Public Service of tation is now $4.40 a hundred, a New Jersey, Standard Gas, Pacific Gas, Pacific Lighting and American Water Works rallied 1 to 1 1/2 and Peoples Gas added more than 4. A number of the Utility Preferreds also turned strong. For rails gains ran to fractions, with Santa Fe and Pennsylvania lifting almost a full point net.

Maximum advances for U. S. government loans were rather substantial. Trading in them diminished noticeably and the day's performance was heartening to those who had watched the recent decline.

Decree in Price Case Leaves No Divorce at All

The case of Lyllis F. Price against Oscar E. Price in suit for divorce was awarded to the defendant, O. E. Price, by Circuit 194c pound. Judge Lewelling Thursday. By the decision no divorce is granted as the plaintiff asked for a decree and the defendant did not. The plaintiff was allowed an additional $100 in attorney's fees by the court, having been granted $100 prior to the opening of the trial. Several days were given over to the hearing of testimony, given principally by the plaintiff and defendant.

Observers of the squirrels in Willson park declare they are taking full advantage of the open winter season. When given nuts they first examine the gifts to see if the shell is cracked. If not, the squirrels immediately bury the donations, having thus far been able to keep well fed without tapping their "surplus." If the nuts are cracked, the squirrels eat them and charge "current expense," one squirrel feeder said
