

MONMOUTH NORMAL ARTISTS EXHIBIT

Works at School Library in Conjunction With State League Show

MONMOUTH, Nov. 14.—In conjunction with the Oregon Artists Professional League's exhibit in Portland this week, artists of the Monmouth Normal school are exhibiting their recent work in the O. N. S. model library. Their exhibit will consist of paintings, sculpture and crafts in various mediums, oil, water color, tempera, clay, plaster, photography, weaving, batik, linoleum block and tooled leather.

Alabama Brenton, member of the art department, studied at the art students' league, New York city, and is a graduate of the Pratt Institute of Fine Arts. She will show still life and textile designs in tempera. Katherine Larsen, also a member of the art department, now on leave of absence, studied at the school of the Portland Art Museum and was graduated from O. N. S. and the University of Oregon. She will exhibit a linoleum block design in colors and textures in batik.

Pearl Heath of the art department and a graduate of the Normal, studied at the University of Chicago, the Louvre in Paris, and received her B.A. degree at San Jose college, California. She is showing a display of creative photography, also paintings in oil and water color and a book cover in tooled leather. Marie Ring, formerly of the Normal art department, now of Lake Grove, is a graduate of the Normal, studied at the Louvre, Paris, and received her M.A. degree at the University of Oregon last June. She is exhibiting pottery.

Agnes Campbell, graduate of the Normal, has studied at the Art Students' League in New York, in Berlin at the Schulerheimann, and at the Academy Julian in Paris. She is showing a group of animals which she sculptured at the Lincoln park zoo in Los Angeles as well as water color paintings of Honolulu scenes. Anne Ulen Bell, Normal graduate, and for several years an instructor at O. N. S., will show examples of foot loom weaving done at the University of Oregon.

Portraits painted in oil and a figure sculptured in plaster will be shown by Halley Johnson, who was graduated from the Normal in 1931, and from the University of Oregon in June. Robert Barnett, Normal graduate, and graduate of Columbia university, New York, who has conducted the Normal for several summers, is showing landscapes in oil.

The exhibition is open to all during regular library hours.

CHAMBER TO ELECT OFFICERS SHORTLY

WOODBURN, Nov. 14.—Officers of the Woodburn chamber of commerce will be elected at the next meeting, Wednesday night, November 22. The regular meeting night is November 15, but this is too soon after Armistice day and also too soon after the last meeting. John Ramage is present head of the organization.

The annual family pollock dinner for the Home Rebekah lodge No. 55, will be held Friday, November 17, at 2 p. m. in the Woodburn I. O. O. F. hall, according to plans. After the dinner there will be a program, one member of each family contributing. A masquerade party will be given at the regular meeting, to be held November 21. All members are requested to come masked. A program is being arranged by Miss Edna Payne Liversay, Miss Freda Hall and Miss Ethel Tredder.

SLATE CARD PARTY

SUBLIMITY, Nov. 14.—Friday night, November 17, the Woman Foresters will give a public card party, followed by refreshments and dance, at the C. O. F. hall. There is a small admission.

West Salem Legion Buys Land and Starts Plans For Hall and Clubhouse

WEST SALEM, Nov. 14.—Kingwood post of the American Legion has negotiated a deal whereby it becomes possessor of lots one and two in Block 4, Kingwood Terrace. This tract lies between Terrace drive on the front and Parkway to the rear and is situated between Cascade drive and the Creek road. On the property are a few large fir, and much beautiful shrubbery. This will be site of the Legion hall and clubhouse, which will be an attractive one story log structure with a full sized basement for banquet hall and kitchenette. The building, now planned will be 40 by 60 feet. A power saw mill has been installed on the place with which the men will saw the logs for the building. Legionnaires and boy scouts will begin clearing next Saturday.

Floyd White, who has been operating a manufacturing concern that makes fine cabinet work on Edgewater street, has built a shop on his own property on Cascade drive and has moved. His business with his electric saws and equipment up on the Terrace.

At the community benefit held in the Community hall Thursday evening, $17.20 was realized and will be used for school equipment and supplementary books.

GRANGERS' COLUMN

ANKENY, Nov. 14.—Ankeny grange will meet Saturday night at the grange hall, with annual election to be the main feature. R. R. Dent is master now and Rosevelt Wright is lecturer.

FAIRFIELD, Nov. 14.—At Fairfield grange meeting Friday night candidates receiving favorable votes were Melvin Fancier, Jack Allenback and Vera Short. Officers elected to serve the coming year are: Master, J. W. Johnston; overseer, Michael Mahoney, Jr.; lecturer, Miss Sylvia Fancier; steward, Raymond Segund; assistant steward, Ivan Brunidge; chaplain, Mrs. C. E. Alenback; treasurer, Mrs. William McElchris; secretary, Mrs. Allyn Nusom; gatekeeper, F. M. Hill; Ceres, Mrs. Fern Runcorn; Pomona, Mrs. William Fancier; Flora, Mrs. C. A. Hanagan; executive committee, Allyn Nusom, Duke Ballweber and Ward Lundy; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Ivan Brunidge.

Plans were made to attend an all-day meeting at Butteville Saturday, December 16, when officers of Butteville and Fairfield grange will be installed.

DAYTON, Nov. 14.—About 50 members of the Webfoot grange attended the social open meeting held at the Webfoot hall Saturday night. Because of the fog several of the speakers on the program from a distance could not attend. The lunches sold netted $4 for the general fund.

RICKREALL, Nov. 14.—The local grange held its election for the 1934 officers at the regular meeting Friday, and the following were elected: Claude Larken, master; George Van Santen, overseer; Mrs. Helen Van Santen, lecturer; Kenneth Elliott, steward; Loren Wilson, assistant steward; Mrs. Myrtle Elliott, chaplain; W. W. Rowell, treasurer; Mrs. Emma Rowell, secretary; Forrest Martin, gate keeper; Mrs. Reta Martin, Pomona; Mrs. Alice Wilson, Ceres; Mrs. Mary Adams, Flora; Elizabeth Rowell, lady assistant; executive committee, Findley Edgar, Arthur Beaver, Wes Elliott.

These officers will be installed December 16 at Monmouth. A kitchen shower will be held in the near future to replenish that department. The president of the P. T. A. asked the cooperation of the grange in their activities.

The degree team will go to Brush College Wednesday night to confer the first and second degrees upon six candidates.

THREE BUSES NOW SERVING STUDENTS

WOODBURN, Nov. 14.—The Woodburn school district now owns three school buses, having within the last few days purchased for $350 a bus from C. J. Towse who has been using the bus to operate between Marquam and Silverton.

According to plans the new addition to the school district's bus fleet will be used only for emergency purposes. The new machine has a capacity of about 30 pupils. It has been intimated by school board members that the new bus may be put into regular service later.

Woodburn's two other busses each make two trips in the morning and two in the afternoon. Alfred Klamp drives one and William Hardy the other.

At the recent school meeting the taxpayers gave consent to the school board to purchase a school bus, and intimated that $1500 should be a sufficient fund. The total cost of the two busses already bought amounts to little more than $700.

IOWAN AT MEHAMA

MEHAMA, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Chappin of Iowa arrived here Thursday for an indefinite visit with Mrs. Boone Poyner.

Potato Harvest Big

Councilman George Chapman, who had charge of growing potatoes on a vacant tract of land for relief for the needy, last week had them dug, stored and already distribution has begun. On the three-acre tract they harvested 203 sacks and have them stored in a vacant water reservoir belonging to the city. Councilman J. Beck, who visited the garden plots and the potato field states this venture to be the most successful of any he has been watching this season throughout Polk county.

Mr. and Mrs. Al C. Henning were hosts to a pleasant little gathering of young folks complementing the 19th birthday of a niece, Barbara Armstrong.

In Armistice Baby Felicitations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Darrel T. Bradford over the arrival of a daughter, Dorothy Ann, at their home Saturday morning, November 11. Mr. Bradford is proprietor of the West Salem shoe shop. The Jolly Time Quilting club closed a long vacation period by meeting one afternoon last week with Mrs. Emmett A. Dickson for mounting and mending a quilt. Mrs. Hathaway is present and the club meets fortnightly for quilting and usually spends the day with a pot-luck luncheon.

33 PUPILS RECEIVE HONORS FOR STUDY

WOODBURN, Nov. 14.—The honor roll at Woodburn high school for the first period of the first semester has been compiled. There are 33 members of the Torch Honor society, the official scholarship group, out of a student group of 232, including six freshmen, seven sophomores, nine juniors and 11 seniors.

Kathleen Shorey and Gerald Nibler have been members of the society the longest successive number of periods, each having been on the roll 19 successive times. Marjory Jones has been on the roll 13 periods of successive membership, and Hazel Caruthers 11 times.

DAVID FREITAG IS INJURED IN CRASH

RIVERVIEW, Nov. 14.—David Freitag sustained a dislocated right shoulder Saturday night when the John DeWalt car in which he was riding, turned over in the ditch near the Frank Nook place. Other occupants were uninjured but the car was badly wrecked. Freitag was taken to Scio for medical attention.

A surprise birthday party was given at the Paul Bartnik home in honor of Leonard and Harold Bartnik Saturday night. About 75 friends enjoyed the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Welch of Vancouver, Earl Bartnik of Portland, Ed Bartnik of Toledo, and Muriel Bigham of Portland were weekend guests at the Paul Bartnik home.

TRUCK HITS BANK DUE TO FOG HAZE

MIDDLE GROVE, Nov. 14.—Fog and defective brakes were responsible for extensive damage to the light pick-up truck belonging to Edwin Hughey when it ran into a bank at the four corners near Middle Grove Sunday night. Aside from bruises no one was seriously injured.

Women's Missionary society will meet with Mrs. V. H. Schaff Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Cecil Bartruff, who is in a CCC camp at Reedsport, visited over the weekend at his home here. He reports that the 175 boys in the camp are comfortably housed in four buildings located on what is known as the Walker farm near Reedsport. Road work is the occupation of the camp at this time.

Milton A. Miller Speaker at Aurora Armistice Program

AURORA, Nov. 14.—Milton A. Miller, collector of customs, was the principal speaker on an Armistice day program, which was given by the pupils of the Aurora school, Friday afternoon. A gift of the school was made by Miller of an "unfinished picture" of George Washington.

At the close of a talk by Hal Campbell, instructor of the band, he presented a large American flag as his gift to the school district. The remainder of the program was made up of patriotic music, recitations and poems by the pupils.

Grange to Urge Bonneville Line Funds on State

An out and out state appropriation with which to construct transmission lines from the Bonneville dam to Portland and other distribution centers, will be urged by the Oregon state grange at the special legislative session, Merton Tompkins, a member of the grange executive committee, declared here Tuesday.

Tompkins declared that the appropriation bill had been discussed by the grange executive committee but that the amount of money that would be necessary had not been determined definitely. He said this bill probably would be introduced early in the legislative session.

"The approval of this appropriation would prove to the government that the state of Oregon is ready to take advantage of the Bonneville dam project," Tompkins declared.

On November 19 the Chemekets, local hiking club, will hike in the Mill Creek district, leaving the Senator hotel at 8:30 a. m. Mill creek is reached via the Dallas cutoff, a distance of about 30 miles from Salem. The hike will be about eight miles. Members are requested to bring their lunches. Chemekets who work at Ladd & Bush bank will lead the trip and further information may be obtained from Walter McCune at the bank or Augusta Mofdrutt, chairman of the local walks committee at 7848. Register at the Senator hotel.

Community Clubs

BRATUM, Nov. 14.—The community club will meet here Friday night instead of Wednesday night as inadvertently announced.

MIDDLE GROVE, Nov. 14.—The community club will meet at the schoolhouse Friday night with Kenneth Van Cleave in charge of the program.

WACONDA, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Richard Patterson will entertain members of the Waconda community club Wednesday at her home.

RIOKEY, Nov. 14.—Despite the dense fog a good crowd attended the "new member night" meeting of the community club held at the school house Friday, Mrs. M. M. Magee, president, presided; and at the business session it was voted to have an old fashioned Christmas tree with candy and nuts and an exchange of presents, the price not to exceed five cents each.

Mrs. P. B. Buck, Mrs. Leo Kenney, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Spilde, Mrs. Floyd Beck will be in charge of the program and Mrs. W. H. Humphrey, C. Courtner, Mrs. W. D. Horner, Mrs. I. Brown, Mrs. H. E. Martin, Christmas tree, lunch, Mrs. C. Horner and Mrs. H. McElroy.

The club voted to enter class A in the Federation standardization program. Mr. and Mrs. W. Carothers were appointed as delegates to the federation meet at H. A. I. Green and Mr. and Mrs. C. Courtner to attend at Kelser.

The evening's entertainment was put on by new members including program, Mrs. J. Amort, Mrs. Carl Shafer, Mrs. C. Courtner, Mrs. Waldo Crabb; refreshments, Mrs. H. Phillips, Mrs. F. Beard. Program numbers were given by Valeva Amort and Emily Bremer, Alena Bremner, Dorris Brown, Edward Farrington, Virginia Pugh, Mrs. W. D. Horner and Margaret Magee.

CENTRAL HOWELL, Nov. 14.—Middle Grove and Brush Creek were the only outside community clubs represented at the community meeting Friday night. Foggy weather kept several from coming. Numbers from Middle Grove were given by Genevieve Scharf and Katherine Scharf. Brush Creek gave a two-act play, "Social Difficulties." Those taking part were Althea Meyer, Viola Larsen, Charlotte Goplerud, Luella Forland and J. C. Larsen.

Other numbers on the program were given by the primary room, Barbara Gesner and Beulah Brock of Salem, Bertha Pallesen, Joseph Wood, Beulah Lichty, Evelyn Plunkett, Lucille Hall, and NRA talk by Otto K. Paulus of Salem.

Central Howell has been requested to furnish a number on the Brush Creek program Friday, November 17.

UNIONVALE, Nov. 14.—A picnic will be given Saturday night in connection with the regular monthly program of the Unionvale community club at the school house.

PIONEER, Nov. 14.—The Pioneer community club held its regular monthly business meeting and social at the clubhouse Friday.

CLINICS ARRANGED AT SCHOOLS HERE

Three rural and three city schools are included in this week's schedule of health clinics. County health department staff members Monday examined first graders at Englewood school here and will do so at Lincoln school today. Examinations at these schools were preceded by clinics at Grant, McKinley and Richmond schools.

Today Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, health officer, spent yesterday morning at the Scotts Mills school examining children from that place and Crooked Finger and Nobel schools. In the afternoon he remained at Scotts Mills to examine preschool children from these districts.

Dr. Douglas will spend all day Thursday at Stayton. The only other clinics scheduled this week are Dr. J. R. Backstrand's baby clinic at the Salem health center Thursday morning and the immunization clinic there Saturday morning.

Mill Creek Area Is Sunday's Goal For Chemeketans

On November 19 the Chemekets, local hiking club, will hike in the Mill Creek district, leaving the Senator hotel at 8:30 a. m. Mill creek is reached via the Dallas cutoff, a distance of about 30 miles from Salem. The hike will be about eight miles. Members are requested to bring their lunches. Chemekets who work at Ladd & Bush bank will lead the trip and further information may be obtained from Walter McCune at the bank or Augusta Mofdrutt, chairman of the local walks committee at 7848. Register at the Senator hotel.

After the business meeting Mrs. Mark Blodgett had charge of the program which consisted of a harmonica duet by Freda and Anna Smith and an accordion solo by Henry Smith and reading by Mrs. Blodgett.

PIONEER, Nov. 14.—The Dallas community club met at the country home of Mrs. Frank Domaschofsky Thursday afternoon. The women will prepare a box to be sent to the Children's Farm Home for Christmas at their meeting December 7 at the home of Mrs. Clyde Robbins. They plan to have a part in the county Federation meeting at Perrydale November 18.

War Glemourless, Armistice Talker At Silverton Says

SILVERTON, Nov. 14.—Roy Hewitt, speaker at the Armistice day program at Silverton Saturday morning, tore the usual glamour and glory from the reminiscent war scenes and vividly painted war as war really was.

A vocal solo was given by Mrs. W. P. Scarth with Mrs. Fern Davenport at the piano. Mrs. Edson Comstock gave "In Flanders Field." Kenneth Hanson was the presiding officer.

Raspberries, Pook! Says Family That Enjoys Green Corn

WALDO HILLS, Nov. 14.—While some communities boast of fresh raspberries, the Waldo Hills refuse to be beaten and offer green corn now being picked and used by the Edison Comstocks.

Also Mrs. Fred Kaser has two large red geraniums blossoming on either side of her front steps. They reach to the top of the bungalow porch and are full of bloom. Each year she and her five sons carry them to the basement. This year one must be cut back in order to be accommodated down there.

Hubbard School Votes On Gymnasium Friday

HUBBARD, Nov. 14.—Local school district taxpayers will vote Friday night at 8 o'clock on proposal to permit the school board to issue $4000 negotiable interest bearing warrants to build a gymnasium.

WEST STAYTON, Nov. 14.—A two-act opera "The Palace of Carelessness," has been chosen by instructors of the West Stayton school for the students to give about November 24 at the schoolhouse. The proceeds will go toward purchasing some baseball equipment. The school team did well in the games played last year and expects to do even better this season.
