

NEWPORT ERECTING NEW DETROIT STORE

Cub Bear, Caught in Trap, is Curiosity for Visitors in Town

DETROIT, Jan. 17.—Construction of a new large frame store building for Roy Newport is well under way, with the frame and siding up. The new building, erected at the side of the old store, will be a combination general merchandise and confectionery enterprise. The old store will be converted into a service station and garage.

A cub bear in a cage at the Moore home here continues to attract attention. The cub was caught in a trap set by Keith Moore and was brought to town alive. The trap was located about two miles from town. Trappers here are experiencing a pretty good winter. Airlie Dickie recently got a mink and a good-sized coyote.

GRANGERS' COLUMN

DAYTON, Jan. 17.—A large crowd attended the social night of the Webfoot grange held at the Webfoot hall Saturday. A group of comic readings was given by J. W. Lorett and Mrs. Theodora Magness and a song by Verda Magness, all of Dayton. The remainder of the interesting program was by local members. Refreshments were served followed by games and dancing.

KINGS VALLEY, Jan. 17.—Officers of Kings Valley grange were installed at an open meeting Friday night with State Deputy Arthur Brown from Salem acting as installing officer assisted by State Juvenile Matron Charlotte Blake of Corvallis, Worthy Master Ed Blake of Mountain View grange, Mrs. Ida Lock, home economics chairman of Mountain View grange, and Mrs. Reta Chambers of the local grange. Ed Hosmer and the Misses Doris Corbin, Ione Plunkett and Dorothy Blackwell formed the assisting quartet.

A program was arranged by the lecturer, Mrs. C. L. Bump. The Rifler community orchestra, consisting of Charles Kerber, Pete Peterson, Charlie Rhodes, Glen Fritz, Clel and Neva Kerber and Wilson Bump entertained with old time music. Dorothy Blackwell played a violin solo assisted at the organ by Miss Corbin. Mr. Brady, principal of the local high school, spoke in favor of the sales tax, and Mr. Brown of Salem, spoke against it. Polk County Pomona Master Glen Adams of Brush College grange, was a visitor. Walter Lock, past master of Mountain View grange, was also a visitor.

RICKREALL, Jan. 17.—The first session of the new year was held by local grange Friday night. Mr. Gillette of Monmouth, spoke to the group upon law enforcement. Mr. Gillette is a candidate for district attorney. Elmer Cook of West Salem, another candidate for the same Polk county office was also present.

After the meeting was opened officers who had not been installed were duly installed by F. E. Pence, assisted by Addie Beaver, acting lady assistant; these were assistant steward, Loren Wilson; Crees, Alice Wilson, and treasurer, W. W. Rowell. Floyd Larkin and Arthur Riney were candidates and were initiated into the first and second degrees at Monmouth Saturday. A letter was read from Grand Master Ray Gill stating that while the state grange opposed the sales tax the individual members should vote according to his own belief. The Rickreall grange went on record early last year as opposing this tax.
