

Mrs. Scott Speaker At Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Salem Music Teachers' association was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Vinton Scott Tuesday. At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Scott entertained with a talk on Chinese music. She wore a costume, the lower part of which was of the lower part of Chinese red, handsomely embroidered, that had been a wedding dress of her Chinese nurse. The jacket was a black embroidered going-away costume, worn by the Chinese girl when paying a visit to her parents after her marriage. She had presented it to Mrs. Scott as a token of her esteem. The girl's silk embroidered slippers were about six inches long, while those of her grandmother's showed how tightly her feet were bound in a three inch shoe.

Native Chinese music dates back as far as 2600 B. C. It is not the loud, blatant noise we hear in seaport towns, where the musicians are trying to copy the music of the foreigners in their midst, but the musical calls of the native paddlers and coolies in the interior, typify the importance of music in the Chinese life.

Music is an important element in the life of the Chinese. If a new shop is opened, an orchestra will be engaged. Wedding processions, dressed in red, play music to typify their moods and emotions.

Members present for the meeting were Miss D. Pearce, Mrs. D. Eason, Mrs. M. Denton, Mrs. F. V. Melton, Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. P. Thomas, Mrs. H. Lee, Mrs. F. F. Bush, Mrs. B. J. Darby, Mrs. M. Ratcliffe, Mr. E. T. Tilton. Guests included Mrs. R. Berg, R. Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Scott and Dr. R. Utter.

Play to Be Presented At League

"The Color Line," a play dealing with racial prejudice, will be presented by the Little Theater Guild of the First Methodist church for the pleasure of the Epworth League Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Jay Road is acting as director of the production with Jack McCallie as manager. The cast includes Dorothy Keeton, Martha Warren Talbot Bennett, William Miller and Robert Anderson, all Little Theater Guild members.

Lyons.—A pleasant evening of cards was enjoyed at the Bert Morris home Monday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gale Berlinger and son Glen of Mehama, Walter Morris of Oregon City, Quen Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Duffey and son of Mill City, Albert Morris of Corvallis, and Miss Bessie Morris and her sister, Mrs. Knutt, and Bert Morris.

Silverton.—The Immanuel Guild will meet Tuesday afternoon, January 16, with Mrs. Otto Dahl. Mrs. Nels Henjun will be joint tea hostess with Mrs. Dahl for the occasion. Mrs. Sam Lorenson, president of the guild, will preside.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
To keep in step with the newest in fashion, make this stunning ensemble no. 1670, so it will be ready to wear at the first hint of warm weather. You might choose a bold print—Paris is streaming them—and combine it with plain color for the bodice if the frock, or use a dark monotone for coat and skirt and a print for the bodice. Here are lines to flatter both youthful and mature figures—the jacket is swaggy with deep shoulder capes; the frock has graceful jabots, long sleeves and length-giving skirt pleats that lend delightful animation.

Pattern 1670 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 36 takes 4½ yards 29-inch fabric and 7-8 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) to come on stamps (order preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

The current edition of the Anne Adams pattern book will tell you how to save money. Order your copy today! Price of catalog, 15 cents. Catalog and pattern together, 35 cents.

Address: Send orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial Street, Salem. Make necessary corrections. Your order will be promptly attended to.

EAKIN GETS OFFICE IN TRUST COMPANY

Promotion to Mean Little Change in Duties; All Service Here Now

H. E. Eakin, assistant trust officer of the Salem branch of the First National bank of Portland, was Thursday elected assistant secretary of the Security Savings and Trust company of Portland.

Mr. Eakin will continue his affiliation with the Salem branch office, and will represent the Security Savings and Trust company in the management of the trust department of Salem.

Announcement of Eakin's promotion was made by Blaine B. Coles, executive vice-president of the Security Savings and Trust company, following the annual meeting of the stockholders and board of directors of that institution held January 11. No other changes were made in the officers of board of directors. Present directors are C. F. Adams, E. B. MacNaughton, Blaine B. Coles, R. G. Jubitz and Burt Brown Barker. Officers are C. F. Adams, chairman; E. B. MacNaughton, president; Blaine B. Coles, executive vice-president; Carlos C. Close, vice-president; R. G. Jubitz, secretary, and assistant secretaries, C. L. Minahan, W. F. Bushell, M. A. Taylor, Charles F. Rellly and H. E. Eakin.

Under the recently passed Oregon trust law the trust department of the Salem branch of the First National bank becomes a branch office of the Security Savings and Trust company. The trust business was taken over by the First National Bank of Portland when it purchased the assets of the First National bank in Salem, and established a branch office here last fall.

"Passing of the recent trust legislation makes it possible to return all servicing of these Salem trusts to Salem," stated E. B. MacNaughton, president of the First National Bank of Portland and of the Security Savings and Trust company. "Until the passing of this legislation the Salem trust department was managed from the head office of the First National Bank of Portland. Now all servicing of these trusts, the purchase of investments and of insurance, and the sale of real and personal properties will be handled in Salem through Salem agents or brokers. The investment policy and recommendation for the servicing of these trusts will, however, continue to be dictated by the investment committee of the Security Savings and Trust company from its head office in Portland, thus giving our Salem trust customers the advantage of the same service rendered all trust customers of this institution."

Ask Offices of Milk Board Here

A request that the central office of the Oregon milk commission be located in Salem, was voiced yesterday by Max Gehlhar, director of agriculture. Gehlhar pointed out that thus far the commission has confined its meetings to Portland with some short meetings being held in upstate cities. The department of agriculture is charged with assisting the milk commission and believes its services could best be utilized if the milk commission was located at the capital.

DEBT ADJUSTMENT GROUPS SELECTED

With Five From Each County Serving to Aid Farmer in Problems

With a purpose of bringing about voluntary farm debt adjustments permitting worthy debtors to avoid foreclosure, Governor Meier Thursday appointed a statewide committee, five from each county, to serve this year on county farm debt adjustment committees.

The appointments, recommended by the Oregon agricultural advisory council, were made at the request of the federal farm credit administration. These groups will work under six district chairmen, with O. M. Plummer of Portland, named as general state chairman. In requesting such a set-up in the state the federal farm credit administration pointed out that it was clearly the intention of congress that the FCA should not be used merely to transfer the obligations of a farmer from other creditors to itself, but to make possible a scale down of debt where necessary in order that the farmer might ultimately work out of his financial difficulties. In accordance with the law and the intent of congress, the law banks require that all of the debts of the farmer be compromised with the amount that can be loaned so that he may have a reasonable opportunity to pay off his obligations.

District No. 2, headed by George W. Potts of Jefferson, includes Marion, Linn, Lane, Benton, Polk and Lincoln counties. Marion county — Howard F.

Butterfield, Woodburn; M. G. Gunderson, Silverton; W. A. Heaster, Sublimity; Ray J. Glat, Woodburn; Erastus Werner, Silverton; Edna county — C. P. Kiser, Harrisburg; R. A. Hulbert, Albany; John Shepherd, Seio; C. R. Evans, Halsey; H. F. Warren, Albany.

Polk county — S. L. Stewart, Rickwood; George A. Woods, Dallas; Glenn Hoag, Salem; H. N. Dickinson, Independence; R. R. Imbler, Dallas.

Yamhill county — Alec Cruickshank, McMinnville; Otto Sifton, Carlton; Sam Parrott, Newberg; Fred Beagles, Newberg; John Duerst, McMinnville.

Clarence Lewis Dies in South; Mother is Here

Clarence E. Lewis, former resident of Salem, died January 10 in Los Angeles, according to word received here yesterday. His mother, Mrs. Lizzie Smith of Salem; his wife, Mary Lewis of Los Angeles; and a sister, Mrs. Linnie L. Brock of Portland, survive him.

Born May 29, 1871, in the Waldo Hills, he was a grandson of Reuben Lewis, a member of the Champeong convention. Mr. Lewis up to the time of his death retained his membership in the Salem Elks lodge.
