JEFFERSON, Dec. 21.—The Evangelical Sunday school will present its program Saturday night. There will be songs by the primary and junior departments; also songs by the primary and junior children; duet, "The Kingly Stranger" by Rev. and Mrs. Carl Wackerbarth, and the Christmas pageant, "The Hope of the World" in which members from all departments of the school will take part. The Christian church will have their program Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. It will consist of three plays, "The Empty Room."

Romance Ended

Corliss Palmer Brewster, one of America's foremost beauties, who seeks divorce from Eugene Brewster, once a millionaire publisher, at Los Angeles. They were married in 1926 when Corliss was at the height of her fame. Brewster (inset) is now trying to recoup his lost fortunes by writing.

and "From Our House to Your House," by the adult members of the school; and "Christmas on Crutches" by the juniors. Special music will be given.

ELDRIDGE, Dec. 21.—The Eldridge Sunday school will have a free Christmas program Saturday night, December 23, at the Eldridge schoolhouse. Everyone is invited.

BUILDING PERKS UP IN SIVER DISTRICT

SIVER, Dec. 21.—There has been quite a bit of building in this vicinity this fall. Joe James has built a new barn on his place, Ralph Kester built a modern milk house, Ory Allen built a new barn and E. G. Harris remodeled a house for the Jay Thomas family.

Wind Causes Death
 A sheep shed collapsed on the E. G. Harris place Monday. It killed several sheep, injured several more, killed one heifer and pinned a beef cow under the wreckage. Doris Conger, who is attending Oregon State college, and Verle Harris, a student at Monmouth Normal, are home for the Christmas vacation. The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conkey, the latter a former school teacher here, Sunday at a Salem hospital. The child was named Arlene Ann.

Century Old Paper Found

RICKREALL, Dec. 21.—A number of copies of old newspapers have come to light here recently, but I. W. Goodell holds the record so far with a copy of "The Sun," dated New York, N. Y., September 3, 1833. It is number 1, and price one cent. The editor was G. Ely. It is a small double sheet, each sheet 9 by 12 inches. While the paper is yellow with age the print is plain and the ink black. The paper is in good shape. Mr. Goodell is a member of the pioneer Dempsey family. His grandfather, I. Dempsey, was one of Polk county's earliest judges.

Quarterly Convention Of Sunday School Set

TURNER, Dec. 21.—The quarterly Sunday school convention of the Santiam district will be held at the Turner Methodist church Sunday, January 7, beginning at 10 o'clock, continuing with two sessions and basket lunch. C. S. Jordan of Stayton is president.
