

OUTSIDE TALENT IS SLATED ON FEB. 16

WALDO HILLS, Jan. 22.—The Happy Hour club of the Evergreen district held its regular meeting Friday night. President Elwin Knapp presided. It was decided to have outside talent for the next meeting, February 16, and to make a nominal charge. Money taken in at that time will go for Red Cross supplies. Mr. Knapp has just completed the course in first aid given by the school nurse, Mrs. Irma La Riche.

The program Friday night was arranged by Mrs. Harold Rupp and Mrs. Otto Dickman and consisted of quartet numbers by the four Norsemen; skit by Olive Joy and Junior Rupp; music by the Evergreen orchestra; music, Elwin Knapp and Bob Nealy and piano duets by Marjorie and Florence McLaughlin.

Although three horses were killed, Walter Pound suffered no particular injury in the head on collision in which the figured Thursday night. Contrary to earlier report Mr. Pound is living on the A. A. Geer farm which he leased a year ago and the horses belonged to Mr. Geer. Mr. Pound was on his way home from the field and was on the Garden road. He had reached the bridge just west of his home when a heavily loaded wood truck traveling west down the hill and said by witnesses to have been on the wrong side of the road crashed into the horses and farm wagon.
