

FUTURE FARMERS DEBATE ON CREDIT

AMITY, Dec. 16—Credit in agriculture is necessary, was proven in a debate at the Farmers Union meeting Friday night, conducted by Joe W. Jarvis, instructor of vocational agriculture, high school. The debate team was made up of Future Farmer boys, George Penrose and Nels Katka, affirmative team; and Robert Reed and Laurence Rasaka, negative.

The members of the farmers' union did the judging, and going against their belief voted for the affirmative team.

Chester Stephens, who just received the degree of American Farmer, of the Future Farmers of America, at the national convention in Kansas City, spoke about his trip east and about the work of this organization in the high school.

The new officers for the coming year were nominated and elected as follows: Milton Williams, president; Richard K. Nedraw, vice president; Ray Kozmetman, secretary and treasurer; Mr. Schaffer, conductor; and Lee Stuppell, doorkeeper. George Fuller, Joe Kendrick, and Wess Robertson were elected to the executive committee. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fuller, Lee Stuppell, Joe Jarvis, and Mahlon Williams were elected as delegates to the county convention.

The union decided to continue to meet in the W. O. W. hall in Amity.
