

GENEALOGY BRINGS WOMAN TO OREGON

Hitch-Hiking Writer Expects To Have Book Off Press In January

MONMOUTH, Nov. 23. — Mrs. Alice Hamot and her sister, Mrs. Emma Morgan, both of Portland, were visitors in Monmouth this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Green.

Mrs. Hamot is gathering material for a history of the Crowley family. She has been in practically every state in the union, and in many of them twice or thrice, on this mission. She began work on her theme two years ago while on a visit to the home of her ancestors in Missouri, and has given her entire spare time to the work since, spending weeks in the city libraries of New York and Philadelphia, and the congressional library at Washington, D. C.

Jeremiah Crowley, from whom the American branch of the family is descended, was a lace maker in Ireland. He came to America in the 16th century, bringing with him 25 sets of knitting needles for commercial work.

Mrs. Hamot's great-grandfather, Crowley, pioneered into Missouri and settled in Ray county where he was a slave holder. He gave some of the knitting needles to his overseer, a slave. When Mrs. Hamot was visiting the old home in Missouri the grandson of the ex-slave overseer presented her with a set of these needles.

Her great-uncle, Joseph Turndage, came to Oregon from Missouri in 1846 and became the first pioneer Baptist preacher in Oregon. Members of the Crowley family in Kentucky belonged to the same Baptist church of which Daniel Boone was a member.

Rides With Rockefeller
The feature of Mrs. Hamot's travels is that she has, at the age of 62, turned "modern" and hitch-hikes everywhere. She has ridden with many notables including a 120 mile jaunt with John D. Rockefeller, Jr. After completing her history, which is to be a genealogy of the Crowley family containing many historical events of importance with which family members were connected, she intends to write a book on her hitch-hiking travelogue, for which she takes notes en route.

She is a fourth cousin of A. H. Craven, their common ancestors being the Thomas Crowley family which pioneered to Oregon in 1846, the first wagon train group to come via the southern cut - off, surveyed by Jesse Applegate. Another relative of theirs is Mrs. A. J. Richardson, now living in Salem, who is the sole surviving member of the 1846 expedition.

Mrs. Hamot expects to have her book off the press by January, 1934.

Why Hospitals Use a Liquid Laxative

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. And the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. Do you know the reasons?

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can be controlled. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative brings a perfect movement, and there is no discomfort at the time, or after. The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it! And the habitual use of irritating salts, or of powerful drugs in the highly concentrated form of pills and tablets may prove injurious.

A week with a properly prepared liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will tell you a lot. A few weeks' time, and your bowels can be "as regular as clockwork." Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative which all druggists keep ready for use. It makes an ideal family laxative; effective for all ages, and may be given to the youngest child. West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Nov. 23.—In preparation for the widening of Edgewater street as the West Salem to Rickreall highway is improved, the city this week changed the "shut off" from Rosemont and Edgewater to Rosemont and Skinner. This will control the southwestern portion of the city. From time to time as the work can be accomplished, others will be installed that water users need not be disturbed when a leak springs up here and there in different parts of the city. William La Due was in charge of the work done this week.

One of the largest crowds assembled in the community hall in several years, listened to the presentation of the league play, "And Mary Did" Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. O. Boatright of Alesha have moved into the Yarnell residence. Mr. Boatright is associated in business with a brother-in-law in the realty business in Salem.

Already in this year's drive, 1934, they have their increase and expect more, before the drive is completed.
