

"WET" PREDICTION REALIZED, AND HOW

Holiday Homecomers in Some Regions May Have To Resort to Boats

PIONEER, Dec. 21. — Whoever said that Oregon would be wringing wet by Christmas certainly knew what he was talking about. The road near the Dan Siddons place on the LaCroix, is caving in and Roy and Darrel Bird, Clyde Robbins and Will Kinion have been called to fix the place. There is much more road damage done in this community and surrounding country.

SILVERTON, Dec. 21. — Rivers and creeks have taken Mae West's suggestion and have "come up." Pudding river is over the pavement on the lower road and Silver creek, which seldom floods, is running high and affording considerable amusement for those who have time and inclination to stand on Main street or James avenue to watch it. The Abiqua is reported as running rampant in some of the fields but as yet remaining off the highways.

RICKREALL, Dec. 21. — The Rickreall creek is again out of its banks and the Basket slough to the north has flooded the fields and in some places is over the highway. The wind still blows, at some times the velocity has reached 50 miles an hour, but so far has done little damage other than blowing over telephone poles and damaging electric light wires.

SHELBURN, Dec. 21. — High winds and rain have been the order of the day since Sunday morning. Some low land is covered with water, while all the small

Revival Meetings
At Mill City are Closed; Pastor Ill

MILL CITY, Dec. 21. — Rev. J.
McAuley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is confined to his home with a severe attack of lumbago and it will probably be several days before he will be able to be out.

The revival meetings which have been conducted by A. Word at the Christian church during the past six weeks have closed and Mr.
Word and family left Tuesday to commence a similar series elsewhere. While here, two of the Word children had attacks of the measles.

Tom Bradshaw is spending the week in Portland where he is the guest of friends and relatives over the holiday season. Miss Agnes Navetto is visiting at the home of her father here.

Students Give Talks
At P. T. A. Session

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 21. —
The Parent Teacher's association met for their regular meeting, at the high school Wednesday. A round-table discussion on "Worthy Use of Leisure Time for High School Students" was held. Three high school students, Beryl Kelley, Paul Carey, and Lee Ray Hanson, gave their viewpoints. It was decided to give a New Year's party in the gym.

streams are full to the brim. The Santiam river fed by so many of the mountain streams is very high.
