Membership of the Court Street Christian church will have a hand in planning the Sunday night serrice, for those attending in the morning will submit answers to the question "What Things Would I Change in America if I Were Dictator." The answers will form lasis for Rev. Hugh Mc-Callum's night message.

The church recently held its annual meeting, reports showing a 10 per cent net increase in membership in 1933 and a surplus in the treasury at the end of the year.

Officers elected are: Thomas Lee, elder for three years; Wilmer Wodell, Edward Brock and Louis Olmstead, deacons for three years; A. E. Simpson, trustee; Basil Zell, treasurer; Ella Smith, church clerk; Mrs. Irene Miller, missionary treasurer.

The pastor was extended the call for another year and was also elected superintendent of the Sunday school. Rev. McCallum is now starting the last half of his scond year as pastor.
