Warns Bride Of Old John Barleycorn

"Marrying a man to reform him" was the intriguing subject of a talk to the Salem Ad club yesterday noon by Robert C. Notson, staff representative of the Oregonian at the legislature. Notson likened the wedding of the state and "John Barleycorn" who is newly dressed in a good suit, a bolted shirt, silk topper, spats and boots and whose respectability is now asserted, to the girl who marries a man to reform him.

The point he made was one he said Marian Miller made to a girl who was taking on such a mate, who was advised that if she failed to reform her man she could be dragged down to his level. The state, Notson counseled, should watch out, if the marriage isn't a success, not to be brought low with political corruption.

The Salem Ad club plans to solicit funds for the annual holiday street decorations.

U. S. Attorney

Martin Conboy, well-known New York attorney, who has been named by President Roosevelt to succeed George Z. Medaris as United States District Attorney for the Southern District of New York. Conboy served as counsel for the then Governor Roosevelt during the 1932 hearings that climaxed in resignation of Mayor Walker.

Postoffice authorities here have received no word as to what the recommendation of Inspector W. F. Case, Portland and Tacoma, will be in regard to the consolidation and extension of rural routes out of Salem. Case spent some time at the local office last week investigating possibilities of such changes which would be made as an economy measure.

CHANGE LACKING IN OREGON HOP PRICES

25 to 35 Cents Paid Upon Clusters With Fuggles Running Bit Higher

Oregon hop prices remained unchanged the past week, with from three to four thousand bales sold at prices ranging from 25 to 35 cents on clusters and higher on fuggles.

About 40,000 pounds of the 1934 crop were contracted at 30 cents per pound, net to the grower. Market News Service reports, commenting further:

The market tone in Oregon was being strengthened by the moderate current offerings by growers, many of whom were not offering their remaining stocks for sale, or were asking prices above current bids, particularly those with best quality hops.

Washington hop markets were only moderately active during the week, but prices remained steady. Around 248 bales of new crop cluster, choice, brought 30 to 32 cents, net to the grower, in Yakima while 193 bales of fuggles netted 40 cents in the Puyallup valley.

California markets were featured by some increase in activity, with sales of about 1,300 bales made at prices ranging from 24 to 35 cents.

Domestic users of hops were still securing their requirements from earlier contracts, since only scattered lots have been received from middlewestern and eastern interests. An increased interest in older hops was noted in the Sonoma district with a bid of 15c for 500 bales of the 1928-1929 crops being received but not accepted by growers. Trade estimates of the California 1933 crop have been revised upward in most cases. The final output generally placed at around 17,000 bales. Of this amount, growers were reported as still owning around 20,000 bales. At Dec. 1 last year, California growers owned 7,917 bales of the current crop, while holdings at the corresponding date a year previous amounted to 9,511 bales. Of this year's holdings, approximately 9,000 bales are being held by Sonoma growers, 2,100 bales by Mendocino and 9,500 bales by Sacramento hop producers. Stocks of older growers still owned by California growers amount to 6,006 bales, consisting of 1,901 bales of the 1923 crops.

Wheat Crop Outlook Good

PRICES PLUNGE AS RAIN IS REPORTED

CHICAGO, Dec. 1. (AP)—Plunging headlong downward at the last today, wheat ended at the bottom-most point reached. Copious rains were reported falling in Kansas and Nebraska affording relief from prolonged drought which has apparently reduced the condition of winter wheat to almost the low record of last year. Contributing to wheat price weakness was a break in Liverpool quotations owing to cheap offerings from Argentina. Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: Dec. 82 3/4-83; May, 85 3/8-85 3/4; July, 85-85 1/2.

Corn: Dec. 44 1/4; May, 50 3/4-51; July, 52 1/2-53.

Oats: Dec. 31 1/4-31 1/2; May, 35 3/4-36; July, 34 1/4.

Polk Budget for 1934 is Approved

DALLAS, Dec. 1.—The Polk county budget for 1934 was approved at a public hearing here today with very few changes. This session today was the first in several years at which discussions regarding the proposed budget had a strong effort made to make radical changes in it.

The sum to be raised by direct taxation next year will be $329,159.17 which is $5105 less than the estimate made by the budget committee. A sum of $4250 for care of state institution patients and another amount of $1000 for warrant indebtedness on equipment was taken from the budget.

The salary of the district attorney's stenographer was increased from $855 to $900 to conform with the increase in department offices in other counties.

The meeting was attended by a much smaller crowd than was expected and lasted only from 10 a. m. to shortly after noon. Ira C. Powell of Independence presided and Earle Richardson acted as secretary. An effort was made to cross out an item of $18,000 for the old age pension but the motion was lost. The item was passed with the provision that in case of legislative action, it would be included in the budget.

The only fireworks of the session were verbal clashes between R. W. Hogg of Eola, W. T. Hoffman of Independence, and County Judge G. O. Hawkins. Hogg and Hoffman objected to items concerning care of poor and emergency funds but the amounts were voted in.

Services Today For John Wirt, Lacombe Citizen

LACOMBE, Dec. 1.—Mr. John Wirt, 56 years old, a prominent citizen of Lacombe, was suddenly stricken by paralysis, last night while doing his chores. Death followed in a few hours.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at the Lacombe Baptist church. Mr. Wirt is survived by his widow and four children, Cecil, Russel, Raymond and Velma.

Slugs Destroying 35-Acre Rye Field Grown on Pasture

PARKERSVILLE, Dec. 1.—Slugs have eaten about half of a 35-acre field of rye on the Richard Harrison farm here.

Mr. Harrison and W. B. Brown drove to Corvallis recently to get information on the control of the slugs but were told that it was caused from planting on pasture land and that methods to eradicate them would be too expensive.

ONION PRICE GOES FIVE CENTS HIGHER

PORTLAND, Dec. 1. (AP)—Weakness in the egg trade continued to be reflected in practically all markets along the coast. Price cutting was general with so-called fresh stock that wholesale and retailers alike were bewildered. Prices dropped at the close of the day's trade.

Market on butter was showing a weaker feeling with some slight recessions indicated in the price on the open market. Until it is ascertained that the government is going to do the trade here is expected to rule erratic.

Considerable business was reflected in the general cheese trade of the country although thus far Tillamook has been able to uphold its value generally.

Chicken supplies appeared about cleaned up. The public purchased chickens when small turkeys could not be found. Prices in this line appear fairly steady.

Trade in the country killed meat market is of quite nominal character. Considerable stock was carried over the holiday, including practically all lines.

Buying price on onions has been advanced 5c per hundred pounds at Willamette valley primary markets at 80c, sacks and twine furnished by the buyer. Business was confined generally to oriental shipments with a sprinkling of California.

90 CENTS OFFERED FOR LABISH ONION

LABISH CENTER, Dec. 1.—The post-Thanking raise in the onion market anticipated by many growers became a reality Friday morning when at least one buyer was in the field offering 90 cents a hundred. Last Saturday buyers were taking options at 89 cents and a number of carloads sales were made at that price.

The 90 cents level is ten cents under last season's peak when only a few carloads brought one dollar.

Shares Loll in Quiet Mart as Bonds Improve

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Stocks lollered through a quiet market today while foreign exchanges reacted and government bonds enjoyed mild improvement. Turnover in equities was only $17,500 shares.

U. S. Steel improved a major fraction net. Allied Chemical duplicated its 1933 high. Du Pont, Standard Oil of New Jersey, U. S. Smelting, Socony-Vacuum, American Can and U. S. Smelting were more or less active at higher prices. Rails averaged a shade higher.
