

SENIORS ENTERTAIN INDEPENDENCE HIGH

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 30.—The seniors of the high school presented a program Wednesday afternoon, at the gym, as follows:

Reading, Ione Moore; monologue, Grace Freeman; mock wedding, preacher, Ralph Beach, bride, Chester Lenhard, groom, Henry Walker, maid-of-honor, Charles Barclay, best man, Karl Murphy, follow, Irl Ross Ober-son, ring bearer, Fred Strake, mother, Paul Carey, father, Lee Roy Hanson, baby, Joe Komoto, child, Melford Hoover, butler, Overton Walker, imitations of teachers, Richard McKee, Raymond Yung, Oliver Tilberg, Cyrus Reese and Archie Gee; monologue, Lavinia Ramsdell; a play, "Over the Top," by Myrtle Swearingen, Louise Haley, Lillie Cotton, and Eleanor Foll.

Between acts Beryl Kelley and Mildred Strake put on a skit, "School Days."

3 CASES SCARLET FEVER
SCIO, Nov. 30.—Three cases of scarlet fever were reported a few days ago by Dr. A. G. Prill of Scio at the J. N. Powers home adjoining the S. H. Goin farm about one mile east of Greens bridge, in Linn county. Mr. Powers, his 17-year-old son, and daughter a few years younger had been ill. The girl had been in school in Jefferson and it was feared the disease may have been considerably scattered before its existence was known. The cases were mild.

CREAM GOES SPILL
SUIVER, Nov. 30.—The Monmouth cream truck split a few cans of cream in front of the McCain place, Monday. The bus students from this route are having a party Friday.

Farmers' Union News

BETHEL, Dec. 1.—Bethel local of the Farmers Union will meet at the school Monday night. This will be a close meeting. Election of officers will be held. All members are urged to attend.

Mott to Close Office Here to Return to East

Congressman James W. Mott is closing his office at Salem today to return to Washington, D. C., for the regular session of the 73d congress convening early in January, 1934.

All future communications to Congressman Mott should be addressed to the House Office building, Washington, D. C. Replies may be delayed because of the time consumed in returning to the national capital but immediately upon reopening his office there, all correspondence will have prompt attention, it was said yesterday at his Salem office.

The congressman will be glad to hear from his constituents concerning any federal problem or legislation in which they are interested, he said.

AWAY FOR HOLIDAY
MOLALLA, Nov. 29.—Among those leaving Molalla Wednesday night to spend Thanksgiving with relatives are Mr. and Mrs. George Overjordan and daughter, Virginia, who are going to Couer d'Alene, Idaho, to be with his parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ridings and daughter, Ann Louise, who are going to Riverton, Oregon, to be with her parents.

LOGGING PROJECT TO EMPLOY 20 MEN

SILVERTON, Nov. 30.—Preparations are underway to begin logging operations at once on the 146-acre tract leased by W. H. Ankeny & Son of Tillamook from Julius Alm, Sr., of Silverton. The tract lies in the Silverton Hills area. It is estimated that the tract contains approximately two and a half million feet of timber.

Between 18 and 20 loggers are to be employed in the undertaking which will last about four months. It is expected that logs will be ready for motor truck transportation to the Silver Falls Timber company pond Monday.

Chicago Union Stockyard Men At Work Again

CHICAGO, Nov. 30. (P)—Operations of the Chicago union stockyards returned to normal Wednesday as 8000 strikers went back to their jobs under a truce brought about under the NRA labor board.

The agreement, providing for a temporary 10 per cent pay increase to workers, was reached early yesterday. As a result, the Chicago livestock exchange called off a projected halt in buying and selling of livestock which was scheduled for 3 p. m.

Farmers were notified by telegrams and public announcements that the two-day tie-up of the yards was ended. The pay increase is to be in effect until final settlement of the dispute by negotiators.
