Ladies Auxiliary To Entertain At Dinner

An interesting affair of tonight will be the dinner and informal evening given by the ladies' auxiliary of the Marion-Polk-Tanhill Medical association in honor of the physicians and surgeons who are members of the association, their husbands.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple with 100 guests expected. The Thanksgiving motif will be used with bright fall flowers and tapers decorating the tables. This is the first affair of its kind that the auxiliary has ever given.

An hour's informal entertainment and a travel talk by C. W. Noble will follow the dinner. Cards and dancing will be enjoyed later.

Mrs. Carl Emmons, president of the auxiliary, is chairman for the event, assisted by Mrs. V. A. Douglas, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Burton Myers, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Laban Steeves and Mrs. Frank Brown.

Mother's Club Gives Luncheon

A beautifully appointed 1 o'clock luncheon was given by the Delta Phi Mother's club at the home of Mrs. Rose Babcock Monday afternoon. The affair is a traditional annual luncheon.

Guests were seated at one long table centered with a basket of cardinal and gold chrysanthemums, flanked by tall orange tapers.

Mrs. O. W. Emmons spoke informally on books, and Mrs. C. P. Bishop gave a history of the founding of the Salem public library. Plans were made for a Christmas party at the chapter house.

Special guests were patronesses of the sorority and included Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. Roy Hewitt, Mrs. W. T. Jenks, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. C. P. Bishop.

Members present were Mrs. Fred A. Well, Mrs. A. L. Dark, Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. Lillian Hagman, Mrs. A. M. Chapman, Mrs. J. F. Ulrich, Mrs. Edward M. Wunder, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Mrs. C. F. Gillette, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Mrs. A. C. Hag, Mrs. O. W. Emmons, Mrs. E. R. Worth, Mrs. Gordon Black, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. H. S. Bosshard, Mrs. W. R. Speck, Mrs. Jessup, Mrs. Lee Unruh and Mrs. Rose Babcock.

Gervais—Mrs. A. B. Adkinson entertained recently with a surprise birthday dinner in compliment for Mr. Adkinson. Bridge was the pastime. Present were Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Max Rodgers and Dr. Victor Morris, all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper and Miss Ethel Conway. Mr. Mackenzie and Dr. Morris were high bridge players.

Miss Lois Riggs has returned from Portland where she attended the wedding of Miss Freda Stadler and George Barron. Miss Riggs and Mrs. Barron were classmates at the University of Oregon, where both were affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority.

The Chemawa grange and home economics club will sponsor a silver tea Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Walter Oldenburg, West Kelzer. Interesting heirlooms will be on exhibit.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Evangelical church will hold a thank offering meeting and silver tea Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. A. Temington, 2186 Chemeketa.

Molalla—Mrs. George Gregory won first prize for women and Dr. Leon Hilder for men at a bridge party given Thursday night by the Masons for Eastern Star members and friends. Nine tables of cards were played.

Gervais—Mrs. Romeo Gouley was hostess at her home Friday afternoon for a charming tea for the Past Matrons club of Gervais chapter, O. E. S., when members of the Woodburn and Salem chapters were special guests.

Chrysanthemums and tapers were effectively arranged about the room and on the serving tables, with snapdragons on the piano offering a pleasing note.

Musical numbers by Joy Turner, piano, violinist, and Mrs. Nellie Ramp, soloist, were enjoyed.

Pouring were Mrs. Monnie Houser, grand worthy matron of the O. E. S., and Mrs. Mabel Settlemeier, first host; Lana Beechler, matron of Chadwick chapter, and Lilly Bitney, second host, and Elizabeth Brown and Claire Ellsworth, third host. Harry Ramp and Kay Gouley served.

Aurora—A notation on the calendar of those who enjoy a game of bridge was a 12:30 luncheon given by Mrs. E. S. Bradt. Saturday, in compliment to her bridge club. Honors to additional guests were awarded to Mrs. P. O. Ottoway, Mrs. Arthur Kell, and Mrs. A. L. Strickland. Mrs. Bradt was assisted during the afternoon by her daughter Martha.

Pleasantdale—Mrs. J. W. Sims entertained the Pleasantdale Needle club and four guests at her home Friday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. R. L. Clark, Mrs. J. B. Crabtree, Mrs. Vernon Foster, Mrs. Lewis Nichols. Annual election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Clarence L. Fowler; vice-president, Mrs. George Foster; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Henry Freshour.

League to Meet At Library Tonight

The Salem Arts league will hold an open meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the public library. A council meeting at 7:30 p. m. will precede the general session.

H. C. Leavenworth is the speaker of the evening and will talk on his recent journey across the northern part of the United States with special reference to Yellowstone park and the Black Hills.

Mrs. F. H. Van Trump, chairman of the program committee, will introduce the speaker.

Mrs. Jessie Singleton will review an anthology of short stories by Lawrence D'Orsey which the league has presented to the city library.

Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, president, requests the writer's section under the chairmanship of Mrs. Singleton, the history section under Mrs. John Clifford, the sketch class under Mrs. Ella Hathaway, and the creative theatre group under Perry Reigleman to be in attendance at the meeting is of special interest to them.

Portland Art Exhibit Of Interest

An exhibition of old Italian paintings is now being shown at the Museum of Art in Portland.

This is the first opportunity given in the northwest to see many original examples from the great period of Italian art beginning with the 14th and 15th centuries. These are from old altarpieces in tempera on panels of wood. Oil paintings of the High Renaissance are also shown. Some fine portraits are included.

The paintings are from the collection of Samuel H. Kress of New York, to whose generosity the museum is indebted for the exhibition.

Art lovers and study groups in neighboring cities will undoubtedly be interested.

The art museum, West Park and Madison streets, is free and open daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., Sundays and holidays, 2 to 5 p. m.

The exhibition will close November 27.

Liberty — The Women's club will hold its annual child welfare silver tea Thursday at 2 o'clock at the community hall as a benefit for the school hat lunch project. Vegetables are solicited and everyone is invited to attend. In addition to the program to be furnished by school children, there will be several numbers by children from the state blind school and a demonstration of their work.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Tate and Mrs. B. E. Bower. Mrs. W. R. Heater will be hostess at the meeting, in two weeks.

M. A. Nicely of Portland spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of A. E. Robertson in Turner. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fowler, Nora Heselman and Oran Robertson of Salem were dinner guests at the Robertson home Sunday.

Miss Kaye Goulet and Jack McCullough were two University of Oregon students who visited in Salem over the weekend.

"Mum" Show to Open At Clubhouse

The Salem Heights community club will sponsor a chrysanthemum show today and Wednesday at the clubhouse. Entries may be made this morning. Exhibitors are to furnish their own containers and have flowers arranged before 1 p. m. this afternoon.

Ribbons and prizes will be awarded in each of the eleven classes which are as follows:

Class A: Large chrysanthemums disbudded, 1. Best single bloom; 2. Best vase or basket.

Class B: Anemone flowered chrysanthemums, 1. Best stem of blooms; 2. Best vase of three stems; 3. Best basket.

Class C: Pompons, 1. Best single stem; 2. Best basket.

Class D: Disbudded pompons, 1. Best vase of 3 blooms; 2. Best vase or basket.

Class H: Best vase or basket, any size, of mixed chrysanthemums.

Class I: Best chrysanthemum arrangement for table decoration.

Class J: Chrysanthemum novelties.

Class K: Chrysanthemums in pots.

Chapter G, P. E. O., will be entertained by Mrs. Lillian Hagman at the Delta Phi house with a dessert luncheon Thursday afternoon.

Miss Josephine Gray will be assisting hostess.

Sans Souci Club Feted By Dancers

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dencer entertained members of the Sans Souci club at their country home in the Liberty district recently. Four tables of 500 were in play during the evening, with high scores going to Mrs. Joy Turner, Moses and M. P. Dennis. Second high honors went to Mrs. M. P. Dennis and Guy Williams.

At a late hour luncheon was served by the hosts.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Moses, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andersen, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Auman, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rains.

Jefferson—Miss Margaret Cochran, whose marriage to Charles Hart, Jr., will be an event of the near future, was the inspiration for a miscellaneous shower Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Hart, three miles southeast of Jefferson.

Present were Miss Cochran, Zone Sepp, Pauline and Eleanor Looney, Lucille and Callista Pratt, Jean McKee, Frances and Margaret Goin, Vera Watkins, Mrs. Wesley Barnes, Mrs. Lincoln Waterman, Lucille Barnes, Gladys Calahan, Mrs. K. S. Thurston and daughter Mickey, Vivian Chain, Mrs. Norris Looney, Jessie Hart, Bubbles Hart, Roy Hart, Mrs. Cochran and her niece, and the hostess, Mrs. Hart.

High School Faculty Entertained

Salem high school library was the scene of a delightfully informal tea yesterday afternoon when Miss Alta Kershner, high school librarian, Miss Mabel P. Robertson, dean of girls, and Mrs. Eula Creech, head of the home economics department, entertained the high school faculty and administration. Jardinieres of purple and bronze-button chrysanthemums on the wide, low bookcases beneath the windows, together with a specially prepared table of books added to the color of the cheerful book-lined room.

Miss Robertson and Miss Carlotta Crowley presided at the long service table centered with a bowl of roses. The Misses Muriel Wassam, Carolyn Hunt, Betty Dotson, Maxine Gahlsdorf, Eleanor Curtis and Alice Chandler assisted with the serving.

The tea was a surprise event for the guests, who were called together for a "faculty meeting," and served to call attention to the opening of book week in the city's schools. In the office of Assistant Principal R. W. Tavenner, adjoining the library, an unique display of books was arranged.

The Hanna Rosa court, Order of Amaranth, will hold a 6:30 o'clock dinner in the Masonic temple Wednesday night in honor of visiting grand officers and members of various courts in Portland and Eugene. A business session will follow the dinner at 8 p. m.

TEN CENTS A WEEK is that a big price to be SURE of your Hair?

A simple way to keep your hair as you've arranged it—without using any sticky dressing.

That's all it costs—a dime a week at the most—to be sure of your hair every day, and all day long. To know it's clean, and looks clean. To know it will stay as you arranged it. And to know no dandruff will sift to the surface.

That's what moistening your comb with a few drops of Danderine will do. And no amount of dry-combing will ever do. Nearly all hair needs the help that Danderine gives it. A dash of Danderine morning and night makes an amazing difference in the way any hair looks all the time! And the smallest size will last over a month.

After you have washed your hair, a little

Danderine will keep it from going helter-skelter. When you pay a dollar for a wave, Danderine will help you keep it. It isn't a sticky dressing, or an oily tonic, and it doesn't leave any telltale odor. Its fresh fragrance is gone a moment after applying—but not that marvelous effect of freshness and cleanliness!

It's a pity not to know this little secret that means so much in the way any hair will look. It's no trouble. Yet you can hardly believe anything so mild and pleasant as Danderine could bring such a change in the condition and appearance of your hair and scalp. Just try it. You can buy a bottle of Danderine at any drugstore for thirty-five cents.
