PRIMO ARRIVES, IS IN TRAINING

Genoa Goliath to Defend Title From Tommy Loughran On February 22

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—(AP)—One over-sized shipment of heavy-weight champion—Primo Carnes—was deposited upon New York's shores today as the fistic cauldron sizzled and bubbled in expectation of an old-fashioned revival.

"Ho ho," roared the Genoa Goliath as he stomped down the gangplank of an Italian liner. "I foex the Tommy Loughran quick. I knock him out ten rounds sure."

Thus did the grinning champion bare his walrus tusks and get to the very heart of the opening business of the day. He fights Loughran 15 rounds in Miami, Fla., February 22. Tomorrow he plans to start training his 272 pounds of bulk down to a modest 258 or thereabouts.

He was full of ginger, optimism and lack of respect for Loughran, whom he said he had seen fight three times and still couldn't see as a dangerous heavyweight. He developed other minor troubles early to add to bankruptcy court complications that await him.

His large American automobile, which accompanies him on his trans-Atlantic voyages, was with-

OSC ROOKS PLAY SALEM TONIGHT

Collegians Offer Threat to Red and Black Squad

The Salem high school basketball team seems destined to bump up against defeat for the first time this season when it plays the Rooks of Oregon State college tonight in the Salem high gym. Termination of the red and black's series of victories has, however, been forecast before and has not come to pass, and the Rooks may fall victim to their marksmanship as have other highly touted teams.

The Rooks are more or less a dark horse outfit, with only two players who appeared in the state tournament here last and those two from Corvallis high, Torgerson and Ruzek; names of some of the others sound familiar; one or two have played in past tournaments and then, presumably, stayed out of school a year or so.

The Rooks' lineup in recent games has been Torgerson and Hoover forwards, Kibbe center, Deming and Tuttle guards with Ruzek and Kappel getting first call as reserves. Tuttle was high point man against Albany college.

Salem high tonight will be more nearly at full strength than in

SILVERTON HIGH IN WINNING STREAK

With third decisive winning added to Silvertown high school basketball scores at Lebanon game Tuesday night, Silvertown will go to Newberg Friday night with a determination to make it the fourth winning of the season. To date, Silvertown has no losses, with winnings over Woodburn, West Linn and Lebanon to her credit.

There are seven more games to be played at home. These are Tillamook, Salem, Newberg, Lebanon, Woodburn, Chemawa and Milatia.

Two games recently added to the schedule are those with Tillamook, the home game falling on March 10, and the game to be played there, on February 24.

KANSAS GOLFER WINS, 62 CARD

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Shooting one of the greatest competitive rounds in the history of the ancient and honorable game of golf, Harold McSpaden of the Quivera Lake Golf Club, Kansas City, Kans., turned in a 62 individual card today to win the Santa Monica amateur pro championship.

McSpaden's amazing score for the 6151 yard clover field municipal course, plus the contribution of a stroke by his amateur partner, Don Erickson, Los Angeles public links player, gave them a 61 to win the title, 10 strokes better than par. Victory gave to McSpaden $200.

After his remarkable round, the 25-year-old Jayhawker won the driving contest, an additional feature of the tournament, to pick up $40 more prize money.

His best individual drive was 301 yards and his average for three balls was 278 yards, 1 foot, 8 inches.

MONMOUTH AGAIN DEFEATS AMITY 5

MONMOUTH, Jan. 17.—Monmouth high school's quintet defeated Amity high here last night 28-8 in a close, hard battle despite the uneven score. Monmouth led off with two field goals and a free throw. Duchien scored the only counter for Amity in the first quarter. In the second quarter Monmouth scored three points about one-half minute before end of the half when Reed, Amity's tall center, looped a nice basket. In the second half Wilson and R. Snider sank two counters each for Monmouth, ending scoring for third quarter, and advancing Monmouth's lead by 8 points, while Amity was checked. The final quarter featured a close checking contest, Monmouth securing only three points while Amity annexed two. The Amity boys used a guarded, watchful checking system, but Monmouth's strong five-man defense forced the visitors to resort to long-range shooting which kept them off the score-board, while Monmouth had connected with some long shots and took advantage of repeated quick breaks under the basket. Wilson of Monmouth was high pointer with 10.
