BOSTON, Jan. 19. - (AP) - The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "There has been rather more business in wool over the past week or 10 days, although it has not reached large proportions. A little business in tops and yarns, fruit. consequent upon the award of government contracts, was given out last week but coverage against this business has tapered off again,

"Prices keep generally firm, although evidence of this score is somewhat contradictory. "There is still a great deal of congestion in manufactured and partly manufactured goods,, al-Other markets remained steady. though shipping orders on yarns and tops are said to be a very little better. "Mohair is in semi - occasional request at steady rates."

NEW YORK, Jan. 19. - (P) Markets tapped fresh supplies of power today and prices advanced on most fronts.

On the stock exchange, shares and bonds had rather spirited rallies, while the various commodity exchanges returned generally higher quotations. For securities the rise was bread, accompanied by sizeable volume, and recent tendencies toward selectivity were less noticeable. Net gains for a number of leaders ranged from 1 to around 3 points. Improvement was broad,

FBUITS AND VEGETABLES a liberal movement which was cleaning current arrivals. Price shading was reported as almost general inasmuch as retail sales were as low or lower than what was being quoted at wholesale.

About 30 carloads of onions that passed through a big fire, destroying a big warehouse at Brooks, were reported sold to a Portland broker for $600 in all. Most operators refused to bid as they consider smoked onions as almost useless. Lack of change in the onion price at the source was reported here, in fact there was little business suggested. Orders from the east have entirely ceased accord-

PORTLAND, Jan. 19-(AP)-Trad-ing in butter here was held unchanged for the day despite the weakening of the California markets and the loss at San Francisco.

Erratic trade tone was shown

ing to trade leaders. Market here was overloaded with spinach. Walla Walla was sending it by the carload after the local trade was unable to buy and purchased liberally in California and Texas. Local stuff was meeting with the best call.

MIDDLE GROVE, Jan. 19 .-The Christian Endeavor meeting at the home of Mildred Wacken chose these officers: President. Genevieve Scharf; vice-president. Earl Hammer; secretary, Ellen Smith; treasurer, Edwin Hughey: pianist, Lola Hammer, The next meeting will be at the home of Lola Hammer.

The Sarah Oliver Union of W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Lena Bartruff Tuesday. The president, Mrs. Marjory Looner, pre-sided and led the devotions. She spoke of the 60th anniversary of W.C.T.U. to be celebrated in 1934. Also of the fact that only about one-fourth of the 68.000.000 legal voters used the privilege to vote at the last election. Two readings, "Prayer, the Foundation Then as Now" and "A Challenge to Youth" were given by the secretary.
