BEAT GATES QUINT

The Salem Ramblers, indepen-ent basketball team made up of Willamette students, defeated the lates town team Friday night in close game, 34 to 32. The game was played in the Gates high school gymnasium.

The squads were evenly match-d, and the lead alternated from he Gates squad to the Salem juintet by two and three point advantages. The Gates team was andicapped during the first half y the absence of Carl Ball, swift rward, who has a knack of oting baskets from every ngle of the floor, but spurted head to a lead of 28 to 24 in he last period when Ball entered e game. They maintained a lead lay, when a series of shots by Moye and McCann of the Salem squad gave the Ramblers the con-
