

WHOOPING COUGH CANCELS PROGRAM

HAYESVILLE, Dec. 14. — The community Christmas tree and program which was to have been held December 21 at the Hayesville school has been cancelled due to the current epidemic of "whooping cough." Although the epidemic is on the wane the Marion County Health center thought it advisable not to hold a public gathering with the possibility of spreading it.

However, there will be a short Christmas program at the school Friday afternoon and a Christmas tree. At that time the tree which was to have been given at the community tree will be distributed to the children and their disappointment will not be so great. The parents are also invited to attend the exercises.

A new scholar entered school Wednesday, raising the number in the advanced room to 45, and the total in the school to 80. Everett Mennenhall, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mennenhall, moved from Gervais into the house formerly occupied by L. Green, entered the seventh grade. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMellon are moving into the house they recently bought from Frank Garland. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Greig will move immediately into the house McMellon's are vacating.

DRAMA TO BE GIVEN TWICE NEXT SUNDAY

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 14.—Sunday, December 17, the Mt. Angel College dramatic club, under the direction of Rev. Alcun Heibel, O. S. B. and Alexander Scharbach, will present the three act drama, "His Father's Son" at the auditorium, at 8 p. m. and the matinee at 2 p. m.

"His Father's Son" is a timely play concerned with a modern problem and dealing with the heroic self-sacrifice of a son. The characters are all men. James Keiner plays the part of Douglas Doyle, the chief character, Alex Williams, that of Mr. Doyle and Ralph Schwab portrays Ed Hartwell. Other important characters are taken by Hubert Saalfeld, Joseph Donnelly, Elmer Bauman, Joseph Schaeffers, John Murphy, Patrick Dooley and Gilbert Michael.

Mt. Angel college and seminary orchestra, conducted by Alexander Scharbach, M. A. C. alumnus and graduate of Notre Dame, will open the program and play selections between the acts. This is the orchestra's first formal presentation this season. The Christmas holidays for both Mt. Angel normal and the academy will commence Thursday, November 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson of Newport visited at the home of his brother, Ray Anderson, part of this week.

Basketball practice has begun in earnest in the higher grades here and Mr. Thomas is coaching the boys in the sport. No first and second teams have as yet been selected and all are working hard for places on the school team.

Small Plants Pack Prunes For Yuletide

LIBERTY, Dec. 4. — Prune packing activity at the R. C. Jory plant has lately included special Christmas packages for holiday trade in addition to the regular 25 pound packs. Prunes are put out in small sizes, five and 10 pound wooden boxes which are ideal for mailing. The choicest package is the fancy grade fruit, faced in boxes lined with lace paper and cellophane.

The plant has been quite active this fall in processing and packing, mainly Italians, some date prunes and Nobels. It has also undergone some improvements, another sorting belt has been added and additional storage space is now under construction. Mr. Jory runs the plant under NRA, employs 10 to 20 people in busy days. This means quite a sizeable payroll for a country community.

Ed Dencer is also putting out fruit in large and several small, one to three pound, packages and bricks. He handles his own crop of Italians in his small home outfit. Mrs. Frank Hruska who has put up Christmas boxes of a variety of fruits and nuts for the past four years is supplying only her old customers this year. She has been doing the work at her home.

Packages such as have been mentioned, when sent as Christmas gifts do much to win friends and create demand for Oregon prunes.
