highway bridges, Barnes said, because jobs first will be provided for men living near the various sites.

"If we don't get this money, someone else will but we'll still have to pay for it sometime," Mr. Wieder declared. "The dock project is advocated not to make a profit for somebody but to benefit the people of the community who are served by it."

Other speakers included: Karl W. Heinlein, resident manager for the Oregon Pulp & Paper company; Mrs. Clifton Mudd, president of the Salem Woman's club; Mrs. Winifred Herrick, president of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club; Frank Gibson, manager of the Producers' Cooperative Canning company; Ray Yocum, manager for Reid, Murdoch & Co.; Glenn Lengren, manager for Starr Fruit Products company; K. H. Pickens, secretary of the Kay Woolen Mills; E. M. Church, Hollywood publisher; W. M. Hamilton, district manager for the Portland General Electric company.

CHRISTMAS SEALS TO BE SOLD AGAIN

seals are sold the more money remains at home, Chamberlin explained yesterday.

Rev. S. Darlow Johnson, president of the Marion county health association, believes that the county should make a better showing this year than formerly when it has just reached the state average. The goal is five seals per capita throughout the state.

Members of the executive committee of the health association who met with Chamberlin yesterday are Rev. Johnson, president, Mrs. J. A. Werle, Prof. Eugene Slike, Mrs. A. F. DeLespinaise, Mrs. John Ballantyne, Mrs. W. A. Allen, Mrs. Arthur Strickland and Charles S. McElhinney.

$300,000 to be Spent on Santiam Highway, Report

Approximately $300,000 of the first $5,000,000 to be requested by the state highway commission from the public works administration for road construction, will be used for the relocation and completion of the North Santiam highway westward from the former boundary near Gates to McLama, state highway officials declared here yesterday.

The highway department was rushing work on the detailed plans and specifications to be included in the $15,000,000 public works program sponsored by Governor Meier. This program is considered an unemployment emergency relief measure.

CHANCELLOR HELD HARMONY BARRIER to repeat that my controversy with Mr. Nelson has not been a personal one. I have not and shall not stoop to personal abuse. I am very fond of Mr. Nelson personally and my spirit of friendship has not been extinguished by this controversy, which simply had to come.

"Intellectual honesty compels me to call the attention of the people of this state to the undeniable fact that harmony in higher education is impossible until a chancellor is appointed who is free from long standing partisanship in educational controversies. I do not mean to reflect on Dr. Kerr's outstanding services to the state college. However it must be obvious to all impartial observers that if Dr. Kerr is sincere when he states, as he has so many times, that he is devoted only to the best interests of higher education in the state, he can best accomplish this end by resigning from the chancellorship. Such an act on his part would be truly great and would enrich him in the history of Oregon."

Dean Morse issued his statement to the press after he was informed of Nelson's resignation. Dr. Kerr could not be reached tonight for comment on the dean's statement.

The faculty, which adopted a unanimous resolution Monday demanding Nelson's resignation, two days after Dean Morse had made a similar demand before homecoming alumni, did not immediately indicate whether or not they will act on the dean's demand to tonight that Chancellor Kerr also resign.

Unitarian Officer To Come Saturday

George Petterson of Boston, administrative vice-president of the American Unitarian association, will arrive in Salem Saturday and will be held in the Emerson room of the First Unitarian church at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night, to which all members and friends of the church are invited. Mr. Petterson will preach at the regular service Sunday morning.

NELSON QUILTS HIGHER BOARD

Higher Board Head Avers Situation is One Which Cannot Be Mended

president, but because of his health. "I have been besieged with requests to refuse your resignation should it come," the chief executive wrote Nelson, "and, knowing your high qualities of leadership, it is with the greatest regret that I close my ears to the urgent petitions that are pouring in from all over the state."

"I am moved to accept your resignation," the governor continued, "not because of the considerations you urge but because my knowledge of the facts as to the condition of your health convinces me that your continuance under existing circumstances would involve too great a drain upon your physical resources. As a sincere friend I do not feel at liberty to ask you to jeopardize your health in the service of the state, and upon that condition alone I reluctantly accede to your request."

Nelson had not referred to the condition of his health in his letter of resignation, but friends had remarked it was none too good.

Nelson denied in his letter of resignation that he had ever attacked the university, its faculty or its students. The Portland attorney was appointed to the board late in September and was elected president to succeed C. L. Starr of Portland, who complied with Governor Meier's request for his resignation.

evitable. Both sides claimed advantage in the sharp struggle that began at 2:35 a. m.

A government spokesman said an informal truce had been declared effective until dawn. Then, he said, attacks from both land and sea would be launched until the rebel strongholds surrendered.

Twice the forces of Fulgencio Batista, army chief of staff, repelled the rebels, including soldiers and members of the A. B. C. who sought the return of former President Manuel de Cespedes. Rebel troops took possession of three important fortresses, San Ambrosio, Dragones and Atares, placing in each nearly a thousand well armed dissidents. A sharp battle with gunboats in Havana harbor ensued.

Official reserve shrouded the condition of the gunboats Cuba and Patria after the engagement, but it was said in shipping circles the vessels were in bad shape. Gunners at Atares fortress claimed they were both in near sinking condition. Harbor police said they were "badly damaged."

Many Reregister, Job Agency Here

The federal re-employment agency last night reached a total of 1547 in reregistrations of Marion county unemployed who seek general work or jobs on federal projects, Officer Manager D. D. Dotson announced. The three clerks at the local office were kept busy all day taking new job applications while the branch offices throughout the county continued sending in registration reports. Altogether this week 153 men and women have registered.

"HOME RULE" LAWS BELIEVED EXTINGUISHED

Court Test Will Be Needed However; Klamath Falls Plan is Watched

The status of the "home rule" provision of the state constitution and the old local option laws can be determined only through a test case in the courts, officials declared Wednesday.

This statement followed the recent action of the Klamath Falls city council in enacting an ordinance providing for municipal control of liquor sales and prohibiting the establishment of state liquor stores there. Officials also were agreed that such a test case could not be filed until the eighteenth amendment officially has been repealed by action of the legislature.

Attorney General Van Winkle repeatedly has refused to comment upon the revival of laws repealed by the Anderson dry act or the two constitutional liquor amendments following expulsion of these latter laws from the state statute books and constitution. He indicated that this was a matter for the courts to decide.

SERVICE STATION WILL BE ERECTED

A $2000 service station of which Mrs. B. L. Steeres, 1694 Court street, will be the owner and her son-in-law, Paul W. Morse, operator, is being erected at 546 North High street by J. F. Billeter, a permit issued by the city building inspector yesterday revealed. The structure, on which work has begun, will be 20 by 50 feet and of stucco-covered tile construction.

Another permit issued yesterday recalled a recent zoning commission hearing at which N. Selig sought and obtained a zone change to permit him to erect a one story frame store building at 695 North 14th street. The building will cost $400.

Three other permits yesterday were as follows: L. Van Delinder, alter dwelling at 919 Market street, $275; Genevieve Morgan, repair dwelling at 597 South 16th, $25, and Florence Cunningham, re-roof garage at 560 North Winter, $10.

THE POLICE BLIND THEIR EYES TO CRIME!

Capt. John H. Ayres, head of New York City's Bureau of Missing Persons, admits he has concealed from the public sensational evidence regarding young girls discovered leading lives of shame! As a citizen, it's your right to know why this public official refuses to send these girls to penal institutions with other criminals... why he insists on sending them home to the arms of their forgiving mothers! What right has he to give these girls a chance to become clean, decent, respectable women after they have openly confessed they are stained with sin? If you want to know more astounding facts about how Captain Ayres operates his department, don't miss "Bureau of Missing Persons," the new Warner Bros. picture based on his own thrilling, true-life story! It starts tomorrow at the Elsinore theatre for two days, with Bette Davis, Lewis S. Stone and Pat O'Brien in the 8-star cast!

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES

TO BE AMERICA'S GREATEST STUNT GIRL

A SUDDEN NERVE-BACKING swing upward from a racing auto into a hurtling plane... It's all in the day's work for Mary Wiggins, famous stunt girl who also dives on fire into fire and does the suspension glide in mid-air while hanging only by her teeth. It means something when she says, "Camels never give me edgy nerves even when I smoke a lot."

ME: I'm so glad to see you, Sue. Were you nervous during your first flight?

SUE: Not a bit. I smoked Camels all the way, and I never felt better! I haven't worried about nerves since I took your advice and changed to Camels.

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

LISTEN TO MARY WIGGINS, greatest of all girl stunt performers. She says: "I have to be sure my nerves are healthy to do my stunts, changing from a speeding auto to a plane, the high dive on fire into fire, wing walking while up in a plane, and the high-altitude parachute jump. As to smoking, I've found that Camels don't interfere with healthy nerves. I've tried all the brands. Camels are milder and better in flavor. They do not give me edgy nerves even when I am smoking a lot."

You'll like that rich Camel flavor and mildness. And your nerves will tell you the difference there is in Camel's costlier tobaccos.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.
