

Callison Off With Oregon Squad for Southern California

THIRTY MEN TO MAKE TRIP

Webfoots Hold Last Practice And Entrain for Los Angeles To Cinch Championship

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 15 (AP)—With the Pacific Coast conference championship undisputedly theirs, if their invasion is successful, the University of Oregon Webfoots, 30 of them, were to leave Eugene late tonight for Los Angeles, where they will clash with the Trojans of the University of Southern California in their last conference game of the season.

The undefeated, untied Oregon squad wound up their practice here this afternoon with a long drill. They will arrive in Los Angeles Friday morning and take a light workout in the Olympic coliseum, scene of the game, Friday afternoon.

In a last minute endeavor to strengthen the already stalwart Oregon line, Coach Prink Callison temporarily converted Howard "Dutch" Clark, 180-pound veteran right guard in center, in case Bernie Hughes, regular center and co-captain, is unable to play.

Players making the trip include: Bernie Hughes and Chuck Swanson, centers; Dutch Clark, Broe Cappoletti, Hugh McCredie, Roy Gagnon and Con Furry, guards; Alex East, Bill Nilsson, Gardner Frye, Dwight Neilson and Chuck Bishop, tackles; Butch Morse, Chuck Wisard, Bud Pozo, Ned Simpson, Budd Jones and Mason McCoy, ends; Bob Parke, Ralph Terjeson and Whit Arey, quarterbacks; Mark Temple, Leighton Gee, Frank Mischek, Stew Milligan, Maury Van Vleet and Pepper Pepelnick, halfbacks; and Mike Mikulak, Howard Bobbitt and Jack Rushlow, fullbacks.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15 (AP)—Southern California's disillusioned football squad went through a rough defensive scrimmage today against Oregon plays as the Trojans dashed off their final hard workout before their Saturday tussle with the conference leading Webfoots.

For the first time since the St. Mary's game when he suffered a knee injury, Bob Erskine, giant left tackle, indulged in the heavy going, but withdrew after half an hour of work in order not to overtax the injured limb.

Aside from Erskine's appearance in the line Coach Howard Jeteran made no changes, with the departed still on the third string where they probably will remain until the Notre Dame game.

Oregon's running bogged down as the varsity forwards dug in and refused to move but several passes were completed over the secondary defense, much to the disgust of the head man.

Coach Jones gave the team a long talk on defensive tactics before they went into the scrimmage which was the second of the teeth rattling variety in as many days. Tomorrow the squad will taper off with offensive drill again.

FINANCE SCHOOLS BY STATE, DUNTON

MOLALLA, Nov. 15. — Charles Johnson, past commander of the Silverton Legion post, and Forrest Dunton, principal of the Molalla grammar school, were the two main speakers at the Armistice Day program Monday night in the high school auditorium.

Glenn Kirkwood, high school principal, was chairman. "Significance of Armistice Day," was the subject of Johnson's talk, stressing the need for national preparedness and a universal draft law of money as well as men.

Dunton spoke on school finance, favoring the passage of a law whereby the state would be responsible for the financial support of the schools.

He also advocated having the state treasurer act as a depository for school warrants, turning them over to the Reconstruction Finance corporation so that the schools may be run normally.

Freshmen Win Dallas Debate

DALLAS, Nov. 15. — Members of the freshmen debate team, upholding the affirmative side of the question: "Resolved, that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation," won a unanimous decision over the sophomores here today in the second of the interclass debates. The final debate of the series will be held next Wednesday afternoon when the freshmen and juniors meet to decide the school championship.

The freshmen will argue the affirmative side of the question and the juniors will take the negative.

Those taking part in today's debate were: freshmen, Margaret Lindahl, Jeanne Hartman, and Frank Peters; sophomores, Fred McPetridge, Hene Gatens, and Albert Klassen. Judges for the debate were county school superintendent J. S. R. R. Beck, and Mrs. E. W. Kras.

Attend Wedding—E. M. Dewey and Mrs. Bessie Read were in Vancouver Tuesday to attend the wedding of Bob Rodenbaugh and Ila Poage. The newlyweds will reside in Salem.

Stanford Unseats the Trojan King From His Mythical Throne

The Cardinals stormed the Trojan stronghold November 11 in Los Angeles and unseated the king of football from his mythical national throne. Defeating University of Southern California, 13 to 7, the Stanford gridgers terminated disastrously a brilliant football career for Coach Howard Jones' wonder teams of the last two years. Seven major leaders are now eligible for the royal purple—Oregon, Michigan, Army, Nebraska, Duke, Georgia and Princeton. All are unbeaten and untied so far this season. The forthcoming contest between the Trojans and Oregon will settle the Pacific Coast conference title. Stanford started the parade last Saturday. ## BEAVER TEAM IN NEW YORK

Plays Fordham Saturday; May Play in Midwest Thanksgiving

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Oregon State football squad 26 strong, reached New York late today for its football game with Fordham Saturday. The Beavers arrived at 5 p. m. and went directly to their hotel (the Lincoln). They plan to have their first workout at the polo grounds tomorrow and follow it with a light drill Friday.

Coach Lon Stiner reported the entire squad to be in good condition.

"There are a few slight injuries," he said, "but I expect we'll all be in fine shape after looking at all the tall buildings."

The players expect to occupy most of their spare time with sight-seeing.

Nearly half the squad which came east last year to suffer an 8 to 6 set back at Fordham's hands made the trip again this year, but it is an entirely new experience for most of the others.

Many of them never have made a trip outside of Oregon. The first invasion of the east by the Beavers was several years ago when they beat New York University.

Neither Coach Stiner nor his team was worried about last week's 13-3 defeat by Oregon which took Oregon State off the unbeaten list. Despite the loss they believe they have a good chance to beat the Rams Saturday.

"If we'd beaten them," Stiner commented about last week's clash, "we would have had to steal the game. We did drop a couple of passes in the end zone, but we were thoroughly outplayed."

Although the regular season ends for both teams Saturday, Stiner admitted negotiations were being carried on for a post-season clash for the visitors on their way back west. He refused to say what he outcome might be, merely asserting they were "dickering" with several colleges. Other members of the party said, however, there had been discussions with Nebraska and University of Detroit representatives concerning a game on Thanksgiving day.

Juniors Get Tie In Soccer Series

DALLAS, Nov. 15.—By defeating the sophomores 2 to 0 in the final game of the interclass soccer series yesterday, the juniors were nosed into a tie for first place with the freshmen, making an extra game necessary. The tie will be played off Tuesday afternoon

SALEM PLAYER GETS NUMERAL

Nineteen Players Recommended by Coach Gill For College Honors

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 15. — Nineteen freshmen football players were recommended to the board of control this week by Slat Gill, coach, for rook numerals. Of these several are promising candidates for the Oregon varsity next year.

Ray Woodman, triple-threat field general, and Tom Swanson, all-around back, are the outstanding backfield prospects. John Brandis, rook fullback, who tips the scales at 195 pounds, more than likely will be given a chance on the varsity line for he is an excellent defensive player.

Don Fisher and Ken Deming showed a great deal of ability as rook tackles and more than likely will be strong contenders for varsity positions next year. Ed Strack who was a find at the running guard position, is an outstanding defensive player especially at backing up the line. Despite his light weight, Hub Tuttle is a fine defensive end and one of the best pass receivers seen here in some time.

Men recommended for numerals were Carl Axelsen, Ed Butze, Herb Hiatt, Brandis, Fisher and Woodman, all of Portland; Pat Cassidy, Pilot Rock; Jack Chapman, Malin; Howard Collins, Wheeler; Gordon Coward, Aloha; Pete Delano, Lindsay, Clifton; Deming, Oregon City; Am Earle, Salem; Jasper Ferguson, Gresham; Joe Harlan, Schneckday, N. Y.; Donald Rawlins, West Linn; Strack, Grants Pass; Swanson, Hood River; Tuttle, Hoquiam, Wash.; Bert Vollans, Seaside, and Merle Wickett, Aberdeen, Wash.

The rooks wound up their season a few weeks ago by defeating their traditional rival, University of Oregon, from by the score of 6 to 0. The Trojans took the first game 7 to 3. Southern Oregon Normal defeated the rooks 39 to 0.

PIRATES PROVE TOUGH TEAMS

Rupert's Albany College Team to Tackle Bearcats Friday

A football team that is definitely on its way upward but hasn't so far arrived even at any way station—that describes the Albany college Pirates who will play the Willamette Bearcats here Friday afternoon. Clyde J. Rupert's big, tough outfit has won no games to date, but on the other hand it has given every opponent, including the conference leading Puget Sound Loggers, something to worry about. Friday may be the "arrival date" though a victory would be a distinct upset.

Rupert took over the material left by a succession of former coaches and added a lot of new blood and beef; he has lettermen sitting on the bench. An imposing array of promising players is on hand, but so far it has labored under the difficulty of absorbing a new system, the third new system in as many seasons for some of the veterans.

Building for the future, Rupert
