

LOAN ASSOCIATION DIRECTORS CHOSEN

SHELBURN, Jan. 13.—At the annual meeting of the Forks of the Santiam Farm Loan association held at the home of the secretary, W. H. McLain, the following directors were elected:

George Miller, F. M. Irving, Ira Serfling, G. C. Rohwein and W. Blakely.

The directors of school district No. 71 held a meeting Tuesday night. A number of teachers have in applications for the school for next year but no definite action was taken in the matter.

Charles Lettler has Oral Bates, Art Baker and Dick Wyman employed in clearing fence rows and otherwise improving his farm.

A capacity crowd is nightly hearing the well delivered sermons by Rev. Ross at the Baptist church.

Mrs. Barton Sledge and infant son Harold Wayne, who have been cared for at the Charles Boles' home for the last two weeks have returned to their home.

Mrs. J. M. Vaughn of North Platte, Neb., has arrived in Oregon and is visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Charles Quarry of Shelburn and Mrs. Logan of the Mt. Pleasant community.

Mrs. Mary Caswell who is employed by Mrs. Cuthorn, Shelburn teacher, spent the week end with her daughter Mrs. Lester Ellis of Aumsville.

Matron at Scio To be Buried Today

SCIO, Jan. 13.—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Shimanek, 66, who died at her home here Thursday following a prolonged illness, will be held at the Christian church in Scio at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The Rev. E. W. Ralston, pastor of the church, will officiate. Interment will be in Franklin Butte cemetery near this city just two years following the death of Mrs. Shimanek's husband. The five sons and four daughters of the deceased are expected to attend the last rites. All are residents of Oregon except two sons and one daughter, who reside in California. The Shimaneks resided on a farm a few miles east of Scio for more than 30 years and most of the children were born and reared there.

New Families Locate at Liberty

LIBERTY, Jan. 13.—New families recently arrived in the community include Mr. and Mrs. William Cone from Utah. They have two girls who entered school here. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Weaver from Seattle have settled on the old Weaver place.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Thomas of South Dakota are living on the Will Neuens place. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thompson who have lived a short time on the DeMarce farm have rented the Shattuck place and will move there.

Friends here of Mrs. Bruce Cunningham are sorry to hear of her illness. She is suffering from heart trouble.

THE fact that we move with care saves you a lot of care and worry too. We take your moving troubles away from you entirely and our shoulders and motor vans bear the burden.

County Supt. Talks At Gervais P. T. A.

Gervais, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools, was the speaker at the Parent-Teacher association meeting Monday night. Mrs. Fulkerson's talk gave the association many suggestions to work from and told some interesting things about what other associations are doing. Miss Marguerite Estadillo, primary teacher in the Parkers-ville school, opened the program with a piano solo. A pot luck supper preceded the meeting. Plans were started some time ago for a benefit play to be given by the Parent-Teacher association, proceeds to go to a fund for the stage settings in the auditorium. The play, "A Friend of the Family" has been selected and rehearsals begun. The exact date has not been set but it will probably be the second week in February. Frank Cannard is coach-

RELIEF CORPS HAS FORMAL CEREMONY

WOODBURN, Jan. 13.—I. I. Stevens Relief Corps, No. 31, held their installation ceremonies Thursday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall with Mrs. Hilda McEchran, state president, as installing officer. She was assisted by Mrs. Earl Hartness as conductor, Mrs. Grace Bussard as guard and Mrs. Gertrude Beach as musician. Officers installed were: Mrs. Emma Tyson, president; Miss Mary Hershberger, senior vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth Hanlon, junior vice president; Mrs. Laura Livesay, secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Wohlhuter, treasurer; Mrs. Alice Guyer, chaplain; Mrs. Ida Harper, conductor; Mrs. Mabel Wright, assistant conductor; Mrs. Mary Bauman, guard;

Miss Mabel Jackson, assistant guard; Mrs. Martha Faulconer, Mrs. Nora Broyles, Mrs. John Gatt and Mrs. Mae Otjen, color bearers; Mrs. Gertrude Beach, musician, and Mrs. Emma Otjen, press correspondent. Out of town visitors were Mrs. McEchren, state president; Mrs. Grace Bussard, junior department vice president; Mrs. Earl Hartness, department secretary, and Mrs. Bartness, all of Portland; Mrs. Sophie L. Norgard, Frances Gurley, Josephine Hartman, Ella

Usher and Inez Olson, all from Silverton. A pot luck dinner was served at noon and a short program enjoyed preceding the installation.

BACK TO PUEBLO

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Jan. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Terry Ryan, after a visit with Mrs. Ryan's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edgar, have returned to their home at Pueblo, Colorado. En route they visited other relatives in Portland.

QUILTING ENJOYED
STAYTON, Jan. 13.—On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Ellen Reynolds invited in a group of friends to spend the afternoon at her apartment quilting. They were Mesdames W. A. Riggs, Grant Murphy, H. A. Beauchamp, F. Lesley, Edna Sloper, H. Champ, C. Booker, V. A. Tuel and W. A. Ingalls. In turn they surprised her by bringing a pot luck supper and they not only spent the afternoon quilting, but the evening as well, and all report a wonderful time.
