

Riotous Hoop Game Won by Wolves, 32 to 24, Over W. U.

COLUMBIA FIVE COMES TONIGHT

Keene's Giants Make Game Lively But Can't Find Hoop, Fall Behind

Thrills and spills which definitely put professional wrestling in the rear rank, featured the basketball game Friday night on the Willamette floor in which the Oregon Normal school Wolves, by a score of 32 to 24, defeated Willamette for the first time in a number of years.

It was a splintered encounter all the way and while there was barely enough basketball so the fans were able to recognize what the game was supposed to be, the exhibition was a new high mark for sheer entertainment.

Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette sent onto the floor at the outset a team in which six-foot-one Jim Burdett was the dwarf; the big boys hit a fast pace, storming up and down the floor and keeping possession of the ball most of the time, but they couldn't drop it through the hoop. The Wolves made good use of such opportunities as they had, and led at half time, 17 to 6.

Starting the second half Keene switched to the combination that he had used in previous games, and these boys more than held their own; they cut the Wolves' lead down to five points at one time but after that the attack faltered; at the end Keene who had started with giants, sent in a couple of pint-sized fellows and one of them, Ben Hagemann, furnished the final thrill by sinking a long shot after the gun had sounded to end the game.

Few rougher games have ever been seen in Salem, but that was not the fault of Howard Maple, who as referee called plenty of fouls. Most of the rough stuff was perpetrated behind his back and the contest was a demonstration of the utter futility of one official trying to control a game when there are personal feelings between the players, or, as was more exactly the situation in this case, they knew each other too well.

Herb Ystad, the big star of a state tournament here several years ago, shone brightly for the Wolves, along with "Doc" Allen, ex-Bearcat, Jim Burdett led the Bearcats in scoring while Hartley and Frantz put up a brilliant defensive game in the second half.

The Bearcats will play Columbia university tonight on the Willamette floor at 8 o'clock. It is probable that there will be a preliminary but the participants have not been announced.

DEBATE TRYOUTS AT HIGH SCHOOL SLATED

Tryouts for this season's debate team at Salem high school are scheduled for Monday, with the English system of radio control as the question to be argued. While no requirement as to previous experience has been made, Shannon Hogue, debate coach, said yesterday that selections will probably be made entirely from the 20 or more students who have participated in the interclass debates under way at the high school during the last two weeks since members of the class teams have the advantage of training and a study of the subject.

Eight debaters will be included in the squad of 15 forensic artists Hogue plans to take to Minerville the first week end in February for the invitational tournament sponsored by Linfield college. Tryouts for representatives in oratory, declamation and extemporaneous speaking will be held in two weeks.

The radio control question is in use throughout this district will be used at the Linfield tournament where speakers from approximately 25 high schools will compete.

ITALIANS DOMINATE THE RING TODAY--CARNERA, V. DUNDEE, CANZONERI, SHUCCO, LOCATELLI, PERRONI, MASSERA, TERRY AND FULLER ARE A FEW OF THE "WALLOPING WOPPS?"

PRIMO CARNERA'S rise to the heavyweight throne marked the first time that an Italian had reached the top-most goal of Fistic. Italian fighters have figured prominently in ring activities for the past thirty years or so, but now the fistic sons of sunny Italy seem to have definitely displaced the so-called fighting Irish as the racial rulers in the knucklet-throwing racket.

Lott, Grant Reach Miami Meet Finals

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Forcing their opponents to defeat themselves by masterful strategy, George M. Lott Jr., of Chicago, defending champion, and Bryan M. Grant Jr., of Atlanta, today battled to the finals in the Miami Biltmore tennis championships.

Frank X. Shields of New York, the United States number 1 player, lost to Grant 6-3, 2-6, 6-1, 6-4, principally because of errors which the crafty Atlantian, thoroughly at home on the clay court, forced the New Yorker to make.

THRILLER IS WON BY VALLEY MOTOR

The Valley Motor V-8 basketball team, and particularly Ray Griffith, ex-Bearcat, furnished an unscheduled thrill for the crowd which attended the Willamette-Oregon Normal game in the Willamette gym Friday night. No preliminary had been definitely announced but when the crowd gathered it found one going on, and right at the end it turned into an exciting one.

SALEM QUINTET GOES TO COAST

Tillamook Expected to Give Red and Black Plenty Of Competition

Salem high school's basketball team will travel today to Tillamook where it will meet its old rival Tillamook High tonight. The Cheesemakers have always given Salem high considerable trouble in season play, but they have not encountered each other in the state tournament for several years though both are nearly always entered.

Last year Tillamook was one of the few teams to defeat Salem high on its own floor. At that time Coach Russ Raley had two big men on his team, Vagt and Burkard, who had large parts in making it a tough opponent for any high school quintet. They are gone, but Raley still has little Baumgartner, flashy performer who scored most of Tillamook's points last year. In one game this season, Tillamook made 23 points off a Baumgartner scored 20 of them.

Hediger, who gave Salem high extensive trouble on the gridiron last fall, is also an experienced hooper. Aside from these two men, no information about Tillamook's 1934 squad has penetrated to Salem.

Coach Hollis Huntington of Salem high will probably start the five men who played nearly all of the game with the freshmen early this week; Wintermute, Roth, Peters, DeJardin and Engel. The Salem high team is handicapped for lack of forward reserves at present, Salstrom being on the shelf with a renewal of the hip injury he suffered in football.

Tonight's game marks the opening of the busy competitive season for Salem high, with at least two games nearly every week from now until state tournament time. The schedule as it stands at present is:

- Jan. 13—At Tillamook.
- Jan. 16—Albany here.
- Jan. 18—S. C. Rocks here.
- Jan. 23—Open.
- Jan. 26—At Silverton.
- Jan. 30—Eugene here.
- Feb. 1—Corvallis here.
- Feb. 3—At Astoria.
- Feb. 6—Chenawa here.
- Feb. 9—Rooks at Corvallis.
- Feb. 12—Open.
- Feb. 16—At Corvallis.
- Feb. 17—Willamette Fresh.
- Feb. 20—At Albany.
- Feb. 24—Tillamook here.
- Feb. 27—At Chenawa.
- March 2—Silverton here.
- March 3—Astoria here.
- March 9—Eugene here.

CURT COMMENTS

When the Irish of Columbia university play on Willamette's basketball court tonight, it is safe to presume that a lot of fans will take particular notice of Murel Nehl, who performs niftily in a guard position. Nehl was loudly hailed as an All-American, candidate last fall while playing halfback for Columbia and while he didn't make much of a raffle in that direction, he did get the call to play in the Shrine game, a selection of a most practical nature and one which many of the boys prize more highly. All-Americans may be picked on publicity and for political purposes, but when they ask a college senior to play at San Francisco, it's his ability that prompts the invitation.

Nehl was a thorn in the Bearcat flesh last fall, running 60 yards or so on a punt return for a touchdown; yet from scrimmage he didn't get much of anywhere, that being, as we have pointed out previously, not particularly an individual matter but one of blocking on the part of others.

Other "Irish" who will appear here tonight include Ross, Leinweber, Ciskol, Manion, Zengies and Harmon—names suggesting that Columbia's Irish are just as fresh from the "mid sod" as those of St. Mary's and Notre Dame. It's all right, Father Keenan, you may not know what country they came from either, but you know where they attend church.

After this game the Bearcats will know a lot more than they do now about their prospects in the Northwest conference this season. Pacific, hailed for the last two years as the outfit to beat and presumably better than ever for all the veterans are still there, nosed out Columbia by only two points the other night, but the Bearcats can beat this outfit they're good enough to be in the race, at least.

SILVERTON BEATS WEST LINN 51-18

SILVERTON, Jan. 12.—Silverton high school took two basketball games from West Linn here tonight, the A team winning 51-18 and the B team 26-6. Schwab, forward, led in scoring with 18 points, and his teammate Scott had 16.

Silverton started with a rush, running up 12 points before the visitors hit the basket, and led 23-6 at half time. Scott dominated the scoring in the first half as Schwab was outstanding in the second. Hoblitt, substituting for Pettyjohn, out with a bad ankle, did some nice work at center.

The Silver Foxes will journey to Lebanon Tuesday night and to Newberg Friday. A good crowd witnessed tonight's tangle, and enjoyed at intervals the music of the Silverton high school band.

DUTRA ELIMINATED IN TOURNAY UPSET

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—(AP)—While the medalist, Johnny Rogers of Denver, still set the pace through other favorites toppled in quick succession, survivors worked through first and second rounds today in the San Francisco national match play open golf championship.

The long hitting Denver pro added two victims to his list in brilliant fashion. He swamped Cliff Groven of Tacoma, Wash., 8-6, in the morning round and put out Jimmy Hines, Great River, Long Island, 5-4, in the second match.

Four up at the ninth of the afternoon 18, after a weak 18, three over par, to Hines' poor 4. Rogers hit his stride again on the incoming stretch to chalk birdies on four holes and finish one under par.

In the list of amazing upsets that followed in the trail of the par snatcher, the greatest one saw Cliff Dutra of Santa Monica, former Professional Golfers' association champion, tumbled into a second round defeat before the slightly superior stroking of a newcomer to the pro ranks, Oliver Steppy of Long Beach, Cal.
