MANY PROGRAMS OF

PLEASANTDALE, Dec. 14 .-The Pleasantdale school and com-munity Christmas meeting will be held at the school house Friday night, December 22. The school will give program under the direction of Mrs. Glenn McFarlane, teacher. A tree and treats for the children will be a feature.

High School Pageant SCIO, Dec. 14-Plans for the annual Christmas program, to be presented in the high school auditorium Friday afternoon, December 22, are well under way. A pageant, "The Birthday of the King," will be presented by the grade school. Those who have parts are: master of ceremonies, Harry Slattery; Juanice Thayer, Maxine Bilyeu, Joe Padula, Paul Sweeney, Verne Rahn, Harry Holechek, Rex Bilyeu, Ray Mc-Donald, and LeRoy Montgomery; quartet, Lila Lee Thayer, Evelyn Kendle, Eleanor Calavan and Veya Hollis; pianist, Florence Dennison; accompanists for the carols. Caroline Flannagan and Lillian Holechek.

Miss Mildred Gardner is directing the pageant.

BRUSH CREEK, Dec. 14 -The Brush Creek school children are busy practicing a Christmas program to be given at the Booster club meeting Friday night, Dec. 22. There will be no business meeting of the club that night and the entire program will be given over to the children's hour. Miss Inga Goplerud, teacher, is directing the practice. J. C. Larson is president of the club. A Christmas tree with an exchange of gifts will be a feature of the meeting.

Former Jefferson Resident Passes At Oklahoma City

JEFFERSON, Dec. 14-Word has been received here of the death and burial of Joseph B. Hill, of Kelso, Washington, who died last week at Oklahoma City. He is a former Jefferson resident and well known here, having operated a general merchandise store in the I. O. O. F. building, going to Eugene in 1921 where he was in business, then to Kelso. He also operated a large sawmill at Kalama, Wash.

He is survived by his widow and four children, Burnell Hill of Eugene, and Delilah, Joe and John Hill of Kelso. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the Ke o Presbyterian church.

Margaret Wall is Worthy Matron of Jefferson O. E. S.

JEFFERSON, Dec. 14.-Euclid chapter No. 70, O. E. S., held its regular meeting and Christmas party Tuesday night in the lodge rooms of the Masonic hall. During the business session following dinner, officers were elected for the ensuing year. They are: Worthy matron, Margaret Wall; worthy patron, H. D. Mars; associate matron, Frances Kelly; associate patron, Paul Smith; conductress, Mrs. Anna Bartu; associate conductress, Mrs. Verna Leffler; secretary, Mrs. Margaret Marlatt; treasurer, Mrs. Faye Smith. The joint installation of the officers of the Masonic order and Eastern Star will be held at the next meeting, December
