Guild to Sponsor Bridge Party Friday

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church is planning a contract and auction bridge party Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the parish house.

Twenty tables will be in play and tea will be served following the afternoon of cards. Mrs. C. F. Patton and Mrs. George H. Swift will pour and Mrs. George A. White is in charge of the tea table. The committee on arrangements includes Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. John Brophy, Mrs. White, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. V. E. Kahn.

Mrs. Goulet is president of the guild but will turn over her executive post to Mrs. C. F. Patton at the next business meeting, January 9. Other new officers are Mrs. Louis Lachmund, first vice-president; Mrs. Wallace Carson, second vice-president; Mrs. Rose Babcock, secretary; and Mrs. John Brophy, treasurer.

Encinitis Club Enjoys Dinner Meeting

The regular dinner meeting of the Encinitis club was held Tuesday night at the Y. W. C. A. Short talks were given on important events of 1933 by Betty Elston, Laura Phillips, Bernadine Ledford, Marjorie Rowe and Bessie Tucker.

It was announced that the annual mid-winter conference of Business Girls would be held in Portland March 3 and 4. A large delegation from the Salem club is planning to attend.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
This delightful frock is trim enough to wear all through your busy day—comfortable while doing the "chores"—attractive to wear when you receive guests informally. The clever neckline is new—with ruffling to outline the double drop shoulder effect, and a crisp tab of contrast held in place with a large colored button. A center pleat lends animation and freedom to the skirt. Cotton, that tub and wear forever, are just the thing. Choose a gay flowered print, a check, dot or stripe, with white for contrast—and you'll have a dream of a frock.

Pattern 1670 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrast. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and city number. Be sure to state size.

The current edition of the Anne Adams pattern book will help you save money. Order your copy today! Price of catalog, 15 cents. Catalog and pattern together 25 cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial Street, Salem. Make necessary corrections. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within four days of the time received by The Statesman.

Miss Ruthita Hoffnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell, plans to sail January 21st for the Philippine Islands. She will make an extended visit at the home of her uncle and aunt, Major and Mrs. Dan Allen in Manila. Major Allen is stationed at Fort McKinley just out of Manila.

Use up Scraps on Patchwork Gifts

Here are some gifts that give that awful last-minute problem of someone who somehow didn't get on the Christmas list. These colorful gifts can all be made of scraps of material and are made of simple small blocks that are quickly made. The three cushions are the type so much in vogue now and the patchwork handkerchiefs and lingerie cases

Court Holds, However, That Peppo is Not Liable for Stock Irregularity

A judgment of $2595 was awarded Sarah E. Hewitt of this city yesterday by Judge L. O. Lovell against the Central Public Service company, Albert Pierce & Co., and F. E. Hughes.

The case involved charges of misrepresentation and fraud made by plaintiff against the sellers of Central Public service preferred stock in 1932.

The court dismissed the suit insofar as it concerned the Portland Electric Power company which was named as one of the defendants. Judge Lovell held that this subsidiary of the Central Public Service corporation had not been proven a party to the sale although Hughes, salesman, was introduced to Mrs. Hewitt by a Peppo employe.

The case was considered especially important locally because hundreds of thousands of dollars in par value of C. P. S. stock was sold here. Had a judgment been returned against the Peppo other suits impending. Franklin T. Griffith, Peppo president, testified for several days during the progress of the trial last fall.

Mrs. Hewitt then testified that she and her husband, when purchasing the stock, were told that they were merely loaning their money to the company and could withdraw it at any time. They allegedly did not know they were purchasing stock until a letter was received from C. P. S. officials telling them that dividends had been omitted.

The Central Public Service corporation is now in receivership. Control of the Peppo has been placed in the hands of three trustees, all Portland men, for a period of ten years.

Farmers' Union News

BETHEL, Jan. 3.—Bethel local of the Farmers' Union met Monday night and held a helpful and interesting meeting. A forward step was taken when the members voted unanimously to confirm the action of the national convention in cancelling certain racial restrictions of membership.

Delegates elected to attend the Marion county convention at Mt. Angel next Saturday, are Ralph A. Wilson, J. A. Hain, George Hain, J. G. Landerback, Carl Miller and W. Welch.

A suggestion offered that the meeting might be changed from Monday to Friday night in order that the pupils of the school and the high school students may attend. This will be brought to a vote later.

Democracy Will Gather Saturday

The Old Guard of Marion county democracy—and some camp followers who are not in wholehearted allegiance since the party went into power—will trek to Portland on Saturday for the annual dinner of the Jackson club of Oregon. This event will be held at 6:30 p. m. at the Portland hotel, followed by a program profuse with party speeches.

A. C. Burk, sheriff, and A. M. Dalrymple, assistant, announced their intention of going to Portland and Henry Crawford indicated he would attend.

There was talk here yesterday that the party's members would devote considerable informal talk to picking of a candidate for the state ticket this spring and fall.

BARNES URGES USE OF WORKER BUREAU

Private employers of labor are not bound to pay a minimum of 50 cents an hour for unskilled labor, E. T. Barnes, reemployment officer manager, explained to the Marion county committee at the latter's regular monthly meeting Wednesday noon. Mr. Barnes said the CWA 50-cent minimum wage had deterred private employers, especially those seeking help on miscellaneous, part-time jobs, from using the services of the free employment service here. Mr. Barnes told the committee he wished its members and all persons hiring labor to use the office, 250 court street, without feeling that a 50 cent wage had to be paid.

Mr. Barnes reported that 340 out of 540 veterans with dependents in the county had been placed. He said the county's quota of 1411 men was not filled. More than 5400 men have been registered since the office was opened here.

Miscellaneous monthly bills were approved by the committee which met at Cole's cafe.

67 Men to Work on Cross Street Sewer Starting Monday

A CWA project that city officials believe will remedy sewage disposal conditions on Cross street will be started Monday morning. It was announced at the city engineer's office last night. The job will consist of laying 1500 feet of sanitary relief sewer on Cross between 14th and Berry streets.

The project will employ 67 men but none of these will be workers who have not previously had CWA employment. The bulk of the crew will be taken from among those now working on street improvements in north Salem.

Few Non-Licensed Cars Reported on Roads by Officers

Fewer motorists, who had not yet obtained their 1934 auto licenses, appeared on the roads in the vicinity of Salem yesterday, state police reported. The number of drivers given provisional citations was considerably below the 200 arrested Tuesday.

A total of 83,554 motorists had obtained 1934 licenses up to Tuesday night which was a decrease of 15,118 when compared with the corresponding period last June, the state department announced yesterday.

Most of the motorists who applied for license plates carried provisional arrest tags issued by the state police.

Long New Manager—Fletcher Long, who for 30 years has been connected with the Cross Market meat department, this week became manager of the department. W. L. Lewis, former manager, has taken over the market at Steustloff's.

Bethany—Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hatteberg and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hatteberg entertained a group of friends on New Year's day at the home of the former. Honor guests were Mrs. L. H. Hatteberg, daughter of the Luther Hattebergs. The occasion was the little miss' birthday. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Torresdahl, Melvin and Theodore Torresdahl, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Torresdahl, Mrs. J. L. Hatteberg, Miss Bertha Hatteberg, Mrs. O. Thomas, Alfred Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Ingvold Torresdahl and Carol Hatteberg.

Sunnyside—Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Taylor entertained at a jolly watch party New Year's eve. Appropriate games were enjoyed and refreshments were served at a late hour. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Barnett of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Caldwell, Miss Billy Hiltner, Norville Gleason and Bruce Caldwell, Sue Ditto, Miss Beryl Johnson, Miss Esther Heckart, Kenneth Cole, Orval Gleason.

Scotts Mills—A watch party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg Sunday night. Three tables of "500" were played. John Pias received the men's first prize and Mrs. Anna Bierack women's first prize. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Euga Mages, Mr. and Mrs. John Pias, Mrs. Anna Bierack, Misses Gacina and Marie Pias, Theresa Barink and Pauline Semolke, John and Anton Semolke, Kurt Weidmann, Albert Hettwer and Mr. and Mrs. Hogg.

CLASS DEBATES TO BE SCHOOL FEATURE

Interclass debates, of importance this year not only from the standpoint of interclass rivalry but also as a point of departure for interclass debate, will open at Salem high school today when the senior negative team meets the junior affirmative in the first of a series of five contests.

Arguing the question of the English system of radio control as opposed to other systems or lack thereof class team members will be preparing for tryouts for the school team which will this year argue the same question, according to Shannon Hogue, debate coach.

The schedule announced yesterday follows: senior negative vs. junior affirmative, January 4; sophomore affirmative vs. junior negative, January 5; sophomore negative vs. junior affirmative, January 9; sophomore affirmative vs. senior negative, January 10; junior negative vs. senior affirmative, January 11.

Salem Legion Men To Gather Friday At Sheridan WOW

The largest American Legion gathering in the second district, aside from the district conference to be held here late this month, is scheduled for Sheridan Friday night when Yambull county veterans will stage their first 1934 pow-wow, according to O. E. "Moss" Palmateer, district commander. Palmateer said a large number of Salem legionnaires planned to attend the affair and the Haywire orchestra, auxiliary trip and quartet would furnish some of the entertainment. Notable to be present will include State Commander Harold Warner and State Adjutant Carl Moser.

Another event interesting to Salem veterans is the Tillamook 40th "wreck" to be held Saturday night at Goat's camp, five miles south of that city on the coast. The program will include a seafood dinner. Palmateer advised all veterans planning to attend to communicate with Dr. B. F. Pound or Dr. Laban A. Steeves regarding transportation.
