WHOLE TOWN AIDS BENEFIT PROGRAM

Each Group Presents Stunt, All of Which Go Over In Big Way

AURORA, Nov. 27.—Seats at the Aurora band hall were all taken for an entertainment Friday night in which all organizations of the community cooperated and presented one number on a stunt program for the benefit of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church.

The program was opened with selections by the Sunday school orchestra led by I. H. Zimmerman. "Television" a playlet was contributed by the grade school, followed by a fantasy "Three Pills in a Bottle" by the Girl Scouts. Moving pictures of fire scenes were shown by the fire department. Boy Scouts gave a knot tying demonstration and the Pythian Sisters presented a short comedy, "Shush;" a vocal number "I Don't See Why I Love You" by Miss Mary Smith, (Walter Fry) represented the Knights of Pythias.

A piano duet by Eugene and Lois Munnick, Holm duet, Jimmie and Jean duet, trombone solo by Gordon Logan were musical numbers interspersed between acts. The finale, a minstrel show, was contributed by the Aurora Woman's club. Special features were tap dancing by Miss Nina Kitts, vocal solo "Just a Cousin of Mine" by Miss Arabella Ginterfoot (Roland Wurster); solo and chorus, "The Right Church But the Wrong Pew," Mrs. Ben Stoner. Quartettes and solos by the end men, A. L. Strickland, Harry and Helvin Evans and G. Dixon. Rose Ellen acted as interlocutor. The chorus were members of the Woman's club. An outstanding number on the program was an acrobatic dance given by tiny Fay Criswell. Many neighboring towns were represented in the audience and a neat sum was turned over to the Aid.
