INQUIRY FOR DRIED

Both domestic and foreign inquiry for Northwestern dried prunes has been light in recent days, following the active buying which took place early last month. Some sales, mainly for export, are being made, but the volume is not large. Germany and Italy have made recent purchases and England has taken small orders, these buys keeping a limited volume of prunes moving into export Prices are generally unchanged, ranging from 5% to 6 cents for 30-40c, with a quarter cent drop for each five-point declines. Stock remaining in hands of growers is very light with no recent sales reported. Recent inquiry has been for size 40s and smaller; however supplies in these sizes are extremely light as these sizes were in greatest demand at the opening of the season. Market News Service says further: Free selling by the pack-ers in October and November has Chan Lam Chinese Medicine Co. (now in former location). Hours Tues-day and Friday, 10:30 a. m. to 8 p. m. 180 N. Commercial. reduced their stocks sufficiently for this time of year, so that the volume which remains unsold is not of sufficient quantity to cause concern by the present light trad-ing. Most of the stock in packers' hands is firmly held and no marked increase in selling is expected until after the first of the year. While little domestic purchasing has taken place, inquiry indicates that wholesalers' stocks are low and some interest is being taken regarding purchases in the near future.

EGGS IS EXTENSIVE

PORTLAND, Dec. 8. (AP) -Recent action on the egg trade with the demoralizing influence of storage goods being generally offered to the public as fresh stock, is resulting in increasing agitation among producers for some legal measures to stop such prac-done. The market is receiving considerable fresh extras but pullets are scarce and no longer generally quoted. There remained a weak situation in the butter trade here and practically everywhere in the

There was an entire lack of snap in potato movement from any leading primary center. Demand was small. Export demand for apples continued to show as liberally as ette valley 23-25c pound; eastern Orespace can be secured for loading frem Pacific northwest points.

Domestic markets were consider-increasing each day at Oregon points of production, The latest idea is that around 12 carloads containing a minimum of 24,000 pounds each, will be rolled out of Oregon destined for the large eastern markets by mid-week. This volume is somewhat below the normal movement.

Leading operators believe shipments to the east should be at east 24 carloads in order to relieve the local market from pressure of last minute shipments. Buyers are still generally offer-ing 12 cents a pound net to growers at country points for the best birds. Cooperative organizations are reported making advances of 10 cents a pound for best birds. Locally the trade is fully steady but at practically no change in general selling values.

drop of over one-third in the nut deliveries made this season to the Salem plant of the North Pacific Nut Growers' cooperative is shown in the final check completed yesterday. This season 573,363 pounds of nuts were delivered, as against 896,-378 pounds in 1932, or a decrease of 323,015 pounds over last year.

Severe weather conditions, resulting in a very light walnut crop, account for the drop. Of the totals received this season. there were 118 tons or 227.188 nounds of walnuts and 168 tons or 336,175 pounds of filberts. Never before has the filbert crep been heavier than the walnut narvest.

The entire Salem crop has been cleaned out already, according to market advices.

HEAVY EXPORTS OF

Heavy exports of fruits have brought about a lower price in the United Kingdom, the U. S. fruit specialist, F. A. Motz, has informed Market News Service. He cables: "Prices for most kinds of imported fruits on the United Kingdom markets lower this week than last. Decline in apple prices due to general drop in fruit prices brought about by heavier supplies, strong competition from oranges and the large amount of apples expected next week. Improvement not expected next week. Lower pear prices due to heavy unloads and substantial quantity expected next week. "London prices were higher than Liverpool on small apples, others about the same. For the most part, prices are still substantially above those of past two years. Apple arrivals this year amounted to 355,000 bushels against 476,000 last week, 393,-000 in 1932 and 643,000 in 1931. Quantities of pears are too heavy to return satisfactory prices. Conversions made at $5.12 against $5.22 last week, $3.23 fn 1932 and $3.28 in 1931. charged yesterday against J. Merced Hernandez Muro and Richardo Arguz Vazquez.

They were accused of intending to collect a ransom of 200,000 pesos and use the money to finance an armed rebellion.
