REUNION OCCASION OF FISTIC BATTLE

Assault and Battery Case Against Cushing Grows Out of Gathering

A Thanksgiving reunion, at which Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cushing of Portland were guests of honor, ended in a fight and the subsequent filing of an assault and battery complaint against Cushing in the justice court here. The reunion was arranged by Mrs. Rose Phernetton, mother of Mrs. Cushing. Cushing and one of the men in the family were said to have engaged in an argument which later developed into a fistic encounter. Mrs Phernetton intervened with the result that she suffered a blackened eye. Cushing received an injury of the arm.

Cushing pleaded guilty in the justice court yesterday and was fined $25 and costs. He was said to be a nephew of Leo Jenkins, police commissioner of Portland. Henry Jones and George F.
