Community Clubs

SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 16.—Members of the Spring Valley community club met today and made benches for the club's use. The carpenter work was done by the men at Stratton's shop. The ladies serve a potluck luncheon at the Windsor home at the noon hour. Twenty-nine people were present. The tables were centered with a miniature Christmas tree. Contests and games were the diversion of the afternoon for the ladies under the direction of Miss Irene Windsor. The joint school program and community club meet will be Friday night December 22.

WACONDA, Dec. 16.—An interesting meeting of the Waconda community club was held all day Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Cole. Plans were discussed for a card party to be given in the near future to raise funds. The program committee for this affair is composed of Mrs. William McGilchrist and Mrs. Pearl Patterson. Other committees will be announced at the Christmas party scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, December 20, at the home of the club president, Mrs. Van O. Kelly.

Work was completed at Mrs. Cole's on the beautiful quilt to be presented to the Elks for charity. Special guests for the day included Miss Dorothy Smith of Salem, Mrs. Effie Cole and Mrs. Ward Russell and son, Wayne, all of Kaiser.

WEST SALEM, Dec. 16.—The community club will meet in the West Salem community hall Monday night at 7:30 o'clock when election of officers for the new year will be held.

CLEAR LAKE, Dec. 16.—The special meeting of the community club Thursday evening was well attended. The matter of raising money to secure material for an extension to the schoolhouse was considered. A committee of five was authorized to solicit funds. The president appointed on this committee Fred Hammack, Roy E. Smith, Everett Whelan, Luther J. Chapin and Clifford Grey. An application for CWA funds will be made for the labor. The community club met in regular session Friday evening and enjoyed one of the best programs of the season. A skit "Waiting for the Hickville Train" was well rendered by eight young people. Recitations, musical numbers and a performance by the Smoky Entertainers, of Salem made up the rest of the program. At the business meeting the club endorsed the boys' building club as outlined by the county federation. Fred Hammack was chosen as instructor in woodwork and Roy Smith in cement and painting.
