

Drama and Mystery at Theatres

Jack Oakie, Ginger Rogers and Jack Haley have the leading roles in "Sitting Pretty", Paramount's latest musical comedy at the Elsinore.

Wallace Beery and Marie Dressler in "Tugboat Annie", coming to the Hollywood theatre Wednesday for a run of four days.

CHARLES FARRELL STARS AT CAPITOL

Charles Farrell, the screen's youthful lover, carves a new niche for himself in a comedy characterization in the riotous new film "Aggie Appleby, Maker of Men", now at the Capitol.

In this RKO-Radio production, Farrell has a dual role that provides him all sorts of opportunities. He enters the picture a bespectacled youth from the sticks who pleads for a job in New York on the reputation of the family.

Wynne Gibson acts the part of Aggie Appleby as only Wynne Gibson can portray a girl of the slums.

'TUGBOAT ANNIE' TO BE AT HOLLYWOOD

With Marie Dressler as Annie, redoubtable feminine skipper of Puget sound, and Wallace Beery as the irresponsible Captain Terry, "Tugboat Annie," much heralded filmization of Norman Reilly

"White Zombie," and is ably assisted by a cast including Madge Bellamy, Joseph Cawthorn, Johnny Harron, Ralph Frazer and Brandon Hurst.

Bela Lugosi, creator of "Dracula," carries the main burden of Farrell enacts the role of a hick who is made over into a tough New Yorker in "Aggie Appleby," showing at the Capitol theatre.

The popular novel by Kathleen Norris, "Walls of Gold," comes to the screen of the Grand theatre today with Norman Foster, Sally Eilers and Ralph Morgan in the stellar roles.

'WALLS OF GOLD' OPENER AT GRAND

Sally Eilers, with Norman Foster cast in the leading masculine role opposite her, comes to the Grand theatre today in "Walls of Gold," the new Fox Film production, taken from Kathleen Norris' best selling novel of the same name.

In "Walls of Gold", Kathleen Norris shifts her pen to the problem that has troubled so many modern maidens—whether to accept love unquestionably, or to take the matrimonial offer of the highest bidder.

The young girl in the story is faced with such a question. In a moment of weakness she succumbs to the offer of a millionaire, and so angers the man who loves her, that, in resentment, he marries her younger sister. Heartbroken over the young man's impetuous marriage, she weds the millionaire, only to find that ease and luxury do not in themselves spell happiness. It is then that she realizes she has shut herself off with walls of gold from a romance she has always desired.

'WHITE ZOMBIE' IS AT STATE THEATRE

An eerie, spooky motion picture which for sheer mystery outdoes all its predecessors is "White Zombie," the startling United Artists feature which opens at the State theatre today.

The story concerns itself with a human fiend who digs freshly-buried bodies from their graves and puts them to work. Science has proven the existence of this practice among the natives of Haiti. But in this instance white men and a white girl come under the domination of this sinister demon, and the result is one of the most gripping stories in recent memory.

Bela Lugosi, creator of "Dracula," carries the main burden of
