President's Ball is To Be Brilliant Event

Excitement and anticipation reign in all social circles these days with everyone discussing the President's Birthday ball, Salem's most brilliant social event of the winter season.

Resplendent in its newly finished walls and floor will be the armory on next Tuesday night, January 30, with flood lights, draperies and palms to lend the final touch. Smartly dressed couples will dance to the excellent music of Cole McElroy and his orchestra while those who do not care to dance look on from the balcony.

J. T. Delaney, music chairman, and his committee of E. M. Page and Mrs. Clifton Mudd have worked overtime in the last two weeks to secure one of the finest orchestras in the state in addition to Kenneth Allen, tenor soloist, and Mary Schultz, violinist. Other features at intermission are promised.

Patrons for the ball are laying plans for a large no host dinner to precede the affair and many similar small parties are being arranged. Anyone who has not received an announcement for the ball and who wishes to either go or make a contribution toward the Warm Springs foundation fund may do so at any of the three book stores or the book department of Miller's.

The purpose of this party for the president is a very simple and humane one.

It is to establish through the direct help of the citizens of the country an endowment fund for the Georgia Warm Springs foundation, created in 1926 by President Roosevelt, so that this foundation may carry on its national crusade against infantile paralysis, and devote unselfishly its full energy and thought to the coordination of the fight against a scourge which physically handicaps, every year, thousands of American children.

Furthermore, the success of this country-wide party, sponsored by the citizens of the United States, will be a growing testimony to a man who has waged and won a hard personal fight against what might have been accepted as a lasting hardship.

Town and Gown Club Meets Today

The Town and Gown club will meet this afternoon in Lausanne hall at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Otto Paulus will read two short plays by Thornton Wilder and the "First Lesson in Acting" by Helen Lavsky.

Hostesses are Mrs. C. H. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Schulze, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
School girls will like this frock—straight from the shoulder! Just notice the many possibilities offered by the drop shoulder line. Perky puffs may be joined to it, and a captivating frill that finds its way across the back, too, to accent the smart yoke. Either frill or sleeves may be omitted as sketched in the small views. You can use the pattern several times, making one frock of printed cotton and another in silk or crepe. The smart front panel, the collar high under the chin, the semi-belted effect are details young girls revel in.

Pattern 1752 is available in sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 10 takes 2 1/2-3 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address, style number and size of each pattern ordered.

The new spring, 1934 edition of the Anne Adams pattern magazine is ready. All the best spring styles for adults and children in an interesting, helpful book. Send for your copy and be able this spring. Price of magazine, 25 cents. Magazine and pattern together, 55 cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem, Oregon. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Order now. Send us filled within four days from the time received by The Statesman.

B. and P. W. Club Has Dinner Meet

The regular dinner meeting of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club was held Tuesday night in the Masonic temple and proved a very unusual event, as all of the 13 past presidents of the club were present and each spoke, giving an outline of the club's development during her term of office.

Robert Hutchison dressed in his kilts and tam entertained with a number of Scotch songs accompanied by Mrs. Billie Herbster.

Miss Grace E. Smith gave the fourth of a series of talks on the constitution of the United States, which are proving enjoyable as well as informative.

Reports were given on the district conference which was held recently in Salem, and after a short business session a play, "They Criticized," was presented by Miss Helen Breithaupt, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Miss Merle Dimick and Mrs. Billie Herbster.

Chemeketas to Have Entertainment

The Chemeketas, local outdoor club, plan one of their festive annual dinners and evening of dancing, cards and lively entertainment Saturday night at the Masonic temple.

Reservations should be made at once with J. Burton Cray, 6785, or at the Senator hotel. Short speeches, skits, vocal and instrumental numbers are on the program, followed by dancing and cards. Mrs. E. M. Hotfrell is in charge of the card tables and Barney Kropp's orchestra will furnish the music. This will be the sixth affair of its kind given by the Chemeketas.

"I've kept track of the money it saved us this month"

"HERE it is—all put down. Whenever my telephone relieved me of a trip downtown, I made note of the nickel, dime or quarter saved. They soon amounted to more than the price of telephone service, and I also have the telephone for calling friends, and making appointments. It's true, and I've proved it—the telephone in the home costs so little and does so much that it simply doesn't pay to be without one."
