

EDUCATIONAL HIKE FOR SCOUTS 13TH

KEIZER, Jan. 11.—The Boy Scout Troop 7 of Keizer and Scoutmaster Wilson are planning an educational hike Saturday, leaving the schoolhouse at 9 o'clock. They will visit the Pacific Telephone company, Willamette university, Kay Woolen mill, Dr. Thompson's x-ray laboratory, the Hendrie clinical laboratories, Capitol theatre, Marion creamery, Marion hotel and Oregon Pulp & Paper company.

At the noon hour they will meet in the dining room at the First M. E. church where luncheon will be served in charge of Mrs. Minturn who will be assisted by Mrs. Harvey Hansen, Mrs. Martin Miller, Harriett Minturn and Mrs. G. N. Thompson. In the afternoon troop 7 and troop 15 will play basketball at the Wilmette gym, and afterward the Keizer troop will enjoy swimming at the Y.

Three new members have been added to the roll of troop 7, Indian boys from Chemawa, William Blakeslee, Donald McCray and Milan Smith.

Muffin Makers 4-H Club Composed of 15 Boys at Turner

TURNER, Jan. 11.—The Busy Five clothing 4-H club recently made plans for the remainder of the club year. The first project is being worked out and a demonstration will be put on at each meeting. Ruth Bones and Wilma Larson led the day's project in making hems. L. Verna Whitehead, leader, gave an interesting report of her two weeks spent at the 4-H summer school at O. S. C. last summer.

The Masculine Muffin Makers 4-H club boys, a membership of 15, Keith Ball is president. The leader, D. B. Parks has the work well arranged and gave plans at the initial meeting for the remainder of the year. An out door-meal will be prepared by the boys soon and later a fire hole menu will be worked out.

Long Vacation is Cause Postponing Of Students' Play

MOLALLA, Jan. 11.—Practice started this week on the high school student body play "The Clay's Thing," a three-act farce, with Mrs. Catherine O'Connor directing. The play was to have been presented February 2, but since the prolonged vacation the date of the play will be decided upon later. In the play are Violet Marts, Hazel Bracken, Oakley Glenn, Vincent Erickson, Donald Dapp, Marguerite Miles, Margaret Itchner, Robert Heth, Ralph Kapler, Virginia Shaver and Elwin Sargent.

The Civic club meeting scheduled for January 11 has been postponed to January 18 at the home of Mrs. C. L. Ireland. The regular meeting would have been at the same hour as the funeral services for Leo Shaver.

INCREASE MINE WORK
SCIO, Jan. 11.—Operations at the Crown mine in the Elk-horn district on the Little North Fork of the Santiam river are reported being increased this week, with the addition to the crew of Lester and Byron Bilyeu of Scio, and Mr. Chilcote and others of the Lebanon region. R. E. Perry of Scio, manager of the mine, is with the workers for a time.
