NEW YORK, Jan. 27. (A)-Except for a strong demonstration in Aircraft issues, the stock market was rather colorless today. Socalled leaders were again affected by profit-taking, though it was absorbed at moderate concessions. The average showed another small

Tobaccos improved fractions to couple of points, but otherwise the market tended to lag. Two governmental reports interested Wall Street. One was the interdepartmental committee's findings on communications; the other covered market regulations. It was noted that both reports had gone to congress without benefit of house recommendation which led to the inference that if the president had wanted prompt action he would have requested it. Hence the prospects of regulatory legislation on either matter at this session, which apparently is to confine itself chiefly to emergency questions, might seem to be rather remote. Edge Rubbed Off Demand for Wool

Ice Cream Boost Disappointing to Makers, Report

PORTLAND, Jan. 27. (P) -Much disappointment was expressed by local ice cream manufacturers who have been catering to the cash and carry trade, regarding the boosting of ice cream prices to 40c a quart. Ice cream makers claim this will greatly curtail the demand, which is small at the best during the cool weather. That the boost in ice cream values forced by the state of Oregen would prove a boomerang and defeat the purposes for which it was intended is the opinion expressed by some retail leaders. They say that instead of using more cream for making ice cream, needed and a further surplus cre-
