

FEDERATED CLUBS ASK T. B. FUNDS

If Building Program Goes Through; Perrydale Hostess to Group

PERRYDALE, Nov. 21.—Resolution urging the legislative assembly to give favorable consideration to the proposed increased facilities for the tubercular hospital if the legislature applies for FWA funds for new state buildings, was adopted by the Polk County Federation of Rural Women's clubs, for which group the Perrydale Good Will club was hostess Saturday. Mrs. A. E. Utley presided over the morning business session.

Reports from the various clubs present showed that a great deal of work is done by these clubs in the care of needy families and other needs in their districts. Miss Gillis, county health nurse, gave a talk on her duties and children who had received medical care.

At noon a covered dish dinner was served in the auditorium under direction of Mrs. H. J. Elliott, Mrs. William Stapleton and Mrs. Lawrence McKee. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with large arrangements of rose berries and laurel. Small tables were decorated with low bouquets of fall flowers. A hundred women were served. The display of the Ellen Dale and Zena cheer baskets was held in the early afternoon.

Past presidents of the federation had charge of the program, with Mrs. Blodgett presiding in place of Mrs. Walker, the first president of the clubs, and the other past president present. Mrs. Utley introduced Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Fawc and Mrs. Blodgett, all past presidents, and each was presented with a lovely corsage. Mrs. Fawc responded for the group. The first number on the program was an accordion selection by Mrs. Caldwell of Monmouth. Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar gave a fine talk. Mrs. Utley sang two numbers and Mrs. Glen Wilcox of Williamina gave two readings.

Mrs. Caldich, chairman of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Washington, D. C., gave a talk on motion pictures and their effects on the child. As a closing number Mrs. Caldich played.

ELIZABETH MAURER DIES, HILLSBORO

GERVAIS, Nov. 21.—Word was received here Tuesday morning of the death at Hillsboro of Mrs. Elizabeth Maurer, 84. Mrs. Maurer had been a resident of Gervais about 20 years and before coming to Gervais had resided at Mt. Angel for about the same length of time. She went to live with her daughter in the spring of this year.

She is survived by two sons and two daughters, the sons living at Dallas and one daughter at Hillsboro and the other at Vancouver, Wash.

The funeral will be held from the Catholic church in Vancouver Thursday morning. Mrs. Maurer sold her property in Gervais just recently to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rantz, who now occupy it.

Men Give Program At Brush Creek as Big Crowd Attends

BRUSH CREEK, Nov. 21.—Brush Creek residents turned out in full force Friday night to witness the program put on by the men of the community. Plans were also discussed during the business meeting for a junior booster club for the young people, with meetings to be held on the first Friday of the month. No definite action was taken on this however.

Program numbers Friday night included skits: "The Two Dutchmen," by Dan Hillman and Fred Krug; "The Two Jews," by Alvin Krug and Charles Kneis; the "Two Darkies," John Goplerud and Ludwig Meyers; recitations, Dale Krug and John Landerback. ### EXHIBIT DOGS AT WORLD EXPOSITION

Strange Birds Seen Among Many Tarrying for Rest On Way South

HAYESVILLE, Nov. 21.—Mrs. W. Hughes returned recently from "The Century of Progress," where she exhibited her Chinese Pekingese dog. The dog received several prizes at the Oregon state fair, where several silver cups were offered prizes.

At the world fair, the dog also received two prizes. There were 1250 dogs exhibited at the fair. Of these, 135 were in the Chinese Pekingese class. But instead of offering silver cups, the prizes at the world fair consisted of a pair of silk hose, and a box of flea powder. However, the glory of competition was there, where the finest dogs of different countries were exhibited.

Many Birds Gather With the coming of colder weather and snow in the mountains, the birds have been migrating in greater numbers. Around bird baths may be seen quite a variety, and some, whose names are not known locally. There is a pair of birds, of a bright blue color, similar to a blue jay, but more the shape and size of a robin. Gold finches are still here in small numbers. The most noticeable event is the flocks of meadow larks. Sunday there was as great a commotion outside as one hears on a beautiful sunny spring day. On investigating, about 30 meadow larks were seen in the trees, singing as gayly as only meadow larks can. They rest about a half hour and continue on their journey.
