Eugene Gleemen Concert to Be At 8 P. M.

THE Eugene Gleemen with 80 trained male voices will appear in concert at the Salem armory tonight at 8 o'clock under the sponsorship of the service clubs of Salem. Proceeds from the concert will be given to the Boy Scout council of the Cascade area.

John Stark Evans, of the University of Oregon school of music, will direct the Gleemen who will be supported by a group of soloists who have helped to make many previous Gleemen performances memorable. They are Geo. Bishop, baritone, and Don Eva, tenor. Miss Cora Moore is the Gleemen accompanist.

A. A. U. W. Meets Saturday for Luncheon

THE first meeting in 1934 for the A. A. U. W. of Salem promises to be an exceptionally interesting one. The group will gather for luncheon at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the banquet hall of the Masonic temple.

C. B. McCullough, engineer with the state highway department, will talk on the "Romance of Oregon Bridges." Those who have heard Mr. McCullough speak pronounce him well versed in his subject and a versatile speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robertson will sing a group of duets accompanied by Miss Frances Virginia Melton. Reservations for the luncheon should be made by calling 7206 by Friday night.

An important meeting of all Girl Reserve committee members and advisors is called for this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Percy Kelly, 768 State street. Mrs. Floyd Miller will preside.

Mrs. D. B. Hill will give a report on the survey recently completed of G. R. groups in high schools and junior high throughout the United States, giving the findings of the extent to which the Y. W. C. A. fits into girls' activities.

Mrs. Roy Lockenour will lead the devotionals.
