

Pair Break World's Endurance Record for Women in Air

MIAMI WOMEN ALOFT 8 DAYS

Getting Weary, but Want to Keep Flying Till Saturday

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 28. (AP) — Frances Marsalis and Helen Richey tonight broke the world's endurance flight record for women and flew over Miami, piling up additional hours beyond the new mark of 8 days, 5 hours and 5 minutes.

They set the new record at 6:08 p. m. Eastern Standard time, bettering by an hour the former mark of 196 hours and 5 minutes which they had equalled an hour earlier.

Mrs. Marsalis became twice co-pilot after the women's record in the "Flying Boudoir" circled past the 196-hour mark set by her and Mrs. Louise Thaden at Valley Stream, Long Island, August 22, 1932.

Mrs. Marsalis, in a note dropped shortly after the women's record, said the women had no intention of landing tonight, provided the plane and its motor continued functioning.

Suggesting 1:03 p. m. Saturday, exactly 10 full days from the time they took off from the Municipal field, as a possible landing time, she asked counsel from her co-workers of the ground crew.

"Gee, I want to stay up," she said in her note, but added that she and Miss Richey were very weary from the hours aloft and the stress of several emergency repair jobs on parts of the plane.

JACKSON TO MEET DETROIT WRESTLER

A new wrestler appears on the horizon, coming clear from Detroit for a round of matches in Oregon. Herb Owen, matchmaker, is bringing him out and his second appearance on the coast will be in Salem next Tuesday night. The Michigan threat is Art Perkins and he will be matched against Bulldog Jackson, familiar favorite, in a one-hour go at the armory.

Perkins is fast, clever and clean; and comes west with a string of victories to his credit in the motor towns of the lakes region.

Stian Crawley will take on the Bohemian, Klem Kusek in a semi-final one-hour muscle stretcher. Salem's own Sugal will be matched against Totem Pole Anderson for another test of his wrestling talent.

Square Deal Team Leads Aumsville

Square Deal Radio hoopers defeated the Aumsville town team 34 to 23 Thursday night at Aumsville. The game was closer than the score indicated, the outcome not being apparent until near the end when the Salem boys pulled ahead to a substantial lead.

Send Transients Now to Portland

No more transient men and boys will be sent directly to concentration winter camps from Salem, R. R. "Bob" Boardman, local transient relief director, announced yesterday. Instead he is instructed to direct transient men to proceed to Portland from which point the men are now being assigned to the camps. Last week ten men and boys were sent to the transients' camp near Molalla.

The number of men applying at Hotel de Minto for food and lodging has dropped off sharply this week, but is expected to increase after the first of the year, Boardman said.

Polk Grand Jury To Report Today

DALLAS, Dec. 28. — The Polk county grand jury started its session here today at the call of District Attorney Barnhart and is expected to make its report to Judge Arlie G. Walker some time tomorrow. The circuit court jury which had been drawn for duty on January 8, has been notified not to report until January 15. Judge Walker will be in Dallas on the former date but will not start jury cases until the following week.

Gates High Wins Over Aumsville; CCC Boys Lose

GATES, Ore., Dec. 28. — The Gates high school basketball team played its first "B" league game Wednesday night, winning from Aumsville high school 33 to 17. The two teams played evenly during the first half, the half ending 15 to 14 in Gates' favor. Through the second half the Gates boys checked closer and held Aumsville to three points. Frank Eberhart of Salem refereed the game. The line-up of the teams:

TEN YEAR RIVALS AGAIN AT FINALS

PINEHURST, N. C., Dec. 28. (AP) — George T. Dunlap, Jr., wearer of the national amateur crown, and Dick Wilson of Southern Pines, won their semi-final matches today and prepared for a rematch in the annual mid-winter golf finals tomorrow of a rivalry dating back 10 years.

Dunlap advanced to the final round by defeating R. P. Davidson of Washington, D. C., 4 and 3, while Wilson earned the right to meet the champion by overcoming Eric D. Thomson, St. Andrews, N. B., 4 and 3.

In their medal play today, Dunlap appeared one stroke better than Wilson, playing out the 18 holes in 72, one over par, while Wilson took 73 strokes.

Nominations are Made by Gun Club

Nominations for officers of the Salem Trophooters club were made at a meeting held Thursday night at the chamber of commerce. Rance Niles, Captain W. H. McClain and Carl Kahle were nominated for president. Fred Bayer for vice-president, Kehne Wain and Clarence Townsend for secretary, Carl Bahlbarg for treasurer.

It was reported that there were several hundred dollars in the treasury. Practice shoots will start within the next two weeks in preparation for the telegraphic shoot. Officers will be elected at the annual banquet, to be held January 16.

BOBBY GAYSON ILL PASADENA, Dec. 28 (AP) —

Bobby Grayson, star Stanford fullback, was ordered to bed tonight by the team's physician, Dr. E. F. Roth, who said Grayson was suffering from a heavy cold. Asked if there was any possibility of Grayson not being able to play in the New Year's game against Columbia in the Rose Bowl, Dr. Roth said it was likely he could start, if the cold responded to treatment. Grayson is the mainspring of Stanford's running attack and the fastest man on the Cardinal squad.

EUGENE QUINT PLAYS TONIGHT

DeNeffe's Team From University Town to Play Pade's At Parrish Gym

The first of a number of basketball games between strong independent teams of Salem and neighboring cities, is scheduled for tonight at 8:15 in the Parrish gymnasium when Pade's of Eugene and DeNeffe's of Eugene will clash.

DeNeffe's, a leading quintet in independent play for the last several years and always recognized as one of the strongest in the state, will have such former University of Oregon stars as Gene and Bill Eberhart, Windsor Calkins and Cliff Horner, as well as Chuck Wirth and some other recognized stars who have not worn the Webfoot colors.

Pade's team includes George Seales, Bill Keenan, John Bone, "Squee" Kichen, John Steelhammer and "Doc" Allen, all hoopers of recognized ability. All excepting Bone who was a Salem high star two years ago, have played college ball.

With the addition of Allen, the most recent recruit, and Steelhammer who signed up at the opening of the City-Y league season, needed height is combined with the speed Pade's squad had at the start of its campaign, and the local team should make an even better showing against DeNeffe's team than it did in some early-season games in Portland.

Preliminary game will be between Parrish junior high and Silverton Cubs.

DeNeffe's team has played two games, losing to Oregon 38 to 32 and beating Wendling 26 to 25.

DeNeffe's players: Forwards, Max Rubenstein, Windsor Calkins, Wilson Stegmund; center, Gene Eberhart; guards, Cliff Horner, Frank Graham and Lawrence Karstens.

Rubenstein, Calkins, Eberhart and Horner are all ex-Oregon players. Stegmund, former Salem high all-star, Th. first four men were all team-mates on the Eugene high state championship 1926-1927 team and have played together since then.

LIGHT WORKOUT FOR CARDINALS

Stanford Makes Ready to Meet Columbia at Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Dec. 28. (AP) — Stanford football players, reduced to once a day routine in preparation for the Rose Bowl game with Columbia Monday, worked this afternoon under a beaming sun. Old Sol had been absent the last few days as heavy clouds threatened but produced no rain. The Indians, however, did not need the cheering rays of the sun to enthrall them. Even the oldest roster in the neighborhood of the sweet scented Rose Bowl can not recall an aggregation of players displaying more pep than that shown by the Stanford boys in their maneuvers preliminary to the big game.

Coach Tiny Thornhill has no secrets from the multitude and crowds have thronged the practice field.

There will be no more hard work for the athletes. The session today was mild in comparison to some that have gone before and Friday and Saturday will be even lighter.

bearing down heavily on ways and means to thwart forward passes of all degrees.

Lou Little's reputation as a football slicker has preceded him and the Stanford board of strategy seeks to prepare the active players for the unexpected. Little, they are told, is most unorthodox and will not hesitate to take desperate chances in an attempt to cash in on a possible surprise play.

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 28. (AP) — Work designed to add to the speed and deception of Columbia's light but determined football team marked the practice session today as the Lions whetted their offensive claws for the Indian stalwarts of Stanford at Pasadena New Year's day.

Outweighed as they are, the gridders from Morning side heights concentrated on improved execution of their passing and running attack, with Cliff Montgomery, Al Barabas, Ed Brominski and the two ends, Tony Matal and Owen McDowell figuring prominently in the plays.

News-Wilder, Columbia's field goal counter threat to Bill Corbus of Stanford, also indulged in some plain and fancy placement work again today. Couch Lou Little's team has presented a puzzling array of plays in its work here. It comes out of the huddle in a weird, criss-cross fashion and into its formations, the like of which Pacific coast grid fans have not seen this year.

PICK ALL-STARS FOR EAST-WEST

Lineups Predicted for Charity Game on New Year's

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28 (AP) — After seeing eastern football stars shuffled about in practice for five days, observers had their first glimpse today of what is expected to be the team that lines up for the kickoff against the West in the annual charity game here New Year's day.

Coaches for the East, Dick Hanley of Northwestern and Andy Kerr of Colgate, were non-committal, but those who have followed the workouts at Stanford university believe the first, or starting eleven has just about been decided upon.

The team that appeared to have found favor was distinguished by the absence of Beattie Peathers, halfback from the University of Tennessee and one of the outstanding stars of the Southern conference.

Whether the switch is merely another of a long list of experiments was not explained but Peathers' place was taken by Hermon Everhardus, from the University of Michigan. Everhardus held down the left halfback position on the eleven that drilled on offensive tactics steadily for an hour today.

Whether the switch is merely another of a long list of experiments was not explained but Peathers' place was taken by Hermon Everhardus, from the University of Michigan.

Out of the West's training stronghold at the University of California also came the starting eleven, Coaches Percy Lacey of Denver and Orin Hollingbery of Washington State have practically decided upon.
