

P-T CONTEST GETS RECORD ATTENDANCE

Basket Social and Program Stated for Friday Night At School

STAYTON, Nov. 22.—The high school auditorium was filled Monday night for the regular P. T. A. meeting, and although the organization has a membership this year of 92, the fact that the meeting was the occasion for the winning side in the membership contest to be entertained by the losing side, was no doubt the reason so many were present.

Mrs. M. Champ, president, presided over the brief business session. Prof. Phelps of the finance committee reported that his committee had secured gravel, which was placed under the swings. He also stated that there were 14 children whose parents had asked that their children be given milk at recess, in response to a questionnaire he had sent out. Also that there would be about 37 who would like a hot dish, when the colder weather sets in. He suggested plans for taking care of these items.

Mrs. W. V. Adams, chairman of the program committee stated that her committee planned to carry out the programs suggested in the P. T. A. magazine.

Mrs. Margaret Schaefer reported her committee plans a basket social for Friday night, November 24. It will not be necessary for those bringing baskets to make fancy ones, as the committee will have a way of disposing of them, whereby the basket will not be seen. A special program has been arranged for.

Two Plays Chosen

Mrs. Victor Phelps, announced that the play committee has chosen "Weakness for Nurses," and "Brother Donald." The casts have been selected and work upon the plays will be begun shortly. They will be given early in January. The business manager will be Grant Murphy and the stage manager, Frank Stupka.

Mrs. H. E. Tobie gave an interesting account of the state convention recently held at Salem. Mrs. Champ announced the refreshment committee for the December meeting. Madeline Hal Shelton, Keyes, Harry Rowe, Geo. H. Bell, and Ellen Reynolds and Messrs. Claude Lewis, W. A. Weddle, L. H. Wright, Grant Murphy and Dr. W. V. Adams.

Mrs. Champ then turned the meeting over to the losing side of the contest. There were excellent musical numbers, a vocal solo by Mrs. D. Geo. Cole, a piano solo by Miss Thelma Wright, a whistling solo by Harry Stupka, a clever skit presented by Mrs. Ellen Reynolds, Mrs. Frank Stupka and Lindsay Wright; and a mock session of school.

BAD CURVES LOST BY NEW SURVEYS

RICKREALL, Nov. 22.—A crew of state engineers is surveying the highway here, straightening the curves south of the creek. This will go through the Stenson and Wait fields, coming out near Orr's corners, eliminating two bad curves. This work will come under the relief work program.

Farm Envoy

On a mission of peace to the farm strike belt in the Middle West, Secretary of Agriculture Henry W. Wallace is pictured as he boarded a plane at Washington to fly to Des Moines, Ia., to address the Iowa Legislature on the government's newly adopted corn loan program, which provides a loan of 45 cents a bushel on corn at the farms.

Two More Whitney Victors

MANELA WAREHOUSE NEARLY COMPLETED

JEFFERSON, Nov. 22.—The warehouse being built at the new home of N. T. Manela near Murder creek on the highway south of town, is nearing completion. The building is 26 by 60 feet and will be used for storage purposes in connection with Mr. Manela's auction house in Albany.

A glee club has been organized by the students of Jefferson high school under the supervision of Mrs. Gilbert Looney, and will meet Monday and Thursday afternoons from 3 to 4 o'clock. The first opera will be "Windmills of Holland."

School Census Holds

J. T. Jones has completed the school census in the Jefferson district, and the report shows there are 208 pupils in this district, 102 boys and 107 girls, which is about the same as last year.

Dr. J. A. Goode returned to his home in Portland Monday morning after spending two weeks here, conducting the bible conference at the local Evangelical church. Sunday night a group from the Sodaville Evangelical church attended the last service of the bible conference.

John Mulligan has returned from a several weeks visit to Wisconsin. While there he visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mulligan, at Belmont, and his son, Jack, at Madison, Wis. The Jefferson Women's club is planning a benefit program to be given at the Masonic hall Friday night, December 1. The proceeds will be used for the upkeep of the library.

Monmouth School Has 100 Enrolled In Upper 4 Grades

MONMOUTH, Nov. 22.—Monmouth high school has an attendance to date of 100, which includes a large freshman class. Several building improvements have been made this fall to better accommodate the increased attendance. An extra room has been added to the manual training department for mechanical drawing. Alfred T. Allen, instructor, and his class members have arranged the room, making new desks and other articles.

A recreation room has been built for the girls students' use, by combining other adjoining areas of building space, and a new rest room is in process of construction. Faculty men have donated time and money to promote the improvement. Miss Edith Clark, the only woman member of the faculty, has charge of arrangements and with the help of the girls will furnish the rooms attractively.

Holy Name Group Sending Delegation To Silvertown Meet

SUBLIMITY, Nov. 22.—Members of the Holy Name society held their monthly meeting at the C. O. F. hall and made arrangements to attend the district meeting of Holy Name members which will be held at Silvertown, November 25. It is expected that a large delegation from here will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zuber are the parents of a daughter born November 6 at the Salem hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kintz are the parents of a son born November 15. This is their second child, both boys.

SWENSONS HOME AGAIN

MONMOUTH, Nov. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Swenson returned Sunday from a visit to the Century of Progress exposition, Chicago, and to other midwest points, including their native state, Wisconsin. During their absence their sons, Eric and Irving, took charge of the Monmouth Herald, of which Mr. Swenson is editor and publisher.

GRADUATED CAPITAL TAX LEVY FAVORED

By Club at Grand Island; Salem Group Presents Entertainment

GRAND ISLAND, Nov. 22.—The Improvement club held its regular business meeting and social hour at the schoolhouse Saturday night. A committee composed of Roy E. Will, Worth Wiley and Charles A. Ferguson was appointed by the president, Charles E. Nelson, to draw up a resolution, endorsing the graduated capital levy tax.

At the close of the club business meeting a school district meeting was conducted with Chairman Roy E. Will, presiding. The school budget for the new year was accepted as read. In the budget report was included sufficient money for the building of a kitchen onto the schoolhouse in vacant corner by the washroom on which work will be started soon.

The kitchen will be approximately 12 by 15 feet in size and will be equipped with all modern conveniences. The program consisted of several musical selections given on the electric guitar by Mrs. C. D. Clark of Dayton, with the majority of the program given by Herbert Smith and his Vandy Villians, representatives of the Frank Doolittle service station in Salem.

Ladybird and "Surprise" Hubby

Assemblyman Patrick Sullivan, Jr., of New York, and his wife, the former Eleanor Smith, one of America's foremost woman fliers, seem to enjoy the surprise they created in announcing their secret marriage. The wedding took place last July, but not even their closest friends were let into the secret. Mrs. Sullivan may fly her hubby to and from his legislative duties in Albany.

intermediat. Christian Endeavor Sunday night. They were out in the interests of the Yamhill county Christian Endeavor convention to be held in McMinnville November 24, 25 and 26. Members of the team: Miss Agatha Harst, president of the Yamhill county Christian Endeavor union; Miss Doris Doughty, secretary of the publicity department of the Christian Endeavor union, and Vernon Thompson, secretary of the union.

Watch Corn Harvest

The agriculture class of the school accompanied by Miss Lucille Fisher, primary instructor, enjoyed a trip the past week to the large corn field on the Harrison place. The crop, grown by E. M. Alderman and son, Urie, of the Unionvale district, was being harvested by the use of a modern power husking machine. The following day the same group made a trip to the Alderman corn dryer in the Unionvale district.

TEACHERS GATHER; PLAY BIG SUCCESS

MT. ANGEL, Nov. 22.—The third meeting of the teachers' study club was held Saturday night at the home of Miss Carolina May. The evening was spent in working on cornhusk baskets which are now about half completed. The next meeting hopes to see them completed and a start made on pine needle baskets. Later in the evening the workers were served with lunch by Miss May, assisted by Miss Katherine May and Miss Dolores Kruse.

The play "Topsy Knowed It" interspersed with musical and vocal numbers, attracted a full house to the academy auditorium Sunday afternoon.

All numbers were well received by the audience but Agnes Walker's "My Mother's Lullaby," seemed to draw especial attention. Miss Walker is a young vocal student of much promise and a decidedly pleasing voice. The orchestra numbers, directed by Sister M. Beatrice, were also enthusiastically applauded.

The play itself was well acted by Bernice Ghies, Georgianna Bourbonnais, Betty Lawrence, Jolenta Bookhaus, Delphine, Eugenia Henshorn and Anna Bigler.

BALEAU IS HONORED

PIONEER, Nov. 22.—A birthday celebration was given in honor of Arthur Baleau of Portland Saturday night at the clubhouse. Six of his companions from Portland gave several selections of music on the accordion and other instruments. There was a large crowd from here present and outside guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. McPetric and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Martin and daughter, Henry Smith and the Wedeman girls. The Portland group spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. Baleau's sister, Mrs. Andrew Thiess.
