Luncheon Smart Event for Saturday

An interesting affair of Saturday afternoon will be a luncheon given by Mrs. David Wright in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Wilhelmine Danforth of Corvallis. The guest list of 48 includes many students home for the holidays and members of the young set of Salem. The rooms will be gay with Christmas decorations of holly and poinsettias.

Mrs. Danforth was Eleanor Wright before her marriage and was prominent in social circles as well as in the Order of Rainbow for Girls, having served as grand worthy advisor of the state for that order.

Dinner in Honor Of Seattle Visitor

Miss Edna Sterling of Seattle, who has been a guest at the Paul Wallace home for the holidays, was the inspiration for a charmingly appointed dinner Thursday night at the Wallace home.

The table was centered with a conventional Christmas design guarded by tall red tapers in crystal holders. An informal evening was spent following the dinner hour.

Covers were laid for the honor guest, Miss Sterling, Mrs. Sheldon Sackett, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Edith Schryver, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Harriett Long, Miss Mary Schultz, Miss Alice Wallace and hostess, Mrs. Paul Wallace.

Miss Sterling is a former resident of Salem and has many friends in the city.

Leslie Can Do's Have Jolly Party

The R. E. Pattison home was the scene of a gay Christmas party Wednesday night when the Leslie Can Do's were entertained. Gifts were exchanged and the evening spent in games.

Officers for the coming year were named as follows: president, Mrs. B. E. Otjen; vice president, Mrs. X. E. Hoerth; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Vick; and secretary, Mrs. Eva Rasmussen.

Rev. Ormal Trick spoke briefly on the significance of Christmas. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vick, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop, Rev. and Mrs. S. Darlow Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bozell and children, Shipley French, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Otjen, Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson and hosts, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Boyce and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pattison.

Mrs. Fry Presides at Informal Tea

Miss Mary Lee Fry and Miss Priscilla Walsh, granddaughters of Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., were complimented with an informal tea Thursday afternoon at the Fry home on South High street. Miss Walsh is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walsh of Eugene and is a holiday visitor.

Those calling during the afternoon included Miss Emily Griggs, Miss Patsy Livesley, Miss Ruth Jean Garnjobst, Miss Florence Utter, Miss Dorothy Dannon of Portland, Miss Flavia Downs, Miss Barbara Crain, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Marjorie Ann Johnson, Miss Patricia Schramm, Miss Jewel Minier, Miss Ila Mills, Miss Frances Kells and Miss Willetta German.

Mrs. Smith to Honor House Guests

Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., will have as house guests for the weekend her two sisters, Miss Mildred and Miss Miriam Swafford of Oregon City.

Tonight Mrs. Smith will entertain at dinner. The table will be centered with a silver bowl of fruit guarded by red tapers in silver candlesticks.

Covers will be placed for the Misses Swafford and six additional guests including the hostess.

Alderin-Thomas Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Vera Alderin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Alderin to Elvin E. Thomas, son of Mrs. Annie Thomas, of Portland, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Guy L. Drill officiated in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends.

The bride was lovely in a gown of Chinese gold trimmed in brown satin and wore a corsage of Talliesman rosebuds. Miss Katherine Hutcheon was her attendant and wore a frock of green silk and corsage of pink rosebuds.

Charles Thomas of Portland acted as best man for his brother. A Christmas tree, poinsettias and other holiday greens were used about the rooms.

An informal reception followed the ceremony.

For traveling, the bride wore an ensemble of Persian gold tweed with brown accessories. After a wedding trip north the couple will be at home in the Fisher apartments.

Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of Salem high school and Mr. Thomas attended schools in Portland and Salem.

Miss Katherine and Miss Nettie Hutcheon entertained for the bride-elect with a shower party last week.
