

COMMUNITY THANKS DINNER IS PLANNED

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Nov. 23. — This neighborhood will sponsor as usual the community Thanksgiving dinner served annually in the basement of the Popcorn school. This pleasant custom has extended over a period of many years. All residents not having other holiday plans, as well as friends of former years are invited to bring their contributions to the feast and enjoy a renewal of old friendships.

Several recent pleasant affairs heralded the approach of the winter social season here. The younger folks of the community enjoyed an evening of games with late refreshments in the school basement; Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDonald entertained with an evening of cards; Mrs. Charles Roy was an afternoon hostess to a group of women friends from Salem.

STUDENTS HEAR READER

WOODBURN, Nov. 23. — W. L. Greenleaf, a dramatic reader whose home is in Santa Rosa, Cal., appeared before the students of Woodburn high school Wednesday, giving several readings from his extensive store of pieces.

Grangers' Column

FAIRFIELD, Nov. 23. — Plans are completed for the benefit turkey supper and dance to be held Saturday night, November 25 at Fairfield grange hall.

Dinner will be served from 6:30 to 8 o'clock with the home economic chairman, Mrs. M. J. Mahoney, in charge.

The speaker is I. V. McAdoo of Gervais. Other numbers on the program will be songs by the Gervais high school glee club and readings by Miss Isobel Bigot, Fairfield grad teacher.

Committees include: Decoration and table, Mrs. Iva McGilchrist, Miss Isobel Bigot and Mrs. Allyn Nusom; vegetables, Mesdames F. M. Hill, Lawrence Forschwiler, Albert, Belleque, C. E. Allenbeck; coffee, Mesdames Duke Ballweber and Ward Lundy; salad, Mesdames Don Durette, William Forster and R. Dungee; turkey preparations, Ward Lundy, Robert Dungee and Mesdames Frank Cannard and C. H. Hanneggs; dessert, Mesdames Ben Hall, Carter Keene, Arthur Goffin; waitresses, Ethel Vanderbeck, Helen Mahoney, Vera Short; Nancy Keene, Sylvia Forster, Margurite DuRette and Florence DuRette; punch, Mesdames F. Felton, Henry Stafford and Ivan Brundidge.

STAYTON, Nov. 23. — The home economics club of Stayton grange at its meeting Wednesday elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Jack Richards; first vice - president, Mrs. George Scott; second vice - president, Mrs. F. Kohl; secretary, Mrs. E. Williams; treasurer, Mrs. T. Fleming, the last two being re-elected. Officers will be installed at the next meeting, December 20.

An interesting program was arranged by Mrs. Pearl Heater and included readings by Mrs. Ellen Lambert, Mrs. Vera Scott, Mrs. Pearl Heater and Mrs. F. Grassman of Aurora, who is a guest at the Andrew Fery home.

The organization voted to hold a cooked food sale on Wednesday, November 29, at the Stayton hardware store.

Ray Glatt Chosen President Chamber Group, Woodburn

WOODBURN, Nov. 23. — New officers of the chamber of commerce, chosen at the dinner meeting Wednesday night at Woodburn hotel are: Ray Glatt, president; George Keys, vice - president; George Beecher, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Gerald B. Smith and Dr. Thomas Sims, directors.

Committees were appointed to aid the Legion auxiliary in furnishing Christmas candy for the children; to investigate obtaining federal funds for Woodburn projects, and to supervise erection of the community Christmas tree.

FRANCE IS SUBJECT POLLARD'S LECTURE

MT ANGEL, Nov. 23. — The excellent attendance at the lecture on France given by Rev. Martin Pollard, O. S. B., Tuesday night in the Knights of Columbus meeting hall attested to the great interest being taken in lectures provided by the faculty of Mt Angel college.

Rev. Father Martin recently returned from six years' study in Europe, touched all the main events of France's political history, explained its present position with its two great political extremes and the many parties representing the various degrees between.

Other lectures to be given are: Monday, December 11, Rev. James Kossler, "The Vatican City"; Monday, January 8, Rev. Vincent Koppert, "Russia"; Tuesday, January 16, Rev. Damian Jeniges, "Germany and Austria," and Monday, February 12, Rev. Martin Pollard, "England."

Child Christened

A daughter born November 18 to Mr. and Mrs. William Anzen was christened Monday in St. Mary's Catholic church by Rev. Father Berthold. The child was named Margaret Mary. Henry Anzen and Amelia Schmidt were godparents.

"His Father's Son," a threeact play, will be given by the students of Mt. Angel college and seminary, Sunday, December 17, in St. Mary's auditorium. There will be both an afternoon and an evening performance and the proceeds will go for gym expenses.

The college and seminary orchestra will play.

Phone Plays Part in Halt Of Runaways

UNION, Nov. 23. — Union experienced its first real excitement in some weeks when the team owned by Mr. Hanna decided to race with Dick, the hired man. Dick made a frantic effort to get control of the lines but falling that tried to get on the sled which also proved unsuccessful. After circling the field the team turned to the county road where they found the go-

The quick thinking of Mrs. B. L. Carothers saved the horses from injury and motorists on the Woodburn-Mt. Angel road as well. Mrs. Carothers telephoned to a neighbor, Albert Stone, who crowded the team into a loganberry field where they reluctantly gave up the race which they had already won by a mile.
