Elimination of McPhee is Also Factor as W.S.C. Defeated 26-23

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 26-(A)

In a tight basketball contest here tonight, Oregon State defeated Washington State 26 to 23, the Cougars being badly handicapped when Huntley McPhee, high scorer, went out on per-McPhee went out two minutes after the second half opened. He had just caged two goals to give Washington State a 15-13 lead before making a fourth foul, Both teams played deliberate-ly, but the contest turned into a hot affair in the final minutes. Red MacDonald, guard, popped a basket from the corner to open the scoring for Oregon State. Twice the count was tied before the Orangemen pulled into the lead and made it 13 to 11 at half time. Roland Johnson, Cougar forward, scored a basket just before the gun sounded, to tie at 13, but it was later ruled that the half had ended when the timer's gun failed to go at the first attempt. Washington State opened strong in the second half with McPhee counting two goals. Af-Congars began finding the hoop and came within two points, of gon State stalled effectively.

Foul shots proved the win-. three for the Cougars. McPhee was high with seven points, while The lineups and summary:
