Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Here's a frock that is smart under a coat, but smarter yet for street wear later in the season when weather permits. You can tell at a glance it was Paris-inspired—the center-front button closing and chic scarf are ingenious details. Note, too, how the paneled seamings help create the coveted slim silhouette. The new sheer wools, heavy crepes, or novelty weave cottons would make up smartly with the scarf of contrasting ribbed silk or satin. Achieving that tailored look is easy, if you follow the instructor given with the pattern.

Pattern 1683 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 5 yards binding.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for the Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address, style number and size of each pattern ordered.

The new spring, 1934 edition of the Anne Adams pattern magazine is ready. All the best spring styles for adults and children in an interesting, helpful book. Send for your copy and be chic this spring. Price of magazine, 15 cents. Magazine and pattern together, 25 cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem. Make necessary customer's card and order promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within five days from the time received by The Statesman.

To Our Salem Friends:

It is with a great deal of pleasure and anticipation that the 80 business and professional men constituting the Eugene Gleemen are returning to your city on January 19th to again bring greetings and good will to your citizens from the people of Eugene, and the present to you an evening of song.

We have been organized for the past seven years for the sole purpose of rendering community service and extending good will to our neighbors. We are not organized for profit but wish to aid worthy charitable and other organizations wherever we have an opportunity.

In the last analysis we sing because we love to sing and each and every member of our club is looking forward with great pleasure to an enjoyable evening with you on next Friday night. (Signed) Dr. Charles E. Hunt, President.

Ask CWA Approval On City Hall Work

Application for the first part of the proposed city hall CWA remodeling project, the preparation of plans and estimates, will be filed with the Marion county CWA board today, according to E. C. Bushnell, city building inspector, who with Mayor Douglas McKay, Aldermen Paul Hendricks, S. A. Hughes and V. E. Kuhn will select an architect for the job. The architectural fee is estimated at $1000.

Filing of this application, in place of immediately hiring an architect, is necessitated by a new CWA ruling which denies funds for draughting plans when such work is done before its expense is allotted by CWA authorities. The city committee was informed of the situation when it conferred yesterday with Chairman J. N. Chambers and County Commissioner M. E. Olson of the local CWA board.

SIX CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY AGENT

Members of the Marion county court had not been advised of the exact date when a further conference on the matter of a temporary county agent here would be discussed with County Agent Leader Ballard and W. L. Teutsch, his assistant, both of the state college. A visit from the two men was expected some day this week.

Six candidates are under consideration for the job. Funds would be furnished by the wheat, hog and dairy control production committees, the federal government, and perhaps a portion by the state college and by the federal government from funds other than those of AAA work.

Men who have filed formal applications include W. H. Baillie, J. O. O'Reilly, Eddie Ahrens, Luther J. Chapin and P. W. Geiser. Earl Peary is also understood to be an applicant although his formal request for the job is not yet in the hands of the court.

Baillie was formerly head of the boys' training school at Woodburn and prior to that in charge of 4-H club work here. O'Reilly last year had charge of the garden relief project in the county. P. H. Geiser was formerly head of the Cherry City Milling company in this city. Chapin once served as county agent in this territory and is now a bulb grower in the Keizer Bottom district. Peary is a prune grower and buyer and a distributor of trees and shrubs.
