Society News and Club Affairs

JESSIE STEELE, Society Editor

P. E. O. is Feted At Hughes Home

Chapter G. P.E.O., was delightfully entertained at luncheon and with a Christmas party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. S. Hughes on E street.

Holly and red tapers centered the attractively appointed serving table and the guest rooms abounded in Christmas decorations. A short business meeting was held after the luncheon hour followed by an exchange of gifts. In attendance were Mrs. D. X. Beechler, Mrs. F. E. Churchill, Mrs. E. R. Cooley, Mrs. G. W. Laflar, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. A. E. Robins, Mrs. W. B. Robinson, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Martha Schmuck, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. F. J. Tooze, Miss Annabel Tooze, Mrs. S. D. Voight, Miss Annora Welch, Mrs. O. C. Wolfe, Mrs. Alice Fisher and hostesses, Mrs. H. S. Hughes, Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Mrs. F. W. Lange.

Legion Auxiliary Has Affair Today

The American Legion auxiliary will entertain a group of Salem children with an annual Christmas party at the Fraternal temple this afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

Gifts will be distributed by Santa Claus and a program including group singing will be presented. Billy Mudd and Marjorie Ann Bergsvik will dance a minuet in costume and Master MacDonald and Dorothy Marie Bergsvik will sing.

Mrs. Leif Bergsvik is in charge of the party.

Silverton-Of interest to many Silverton friends is the wedding of Miss Inga C. Hansen, daughter of Mrs. Julia Hanson of Silverton, to Stanley Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hanson of Portland, at Vancouver, Washington, Saturday at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Thelma Thompson, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride and Harvey Hanson, brother of the bride attended the groom. A reception was given at Portland to friends following the wedding. The Thompsons will live at Portland where Mr. Thompson is employed.

Three Link club will me in the club rooms of the Odd Fellows hall at 2:30 Friday afternoon for their regular business meeting, Christmas tree and Entre Nous Club exchange of gifts. There will be a program. All Rebekahs are welcome to attend. Every member of the club is urged to be present for election of officers.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS Some women will make several of this attractive apron as Christmas gifts for friends; some will make it for themselves one can | 3NT never have too many; still others know it offers one of the most desplashes, too. Choose a gay cotton print, a remnant perhaps, and it will be fresh, and crisp-looking. Pattern 1712 is available in sizes small, medium and large. Small size takes 1 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric and 7% yards binding. Illustrated step-by-step sewing in- ing a taking card in that suit. This structions included.

Address orders to The Oregonsteaman Pattern Department, 515 uth Commercial street, Halem. Make consury enclosures. Your order will promptly attended to.

Three Prize-Winning Skippers

In Belgium and Holland these Schipperkes, or "little skippers" are watchdogs on canal boats. But in Los Angeles they are prize pets entered in the national winter dog show. Miss Fern Sullivan has them well in hand.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday, December 22

Barbara Frietchie, Tent No. 2, 8 p. m. at K. P. hall. Berean chapter, W. W. G. of First Baptist church. at home Margaret Ayers, 245 S. Cottage, 7:30 p. m. Saturday, December 23

Eastern Star, initiation meeting, 2 p. m., Masonic temple

Has Gay Party

of the year given by the Entre Nous club was enjoyed Wednesday. Several special guests were invited to join with the members in an informal no-host Christmas

The lounge room of the clubhouse was profusely decorated in greens and there was a beautiful lighted tree laden with gifts. Immediately following the refreshment hour, Santa Claus passed out

Eleven tables of 500 were in

Hold Up Used In No-Trump By MRS. WILLIAM H. QUINN

Statesman Tournament Conductor

Use of the "hold up" in playing no-trump hand is demonstrated in the play of board 12, outlined today by Mrs. William H. Quinn, Statesman tournament conductor. The "hold up" is legal at the bridge table though not on the highway or in a dark alley. North and South vulnerable, West dealer. The board, x standing for any

▲ Q 9 8 6 2 XXX 4 II West East WKJI AA 10 xx 📤 Q J x ♠ KJx WILLE Kxx

The bidding: West

*East has the choice of bidding 2 diamonds or 2 no-trump. The 2 lightful opportunities to learn to diamond bid would promise only do home sewing! It's really pretty 11/2 honor tricks and a fine card as can be, as well as comfortable, diamond suit. The hand is much with the seamings accented by stronger, so would recommend colored binding, and those cute the 2 no-trump bid. This bid little pockets so efficiently placed. promises 21/2 honor tricks and Saves many a good frock, from gives to his partner a true picture of the hand.

> The play: Many no trump contracts are not fulfilled because of the failure to use the hold up. The hold up is the refusal of the first lead of an opponent's suit when holdplay is usually made when one has one trick only in suit led by opponents, and hopes to exhaust that suit in the leader's partner's hand. The hold up plays an important role in the play of board

Turner Moses and Paul Tromm-

Special guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Ross R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bright, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wickert, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robey, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. La-Due, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hisler, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tumbleson, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sloper and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Olson

Members present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. William Earle, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. William Moses, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kruegplay with high scores for the er, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hummel, guests going to Mrs. L. L. Sloper Mr. and Mrs. William Gehrke, and Don Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Les- Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hampshire and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Trommlitz.

> Scio-The "500" club members and a number of friends were delightfully entertained at a double party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wesely recently, Mrs. E. Phillips and Mrs. Fred Roadarmel acting as joint hostesses. A 7 o'clock dinner preceded the game. Six tables were filled with players, with Mrs. Rolla Shelton and Arch Ray holding high score and Mrs. A. G. Prill and Frank Bartu received consolation prizes. the club members at her home on the afternoon of December 28.

Mrs. Roadarmel will entertain

Zonta Club Meets tract club at luncheon and bridge. For Yuletide red tapers.

The holiday spirit reigned throughout the luncheon meeting of the Zonta club yesterday at the Marion, Miss Hazel Cook had charge of the program, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher.

Luncheon

Origin of the use of Christmas decorations such as trees, holly and mistletoe was brought out in the program,

Miss Helen Barrett was a special guest and Mrs. Victory Morris attended the meeting for the first time as a new member. Mrs. Morris is connected with an insurance Covers were placed at luncheon for Miss Barrett, Mrs. Morris, Dr. Helen Pearce, Miss Hazel Cook, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Helen Yockey, Mrs. Winifred Herrick, Miss Kathryn Gunnell, Miss Barbara Barnes, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Miss Alene Phillips, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Mrs. Roberta Butler, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher and Miss Nellie Schwab.

A.A.U.W. Members At Sale

deavor of the community church Members of the Salem branch at Salem Heights held an enthusof A. A. U. W. will assist Mrs. iastic and well-attended Christ-George H. Alden in her oriental mas party in the hall. Christmas shop today and Saturday. Mrs. games were played under the di-Alden has pledged a large perrection of the pastor, Rev. Dean centage of the proceeds from the Vermillion, after which refreshbusiness of these two days to the ments were served with those organization's scholarship fund, present seated around a long taand has done so for the past sevble, lit by individual candles. eral years.

Her shop on North Church newly-organized Endeavor sociestreet is of special interest to many Salem folk since a large ty are: president, Joe Vogt; vicenumber of her importations come president, Austin Lowe; secredirectly from personal friends of tary, Susie Jones; treasurer, Dorhers in the orient, some of them former students at Willamette from the Christmas tree the party university. Working this afternoon will be Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Kenneth Fitzgerald and Mrs. Hubert Reilly; tonight, Mrs. Ray L. Smith and Mrs. Otto K. Paulus; Saturday morning, Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Lelia Johnson: Saturday afternoon, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks and Mrs. Milo Rasmussen; Saturday night, Miss Frances Virginie Mel-

Scotts Mills .- Miss Mary Mo- don and Tommie LaDuke, Paul berg, bride-elect, was compliment- Burger, Robert and Charles Laed with a miscellaneous shower Forge, Bob Straw, Donald Ellis, Tuesday afternoon at the home of George Skelton, Neal Fisher, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Addy Trone and Rev. and Mrs. Those present were besides the honor guest, Mrs. Cora Whitlock, Mrs. Maxine Helvey, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. Edna Smith, Mrs. ter Jones won first and Mrs. Joy Frank Biosig, Mrs. C. J. Thomas, Mrs. Joe Dale, Mrs. Vina Losinger, litz won second prizes for the club Mrs. Ada Geren, Dora Geren, Mrs. Addie Smith, Mrs. J. N. Amundson, Mrs. William Fry, Miss Beatrice Amundson, Mrs. Blondina Sanders, Mrs. Andrew Sanders. Mrs. J. E. Saueressig, Miss Cleo Saueressig, Mrs. E. W. Coulson. Mrs. A. L. Brougher, Miss Phyllis Macy, Mrs. Lowell Hirtzil, Mrs. | mittees for the occasion are: re-Claud Johnson, Mrs. Louie Magee, Mrs. A. J. Ettlin, Mrs. Harold Waldo F. Brown and Mrs. Neva Wynd, Mrs Roy Crites, Mrs. Albert Rich, Mrs. Herman Laudwing, Grimm, Mrs. Effa Bell and Mrs. Mrs. Raymond Kellis, Mrs. Russel A. F. de Lespinasse; refreshment, Moberg, Mrs. Nelson, Miss Lilly Nelson, Mrs. W. E. Dimick, Mrs. Ella Funrue, Mrs. Don Littlepage, Mrs. Bethel Taylor, Miss Ruth Boyce, Miss Marie Johnson, Miss Arlene Athey, Mrs. M. Groshong, Corrine, Viona and Viola Moberg and Mrs. Moberg.

Kingwood .- Mrs. Glenn L. Adams was hostess Tuesday for the annual Christmas party of the Laurel Social Hour club. The 1 o'clock dinner was followed by exchange of gifts; reading, "The Story of the Other Wise Man," Mrs. M. C. Petteys; skit, "The Night Before Christmas," Mrs. C. A. Guderian and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite; reading, "Story of the Cranberries," Mrs. Karl P. Mo-

Special guests were Mrs. Nellie Campbell of Victoria, B. C., Mrs. William Wilcox of Silverton, Miss Clem Bagne of Seattle, Mrs. M. C. Petters and Miss Viola Jennings.

Towels in Gay Embroidery

can never have too many of, gay, is given. With Christmas just charming, attractive and easy to around the corner, the smart embroider, these three towels needlewoman will find this patwould make a lovely addition to tern a practical solution for three 12. The conventional opening lead any linen closet. The one is done gifts, with the added attraction is the 6 of spades. West imme- in colored cross-stitch which is so that there is variety in making diately plans his hand. He sees much in vogue now. The second them. These designs also lend that he can afford to lose two is simple cutwork — and what themselves to pillow cases. spades and if South has no more woman doesn't welcome cutwork. Pattern 556 contains a transfer spades and if South has no more spades. West can finesse the diamond toward South. West makes four diamond tricks, one spade, three hearts and 1 club trick, He stitches. The border on this towel trated directions for the stitches makes his contract by refusing to can either be embroidered in run- and color suggestions. take the spade trick until the ning-stitch as illustrated, or a Send 10c for this pattern to for the holidays from Pacific coltrid round.

Send 10c for this pattern to for the holidays from Pacific coltridays from Pacific

Here is something a housewife a pattern for the applique piece

Miss Rachel Pemberton is home

Steven Thiess.

Mrs. Bergsvik Fetes Contract Club

vik was attractive with Christmas

Those invited for the afternoon were Mrs. Stanley Burgess, Mrs.

J. H. Brady, Mrs. J. T. Delaney

Mrs. R. D. Woodrew, Mrs. T. L.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor

Social Realm

Salem Heights-Tuesday night

Officers were elected for this

After presents were distributed adjourned with singing and prayer. The following young people from the community were present: Doris Battles, Frances and Susie Jones, Audrey LaDuke,

Dorothy Berger, Mary Lou and

Helen Kaspberg, Eunice Wright,

Marie Rothweiler, Billie Marsh,

and Mrs. Harvey Pruitt, Joe Vogt,

Charles Battles, Paul Jones, Glen-

Hubbard - A Christmas tree and gifts for every member was a feature of the meeting of the Hubbard Woman's club held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Rich on Wednesday. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Ida Garland, Mrs. G.

Croisant and Miss Dorothy Scholl.

Plans for the joint meeting with Woodburn and Aurora Woman's clubs to be held in Hubbard January 17, were completed. Comception, Mrs. Ida Garland, Mrs.

McKenzie; program, Mrs. Earl

Mrs. Ellen Carl, Mrs. L. A. Beck-

Mrs. George Grimps was appointed chairman of the ticket sale for the benefit minstrel show

Program numbers were given by Phyllis Grimm, Ruth Jung-nickel, Marjorie Rich, Naomi

Friend and Mrs. Waldo F. Brown

Jefferson-Of interest to their many friends in Jefferson is the

The announcements were cleverly told at the two course dinner

Sunday afternoon, at the home near here of S. H. Goin, father of Guests present were Miss Margaret Goin, Harvey Thurston,

Miss Alice Calkins, Ed Sanford

Gladys Calahan, Leland Wells,

Frances Goin, S. H. Goin, Carl

Whiteaker of Corvallis, and Miss club met at the home of Mrs. Orie Conley Tuesday afternoon. The time was spent in sewing a quilt for Mrs. Conley. The group exchanged gifts. Those present were Mrs. Mark Blodgett, Mrs. L. Dornhecker and daughter Muriel, Mrs.

T. Keller and daughter Elsie, Mrs.

Clyde Robbins, Mrs. R. Slater and daughters Lots and Mrs. H. Coy,

Mrs. D. Inman and children, Mrs.

Suver-The Suver Ivy club met

it Mrs. Westly Kester's home

Wednesday. They enjoyed a gift exchange. Officers for the new year were elected: president,

Frances Kester; vice - president,

Mrs. B. R. Douglas; secretary-

Pioneer-A birthday party was given in honor of Mrs. Lee Hughess Sunday afternoon at her home. Those present were Elsie and Willis Keller, Muriel Dornhecker, Maxine and Lois Slater, Bob Hughess, Floyd Favor and

Kingwood. - Miss Margaret

Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

J. P. Smart and a student at Santa

Ana Junior college, Santa Ana,

Calif. is home for the holidays.

She will return south immediate-

Brooks-Mrs. Parks of Ruth ly following New Year's.

treasurer, Mrs. Mable Kerr.

L. Harrington and the hostess.

Pioneer-The Pioneer sewing

Miss Margaret Goin.

Susan Martin of Salem.

man and Dr. Ethel K. Riley.

uary 12.

Portland.

Dean Vermillion.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lowe, Mr.

is Battles.

the Young People's Christian En-hostess, Mrs. Bergsvik.

Women Outstanding in The home of Mrs. Leif Bergsgreens and tall lighted tapers Thursday afternoon when she en-A sincere production is "The ner. tertained members of her con-Rock," now showing in the Nelson The table was centered with a auditorium. Members of the cast small decorated tree guarded by throw themselves into their roles heart and soul. Two women in the play are outstanding. Savifia Phelps as Adina, the virtuous wife of Simon Peter, Kuhns, Mrs. Clifford Daue and is as beautiful as she is loyal. Her voice, her personality, her costumes are all in harmony with her role as the faithful, loving Ruth Versteeg as Mary Magdala in her crimson and gold robes Mrs. Frank Snedecor returned stands out in startling contrast to Wednesday from an extended the delicate blues and white which tour of the south. She left Salem Adina wears. Her flippant airs, October 7, going to California her hearty laugh at much the simwhere she joined a friend and ple fisher - folk hold sacred, her motored back to Chicago. From very postures are in keeping with the world's fair city, Mrs. Snedecor went to Birmingham, Ala., her character of the scarlet womwhere she visited the longest, rean, Beautiful as Adina, Mary is startling and aflame whereas Simturning by way of Memphis, Tenn., Texas and California. on's wife soothes and quiets with 'tween acts, to deliver about $15,000 worth of on account of the absenteeism of the governor," Holman declared.

now he has failed to attend 38 meetings of the board of control and that he has neglected 13 times to even call a meeting of the board when the law specifically directs

Opinion on State meetings to be held."

state purchasing agent.

Catching Cold?

NEW AID IN PREVENTING COLDS

Will Purchase One of These

STEEL BLUE

KIMBERLY GEM

1/4 to 3 - karat Kimberly gems, matchless for their dazzling brilliancy. Stand acid and all other tests.

Handsomely engraved in simulated white gold, hardly distinguishable from platinum. Including a complete assortment of birthstone and

Show Size by Piece of String FIRST FLOOR

MILLER'S

wedding rings.

NOSE DROPS

"The record discloses that up to flax to the Salem Linen Mills.

In the Valley ABSENTEEISM OF

Helen Hickman, Mabel Straw. Holman Asks for

Cast of Chemeketa Play

Norris Kemp as Simon feels his role and looks the part but has difficulty with his pronunciation. from Chemeketa Players Inc., The dialogue throughout is a stumbling block for the movement of the play, with its biblical "thees" and "thous" and complicated phrasings, Fern Shelton as Debora is particularly convincing after her healing by the Master. Ucal, played by Fred LaDue, lacks the stage presence of the rest of the cast but has a pleasing voice and in several scenes wins the whole-hearted sympathy of the audience.

The setting of the play is well executed. The scenery is appropriate. Costumes throughout are also good, particularly those of the women.

All proceeds from the play go to the Open Door Mission, After hard liquors by the glass, Friday night, churches of the city will furnish Christmas music be-

Drunken Driving Harry Scott Not Cycle Man Here

Harry W. Scott, the cycle man, State Treasurer Rufus C. Holwho lives at 960 North Fifth man Thursday renewed his critistreet, yesterday wanted it known cism of Governor Julius L. Meier that he was not the Harry Scott for the latter's "absenteeism" in who pleaded guilty in justice regard to state affairs. The criticourt Wednesday to a charge of cism arose when Holman receivdrunken driving and was given a ed "without opportunity for consuspended 90-day jail sentence. ference with other members of the The Harry Scott involved in the board of control," a contract signcase is a resident of the Salem ed by the governor and the secre-Heights districts. tary of state obligating the state

The cycle man was embarrassed a number of times yesterday by acquaintances calling and asking "This is but a sample of how if he were involved in the affair. the state business is drifting along

Associated Veterans Not to Hold Big Dinner

Because the Associated Veterans cannot secure a hall for the purpose, they will not hold the customary Christmas dinner for the needy, M. Clifford Moynihan announced yesterday.

TO ENFORCE KNOX LIQUOR LAW HERE

law are to be rigidly enforced in Salem, Chief of Police Frank A Minto declared Thursday as he proceeded so to instruct his men in the matter. He declared he would attempt to see to it that the local officers shouldered the end forcement burden particularly bed tween now and the time the lie quor commission goes into full on eration.

City policemen were instructed especially to enforce sections of the law forbidding sale of any alcoholic beverage containing more than 1.5 per cent alcohol to persons under 21 years of age either by the glass or in the original cone tainers and including both beef and wine, sale of alcoholic liquos to drunken persons, and sale of Chief Minto said he also would keep in mind any violations discovered so that he could recome mend that state licenses be not granted the violators. The Knox law gives the liquor commission authority to deny licenses upon nearly any ground and to require applicants to secure a written rece ommendation from the city coun-

Code Binds When Blue Eagle is Up

Continued display of the blue eagle by a firm binds the firm to abide by the code of its trade or by the president's reemployment agreement, according to advices yesterday from Washington. The reemployment agreement will be self-extending to May 1, 1934, if the eagle continues to be displayed. If an employer has not yet signed any code he can do so by requesting an agreement with the president from the postoffice. When this is signed he is entitled to receive and to display the blue

Dr. J. Vinton Scott

304-5 1st National Bank Bldg. Salem, Oregon

For LESS Than 1.00

Novelty Fabric Gloves Stepins—Brassieres—Slips

Zipper Bags-Kerchiefs-Tea Aprons Gotham Gold Stripe Silk Hose Wool and Silk Scarfs-Infant Shawls Costume Jewelry - Wool Gloves

For LESS Than 2.00

Scarf Sets

Silk Dancesets-Combinations-Slips Silk Hosiery including Custom Fit Top, and Gordon Knee-flex

Cape Skin Gloves, House Frocks, Scarf Sets Rayon Gowns and Pajamas Bed Room Slippers Umbrellas, Purses, Costume Jewelry

For LESS Than 5.00

Sweaters, Twin Sweaters, Brushed Wool Sweaters Blouses, Purses, Kid and Pigskin Gloves Make-up Robes, Bath Robes Embroidered Piano Scarfs Silk Gowns, Slips, Dance Sets Pajamas, Combinations Vassaretts, Panties

She will appreciate a Vassar Foundation Garment 5.00-10.00-15.00

THE GREATER

STORE

准经市西部

Brassieres, Vests