

Galaxy of Stars Ready to Test New Salem High Five

CHAMPS RALLY FRIDAY NIGHT

Huntington Will Mix in New Men With Veterans of 1933 Campaign

Former stars of the maple court for Salem high will romp once more before a Salem high crowd Friday night in the high school gym when the alumni give the 1933-34 Salem high aggregation its first test. The game is an annual feature of the homecoming program.

From all indications the test given the successors to the 1933 state champions will be complete in every respect. In the City-Y league alone there are enough former Salem high players to make three teams which could be rotated against the undergraduates, the list including such men as Bone, Kitchen, Burrell, Sachler and Mosher — five men who were recently first-stringers for the high school and would make a well-balanced team to send against the new edition. And these players are all in condition.

Kelley, Thomas Here

But aside from the players to be found in the City-Y league, there are other former Salem high players at home from college for the holidays—among them Johnny Kelley and Thomas from last year's state champion team; they also are in condition to play. In addition there are other eligible players at home for the holidays, though not all are now college students; several of the Siegmund brothers among them. Clark Jackson will marshal the alumni forces.

A year ago the alumni gained revenge for a shelling the year before, by beating the state champions-to-be 44 to 38. At that time the high school team was in just about such a formative state as it is right now, and it gave its first hint of potential greatness by holding the old grads so closely in that game.

Though Kelley, Morley, Mosher, Thomas, Pickens and Ferrine are gone from the championship outfit, it is not so entirely bereft of experienced players as such an exodus would indicate.

Brownell Has "Flu"

Brownell, the only player still in school of the five who started against the alumni a year ago, may not play Friday night as he has been ill with "flu," but he will be available for later games; and that will make four veterans, the other three being players who came into the limelight later last season: Wintermute, Engel and Delardin.

To fit in with this quartet, Coach Hollis Huntington has been working for the past two weeks with a group of players recruited from last year's B team, junior high and the church league, among them Devers, Bill Burrell, Peters, Roth, Salstrom, Witzel, Sederstrom, Gwynn and Dyer. A good many if not all of these boys will be given a chance to show their potential a bit Friday night.

GIANTS' VICTORY IS VOTED FEAT OF '33

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (AP)—The feat of William Harold Terry and his team of destiny, the New York Giants, in winning the national league pennant and the world series today was voted the outstanding team achievement of the year by sports editors and writers balloting in the Associated Press third annual sports poll.

Despite the intervening smoke screen of a sensational football season, the thrilling dash of the Terry men to the pennant and their smashing victory over Washington in the world series still remained vivid enough in the minds of 68 of the 193 experts voting in the poll to cause them to so mark their ballots.

Princeton's undefeated young football team ran second to the Giants, 42 votes going to Fritz Cleiser and his players who won the British Davis cup tennis upset conquerors of the United States and France in International tennis play were selected for highest honors by 27.

Little Scoffs at Suggestion Lions Are Far Too Light

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20. (AP)—The tournament of roses-bound Columbia Lions stopped off for five hours here today, went through a brisk workout under the watchful eyes of Coach Lou Little and his aids, and tonight resumed their journey westward.

Mid-western football critics, viewing the workout, decided the Lions will have to give away much weight in their New Year's day clash with the powerful Stanford Indians, but Coach Little brushed the idea aside.

"We won't be outweighed too much," he almost boasted.

Turner Buys Out Shibe Says McCredie Will Be Manager of Pennant Nine

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 20. (AP)—Thomas L. Turner, president and part owner of the Portland baseball club of the Pacific coast league, disclosed here today that he has purchased the entire interest of 88 2/3 shares held by John D. Shibe of the Philadelphia Athletics, and that through this purchase the Portland club will continue in fact and in name as a home-owned club.

Returning here today from Chicago where he attended the major league meeting, Turner announced he had bought the 88 2/3 shares which had given Shibe a majority stock interest in the Portland club which has a total of 1500 outstanding shares. Turner said he now possesses all but 100 shares of the club stock. No "entangling alliances" with other major league clubs will be made, Turner declared.

The appointment of Walter H. McCredie as manager of the Portland team in 1934, reported at the end of the 1933 football season, was confirmed today by Turner. McCredie was manager of the old Portland Beavers from 1904 to 1921, inclusive, during which time the team won five league pennants.

In addition to the players acquired by Portland and announced at the Chicago meeting, Turner said there will be added "at least two outfielders, the name of one of whom will be a major surprise; three good pitchers, and a catcher of ability — we are after another pennant."

"FOUL" CONTEST PLANNED

STAYTON, Dec. 20.—The next interclass activity to be run off in the Stayton high school will be an interclass foul shooting contest. Each class will have six foul shooters, each one shooting one hundred fouls or six hundred for the team. The team having the highest number of shots made will be awarded first place. An interclass long-shot contest will be run off after this is finished.

The announcement was made by Professor William Owen, Stayton faculty representative in the Pacific Coast conference.

Professor Owen said he went into the matter thoroughly after Norgard's eligibility had been questioned, first by Santa Clara and later by University of California.

Norgard first told him, Professor Owen said, that he had not played football at St. Ignatius. The later newspaper for September 1929 and discovered Norgard's name as a substitute in the game against a submarine naval base team.

Professor Owen stated the matter of the player's ineligibility would not effect coast conference standings. Stayton finished as co-champion in a tie with Oregon and an equal percentage of wins with Southern California.

Poor Nassau; Goes in Hole On Athletics

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 20. (AP)—Despite a 25 per cent reduction in expenditures, a deficit of $63,030 was incurred in operating Princeton athletic teams during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, said the report today of the Princeton Athletic association.

The report was published in the current issue of the Princeton alumni weekly, which said the budget for 1933-34 again had been reduced, to $200,000. That is almost a 50 per cent reduction from the peak year of 1930-31 when $380,000 was allotted.

The chief decrease in revenue was in football receipts, which dropped to $170,418 for the 1932 season and showed a favorable balance of only $95,590. All other sports except hockey failed to pay their own way and the $13,794 receipts from hockey were only $746 above expenses.
