Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

The mode of winter 1934 is a woman's paradise! Never before has the matron been so favored—with the new curved silhouette, gracious lines and air of dignity and charm! This stunning model flatters her tremendously—it's semi-belted waistline, clever seamings, the flattering rever so chic of contrast, and ultra new sleeves. Make this model yourself and achieve that perfection of fit and finish that distinguished smart frock. Dull satin, a mossy crepe or faille would be an excellent choice, combined with bengaline for contrast.

Pattern 1539 is available in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 4 yards 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Christmas in Other Lands Marked by Feasts, Gifts

Candles in the windows, holly wreaths on the doors and the blessed spirit of Christmas in the air makes the holiday season one of the jolliest, happiest times of the year.

Christmas, with its religious observances, feasts and gift-giving, is observed the world over but in varying ways and on different dates.

In Germany the biggest celebration is held December 5 and 6, the birthday of St. Nicholas. He is supposed to come whistling down from the cold north with a great pack of toys on his back and a whip in his hand. Evergreen trees are the gifts for the family. December 25 is observed only with church services.

In Holland, St. Nickolas' birthday is also observed and floors are thoroughly scrubbed in anticipation of his visit. He comes in through the door and scatters candies and cakes and hides packages. Meat is served on this day, which is a real treat to the poor families of Holland.

Armenia celebrates the day of baptism, December 8, with gifts of fruit, candy and cakes. Neighboring Turkey enjoys its festive bird and bakes cakes in the village oven in the small, inland communities.

Christmas festivities in Syria are held in church. The people fast for three weeks up until the midnight mass on Christmas Eve. Among grown-ups, gifts are of money, given only to the family or very dear friends. The camel is their Santa Claus, bringing gifts which are tied to the children's wrists.

In England the churches are elaborately decorated and Father Christmas comes from London to fill stockings and trees. The boar's head is the feature dish of the feast, with plum pudding and mince pies as trimmings. The day following, boxes of sweets are collected from the remains of the feast and given to the tradespeople. A coin collection from every house is divided among the mail carriers.

Caroling is characteristic throughout England and in Wales. Sweden holds the record for long-time celebration, as her people begin on December 2nd and do not cease until December 20th. Where did we find out all these side-lights on Christmas in other countries? Well, we listened in

Saturday night at the Business and Professional Women's dinner and party at the Masonic temple and heard Miss Hatta Field, chairman of the international relations committee, give a very illuminating talk on the subject.

"Messiah" to Be Given in Portland

Conductor Willem van Hoogstraten of the Portland symphony orchestra is rehearsing a chorus of 600 voices which will sing Handel's "Messiah" Friday afternoon, December 24, at 8 o'clock in the Portland Auditorium, under the joint sponsorship of the orchestra and the Portland Council of Churches.

The chorus, representing the combined choirs of nearly all Portland churches, will sing the Handel oratorio as a special feature of the day, before Christmas. The full orchestra will appear with the singers. The presentation, said to be unique in the west, has been made possible only by planning that commenced last February when Conductor van Hoogstraten suggested the performance.

"The Messiah" program will include the best loved numbers of Handel's great work, but will be a bridged to avoid undue length. As planned, the entire program will require about one and one-half hours to present.

Christmas Tree Vehicle Halted; Is 24 Feet Long

A truck load of several hundred Christmas trees bound for San Francisco was delayed at Woodburn late Monday afternoon when state police ordered the driver off the road because his vehicle was 42 feet long, seven feet beyond the legal limit. The enterprising driver said he would simply saw off the seven feet and proceed southward.

The exceptionally long "truck" consisted of a touring car of ancient vintage to which a home made two-wheeled trailer was pivoted. The driver was from Camas, Wash.

How the man expected to negotiate the turns and grades on the highway to the south is a mystery to police.

NITRO BOMB USED AS TOY FOOTBALL

ROCHESTER, Wash., Dec. 19. (P)—Wayne Tripp, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Huey Tripp, found a section of rubber inner tube, 5 1/2 inches in diameter and stuffed with something soft, in their front yard.

He picked it up and decided he was in possession of a home-made football. He laid it on the ground, swung back his little foot and executed a neat kick from placement, the football sailing half way across the yard.

Again and again he booted it about the premises.

Then he decided a bean shooter could be nicely fashioned from a strip cut from the piece of inner tube.

Mother and her scissors could do the job and she did. Mrs. Tripp opened the ends of the "football" and found two small cans within the paper stuffing.

One of the cans contained 20 dynamite caps and a short section of powder fuse. In the other can were two bottles containing six ounces of nitro-glycerine.

Sheriff Claude Havens said later he was convinced the "football" was discarded by a fencer who robbed the Puget Sound Power and Light company office space two weeks ago.
