

Sunday Society, Clubs and Music Page of The Statesman

JESSIE STEELE
Society Editor
PHONE 9101

Miss Aldrich Speaker At Saturday Session Woman's Club

SCORING the motion picture industry for the hypocrisy of its claims that it provides for the public what the public wants, Maude Aldrich, chairman of motion pictures for the District of Columbia federation of woman's clubs spoke before the Salem Woman's club at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon. In spite of the holiday attractions a large and attentive audience heard Miss Aldrich's plait that motion pictures in this country are growing progressively worse.

University Set Plans Full Week

With the end of exams coming next week, Willamette university groups have planned numerous informal affairs for the coming week.

Members of Beta Chi sorority will act as hostesses at a Sunday night supper tonight, while Delta Phi will entertain for a group of friends at a charmingly informal friends supper.

Alpha Phi Alpha sorority will be guests of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity at dinner Monday evening.

An after-football frolic has been planned by the Sigma Tau fraternity for Friday night following the Willamette-Albany college game. Frank Haley is chairman of the affair. Sigma Tau members will also invite special guests for the dinner hour next Sunday. Don Egr and Francis Crouch are in charge.

Following the Willamette-Southern Oregon game, Alpha Psi Delta fraternity members were hosts at an enjoyable informal party Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. James Nutter were chaperones.

Included among the guests were Miss Beatrice Hartung, Miss Naomi Hewitt, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Ruth Chaney, Miss Sylvia DuBois, Miss Faith Sherburne, Miss Marguerite Flisinger, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Jerome Upson, Miss Winnifred Gardiner, Miss Helen Carlson, Miss Edythe Clauser, Miss Phyllis Dennison, Miss Marjorie Wunder, Miss Helen Kendall, Miss Marion Beelen, and Miss Jean Eastridge.

Hosts were Gus Moore, Miles Woodworth, Edward Frantz, Don Erickson, Steve Anderson, Percy Sweet, Donell Saunders, Kenneth Manning, Dean Cadle, Bill MacAdam, Carl Felter, Forrest Robinson, Luman Ney, James Burdette, Malcolm Jones, Elver Rohdy, and Alfred Pletla.

History Section Holds Dinner Meeting

The history section of the Salem Arts League met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford last Monday evening for the regular semi-monthly meeting. This was an unusually interesting and entertaining meeting, and was marked by a new feature, a 6 o'clock supper.

Special guests were Mrs. H. R. Looney, Mrs. Carolyn Parker and Judge Charles H. Carey. Members present were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Miss Julia K. Webster, Miss Grace Gilliam, Miss Luella Baker, Mrs. Carrie Roland, Miss Gertrude Savage, Mrs. Emma Minton, Mrs. Juanita Paulus, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford.

Especially clever and appropriate place cards were used in seating the guests and the dinner was a very joyous affair. After the meeting the regular program was carried out. The section is at present reading and discussing the new book by Robert J. Hendricks, "Bethel and Aurora," recently off the press Mrs. Hendricks, who, with her family, was a former member of the Aurora community, contributed some very interesting and valuable data. She brought to the meeting several old documents pertaining to the colony, a map of them being the original construction of the Aurora colony, written by hand and in the German language. Judge Carey contributed several valuable bits of information to the general discussion.

V. F. W. Auxiliary Plans Meet Monday

The auxiliary to Post 661, V. F. W., will hold a regular meeting Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse. Installation of officers by Mrs. Cecile Hardy, state department president from Portland, and her degree team, will occupy most of the evening. All eligible members for the auxiliary are invited to attend.

New officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Charles Low; senior vice president, Mrs. Webb Morrison; junior vice president, Mrs. Henry Fournier; chaplain, Mrs. William Rusk; treasurer, Mrs. Lester Davis; guard, Mrs. Effie Wetzel; trustee, Mrs. C. F. Floor; conductress, Miss Martha Floor.

Secretary, Mrs. Harry Sim; musician, Mrs. Milton Turner; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Bryan Conley; historian, Mrs. Newell Williams; color bearers, Mrs. Ward Wolf, Mrs. Roy Betzer, Mrs. Ora Pettit and Mrs. Roy Remington.

The Young People's Forum of the First Methodist church is sponsoring a country fair, Saturday, November 25, in the church annex.

Dance Recital Event of Thursday Night

An interesting affair of Thursday night in the Castilian hall of the Nelson building will be the dance recital sponsored by William F. Christensen and a group of advanced dancing students from Portland.

The recital begins at 8 o'clock and will last about an hour. The public is invited.

Numbers will include an Hungarian gypsy ballet performed in a setting of a native village with a gypsy fortune teller reading fortunes of the villagers with cards. Thirteen dancers including Mr. Christensen take part in this. Other numbers will be given by a professional class, an advanced tap duet and an advanced tap ensemble.

Miss Sheridan Wedded on Friday

Miss Mary Sheridan was wedded to Frank F. Robinson at a simple but impressive ceremony Friday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Sheridan.

Rev. Earl Cochran performed the ring ceremony in front of a beautiful floral altar of pink and white chrysanthemums. Only close friends and members of the families were present.

The bride was gowned in a ruffled crepe of ashes of roses color trimmed in rhinestone buttons and worn with brilliant accessories. Her bouquet was white chrysanthemums and pink carnations. Miss Margaret Townsend, maid of honor, wore a powder blue frock cut along formal lines and a corsage.

Bill Sheridan, Jr., brother of the bride, acted as best man for Mr. Robinson.

Mrs. Nick Brinkley sang "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. F. L. Rose played the wedding march.

Miss Sheridan presided at the serving table after the ceremony during an informal reception.

For her going-away ensemble Mrs. Robinson wore a smart black suit with white accessories. The couple left for a short honeymoon in Portland, after which they will be at home at 555 N. Liberty.

Mrs. Robinson is a graduate of Salem high school and the Capital Business college. Mr. Robinson was educated in a Chicago school of engineering.

Miss Maddison Honor Guest

Miss Leatha Maddison, bride-elect, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Friday night by members of her sewing club. Mrs. W. A. Cummings opened her home for the affair with Mrs. Fred Swanson as assistant hostess.

The gifts were brought to the honor guest in a tiny wagon decorated in pink and white and with chrysanthemums and pink and white papers were used at the refreshment hour.

Special guests were Miss Lela Ford, Miss Zeria Hill and Miss Nellie McAllister, who are visiting Mrs. Cummings. Members bidden to honor Miss Maddison were Mrs. Clifford Taylor, Mrs. Damon Fleener, Mrs. Fred Drager, Mrs. Daisy McIntyre, Mrs. William Heesman, Mrs. R. G. Henderson, Mrs. E. M. Hammer, Mrs. Joy Maddison, Mrs. Haven Gallagher, Mrs. Wilda Bowling, Mrs. Carl Engstrom, Mrs. George Viesko, and hostesses, Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Swanson.

Delta Phi Alums Meet At Hartungs

Delta Phi alumnae of Salem were entertained at the home of Miss Beatrice Hartung Thursday night. The group decided to meet on the first Thursday of each month.

Miss Bertha Babcock assisted the hostess during the informal hour that followed the business meeting. Plans were made for a Christmas party for all alumnae of the vicinity at the home of Mrs. Mildred Colcord.

Present were the Misses Lillian Scott, Cynthia Delano, Phyllis Denison, Betty-Mae Hartung, Sylvia DuBois, Marian Bretz, Mildred Wampler, Lois Barker, Mildred Miller, Alvis Love, Anna Lanke, Viola Crozier, Mrs. Oscar White and hostesses, Miss Hartung and Miss Babcock.

Miss Crozier to Fete Bridge Club

Miss Viola Crozier will be hostess to members of her bridge club Friday afternoon. Miss Cynthia Delano will assist her.

Guests will be Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Miss Iris Jorgenson, Miss Hazel Johnson, Miss Betty-Mae Hartung, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Velma May, Miss Mildred Miller, Miss Fern Harris, Miss Elizabeth Looney and Miss Cynthia Delano.

Slavonic Alliance Delegate

Miss Irene Pershing in native Russian costume who welcomed visiting delegates to the first state convention of the Slavonic association of California which was held in San Francisco Armistice day. The Slavonic Alliance is made up of American-Jugo Slav, Czecho-Slovak, Russian, Polish and Ukrainian societies with a membership of 80,000.

Mrs. J. D. Clark Entertains Bethel Dorcas Club Members Wednesday

Rickreall Ladies Aid Meets for Business Session at Home of Mrs. Jennie Dempsey

Sublimity.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the St. Boniface church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Grace Knapp, daughter of Mrs. Jessie Boldt-heimer, became the bride of Nickolas Klein of Shaw.

The bride was lovely in a floor length pink satin gown made in princess style and long well edged with wide lace. She carried yellow and white chrysanthemums. Miss Dorothy Halfman was bridesmaid and wore a dress of blue crepe trimmed in pink and carried rosebuds and pom-pom chrysanthemums. John Stecklein of M. Angel was best man.

The young couple will live with the bride's mother, Mrs. Boldt-heimer, on her farm northwest of Sublimity.

Following the ceremony a dinner was given at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Klein of Shaw. Among those present were Mrs. Jessie Boldt-heimer, Father Frank Sheerling of Sublimity, Father Matix of Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. George Blemeier of M. Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bartosz of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Halfman of Sublimity, Mrs. Martin of Salem, Mrs. Gregory of Salem, Miss Sophie Haselbacher of Hazel Green, Miss Cecelia Klein of Shaw, Miss Dorothy Halfman of Sublimity, Miss Catherine Klein of Salem, James Klein of Shaw, John Stecklein of M. Angel, Joseph Halfman of Sublimity and R. Gregory of Salem.

Following the dinner a wedding dance was given at Union Hill.

Kingwood.—Annual election of officers of the Book and Thimble club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Templeton, this being the first meeting following the summer vacation. Mrs. Charles Schwartz, retiring vice president, automatically became president, succeeding Mrs. Ray Ferguson. Mrs. Templeton was chosen vice president. Mrs. Waldo Bixel was re-elected treasurer and Mrs. Fred Kubin succeeded Mrs. A. L. Applewhite as secretary. Mrs. Applewhite will be hostess for the Thanksgiving meeting when plans will be completed for the winter's activities, for relief work, and for the annual Christmas party of the organization. All standing committees will also be appointed at this time. A special guest was Mrs. Ronald Craven.

Stayton.—Another benefit bridge party was given by the Women's club, Wednesday night, with Mesdames W. Brown F. Hottinger, G. Fair and W. Y. Adams as hostesses. There were 19 tables in play. Mrs. Dane M. John and Dr. Adams had high score.

During the evening the cast for the high school play the "Blue Bag" gave some skits from the play which they are to present at the H. S. auditorium Thursday and Friday nights.

Lyons.—A surprise party was given for Mrs. Donald Brotherton at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of her birthday.

Claudia Townsend Bride of Bernard Coon

Lovely in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Claudia Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Townsend, and Bernard Coon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Coon.

The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Saturday evening at 4 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Kantner reading the impressive service in the presence of friends and relatives of the couple.

Miss Bessie St. Clair acted as maid of honor and Mr. Herbert Townsend, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Rev. W. C. Kantner officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Townsend, 29 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Coon will make their home at the Fisher apartments.

Nuptials to be Said Monday Night

A wedding of great interest in Salem society is that of Miss Madolyn McKillop to Charles E. Bier, which will take place at 8 o'clock Monday night in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKillop.

Dr. W. C. Kantner will perform the ring ceremony. The bride will be gowned in a long brown satin frock made with ruffles and a jacket of the same material. She will carry roses and buds in pastel shades. Miss Maxine McKillop will be her sister's attendant and will wear brown crepe with a matching jacket and a corsage of roses.

An informal reception will be held following the ceremony. Mrs. Ray Busek and Mrs. Clara Patterson will preside at the serving table which will be centered with the wedding cake. Chrysanthemums will be placed about the rooms.

Assisting with the serving, will be Miss Helen Wiedmer, Miss Helen Larsen and Miss June Speer. Assisting in receiving the guests will be Miss Dorothy Shafer, Miss Mary Jane Adams and Miss Dolly Morgall.

The couple will leave for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home at the Domagalla apartments after November 25. For her traveling ensemble Miss McKillop has chosen a black satin suit with black accessories. Miss McKillop is a graduate of Salem schools and Mr. Bier, son of Mrs. L. G. Bier, was educated in Salem and Arizona. He is connected with the Warner Bros. theatres.

Miss Smith Entertains On Friday

Miss Helen Smith entertained informally Friday night on her birthday anniversary. Singing and games were the diversions of the evening.

The refreshment table was attractive with a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums guarded by lighted yellow tapers. Mrs. T. M. Smith, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. J. B. Thomas served. Mrs. John Robins assisted about the rooms.

Brides were the Misses Elizabeth Brown, Mary Anne Schneider, Olive Feathers, Genevieve Ballinger, Dorothy Finkbeiner, Gertrude Schneider, Helen Smith and Mrs. Charles Bent, Mrs. John Robins, Mrs. J. B. Thomas, Mrs. A. H. Schneider, Mrs. T. M. Smith and hostess, Miss Helen Smith.

B. P. W. Sewing Club Convenes

The sewing club of B. P. W. met at the home of Mrs. Winnifred Herrick Friday night. Miss Clara Witt was assisting hostess.

A potluck supper was enjoyed followed by an evening of sewing. The next meeting will be held December 8, with Mrs. Lillian Cadwell and Miss Edith Burch as hostesses.

Announcement

Mr. Harry Mills, expert barber, who for many years has operated beauty shops in Salem, is now with DuBois Barber Shop in the basement of Masonic Bldg. Mr. Mills will welcome his friends and customers and your patronage will be appreciated.

Remember the Location
DUBOIS Barber Shop
Masonic Bldg. Downstairs

Thanksgiving Promises Host of Delightful Social Events

THANKSGIVING weekend, always one of the high points of the winter social season in Salem, promises to be unusually gay this year. Aside from the small informal family gatherings and impromptu affairs honoring returning college students, the social calendar will schedule two large dances, numerous bridge parties, showers for brides-elect, a wedding and a debutante formal banquet.

One of the largest informal dances of the year will be given at Hazel Green Thanksgiving eve. Hosts for the occasion will be the Salem Gamma Pi chapter and the Portland Delta chapter of Sigma Gamma Pi. Approximately 200 couples will attend, including members of the younger set of both Salem and Portland.

Carl Collins is general chairman, assisted by Robert Goodfellow, Perry Burd and Ray Suing. Mrs. White's senior ballet class will act as hostesses at their annual informal dance at Castilian hall Thanksgiving night. Patrons and patronesses for the affair are Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. James Teed, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gleason and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano.

Miss Cynthia Delano, general chairman, has announced the following committees: decorations, Miss Mary Jane Lau, Miss Delores Mills, and Miss Viola Crozier; tickets, Miss Roberta Varley. Miss Frances Marie Kupper has announced the date of her wedding to Donald E. Woody as November 30. The couple are well-known in Salem.

Miss M. Hisel Married at 4 p.m.

A pretty wedding Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m. united Miss Marie Hisel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hisel, and Harold Pierce, son of Mrs. Charles M. Pierce.

The ceremony was performed in the First Christian parsonage by Rev. Guy L. Drill. Only members of the families were present.

The bride was lovely in a tip-toe length frock of pale pink georgette. She wore a corsage The couple were unattended.

Following the ceremony an informal buffet luncheon was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Hisel and Mrs. Pierce presided at the serving table.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce left for a short wedding trip after the reception. For her going away ensemble the bride wore a blue suit with matching accessories. They will be at home next week at 590 Union avenue.

Mrs. Pierce attended Aumsville high school and Mr. Pierce Salem high school. Numerous affairs are being planned in their honor for the coming week.

Mrs. Wilson Hostess To Club

Mrs. Delbert Wilson entertained the Knut-A-Care club Thursday afternoon with a delightful informal affair.

Sewing occupied the afternoon and refreshments were served late.

Mrs. William Thomas will entertain the group next.

Present were Mrs. Elton Birch, Mrs. Lloyd Thomas, Mrs. Carroll Robinson, Mrs. Judson Bressler, Miss Shirley Jean Wilson and hostess, Mrs. Delbert Wilson.

What Shall I Give Jack? PHOTOGRAPHS

will solve your gift problems simply and effectively. As a Bonus to Early Shoppers We are Giving an Extra Print FREE with Each Order for a Dozen Portraits Made Before November 25. "CYN" CRONISE Court and Commercial Sts.

During November Only This 26-PIECE SET OF TUDOR PLATE

26 PIECES
$9.95
REGULARLY $12.00

Tomorrow's Prices May be Higher

HERE'S an extraordinary opportunity! Lovely Silverware—of superior quality—a complete service for six—at more than 28% below even today's prices. Guaranteed for 35 years. Your choice of smart modern designs. Come in, and see this amazing value.

Buy Now... Pay Later
Watches... Diamonds... Jewelry Silverware

We offer to all of our old as well as new customers the courtesy of a divided charge account, extending to you, your own terms within reason.

R. C. AIKEN, Inc.
—JEWELERS—
Successors to Burnett Bros. Established for more than a third of a century.
457 State St.

EXTRA SPECIAL...
Shampoo and Finger Wave
60c Complete
NOTE: This Work Done by Expert Operators
Oregon Beauty Shop
426-7-8 Oregon Bldg.
Phone 5754

CROQUINOLE PUSH WAVE Ringlet Ends Complete $1.00
Castle Permanent Wavers Co.
307 East Nat'l Bank Bldg., 5088

Aunts, uncles and grandparents will appreciate photographs of the children for Christmas. Bring them to see us before the Christmas rush.

Gunnell & Robb Studio
Phone 5572 520 State St.