Birthday Ball at 9 p. m. Tonight, Armory

THE GAYEST social affair of the winter season will take place tonight in the armory beginning at 9 o'clock and lasting until 1 a. m. It is the President's Birthday ball, of course, and everyone is invited.

Many dinner and cocktail parties have been planned to precede the ball and buffet suppers to follow. Incidentally, men may attend either in formal or informal dress as they desire.

Patrons for the affair will dine at the Marion, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton are entertaining for 16 guests at dinner, and Miss Nell Thiesen will be hostess for a buffet supper.

Distinguished guests on the patron list include Governor and Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Major General and Mrs. George A. White, Mayor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Chief Justice and Mrs. John H. Rand, Judge and Mrs. John H. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. N. Bushy, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, George Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Senator and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Representative and Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Karl Steiwer of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayter of Dallas, Dean H. Walker of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyre, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Keene of Weston and Dr. and Mrs. George Korinek of Stayton.

Pinafore to Be Given at High School

The chorus classes at Salem high school will present the well-beloved comic opera "H. M. S. Pinafore," by Gilbert and Sullivan, Friday night, February 9.

Sixty young people will participate in the performance. Rehearsals have been in progress for the past few weeks in preparation for the event.

"Pinafore" has been given several times at Salem high school and always with success. There is no other light opera so beautifully adapted vocally to pupils of high school age.

Proceeds from the event will be used for further musical activities at the school.

Miss Vivian Benner, student at Oregon Normal school in Monmouth, spent the weekend in Salem at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benner.

Pattern

This smart afternoon frock shows a flair for flares by featuring two fetching ones of contrast on either side of the neckline, and repeating the flared theme in the tucked sleeves. It's perfect this way for your first spring frock. Now, notice the small sketch showing the vestee, sleeves and contrast omitted—a formal version of the same pattern. The moulded waistline with small tyeing pertly in the back creates a slender silhouette. Make this in print for the daytime dress and make it again in monotone for the dinner frock.

Pattern 1754 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 3 1/2 inch fabric and 1/4 yard 3 1/2 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. We plainly name address, style number, and size of each pattern ordered.

The new spring 1934 edition of the Anne Adams pattern magazine is ready. All the best spring styles for robes and children in an interesting, helpful book. Send for your copy and be sure this spring. Price of magazine, 15 cents. Magazine and pattern together, 25 cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 112 Commercial Street, Salem. Make necessary enclosure. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Orders occasionally are filled without charge from the files received by The Statesman.

Silver Anniversary Celebrated

Rev. and Mrs. Britton Ross were delightfully surprised Friday night when 42 members of the Eteri class of the First Baptist church assembled at the parsonage to honor the pastor and his wife on their silver wedding anniversary.

An attractive feature of the evening was the marriage ceremony performed by Rev. Milton Dierks, during which the honor guests related that memorable occasion of 25 years ago. Preceding the service Mrs. Marvin Roth sang "O Promise Me," and a trio consisting of Mrs. Marvin Roth, Mrs. Robert Wagner and Milton Dierks, sang "I Love You Truly." To the strains of Lohengrin's procession, all played by Mrs. George Hutcheson, the bride and her array of attendants descended the open stairway to the living room where the groom and his escorts awaited them.

Mrs. Ross was lovely in a gown of blue and white, with full-length lace veil. She carried a bouquet of daffodils, tiny narcissus and acacia. The matron of honor, Mrs. Albert Ramseyer, and the six attendants consisting of Mrs. Tom Burton, Mrs. Chester Slater, Mrs. E. A. Robey, Mrs. Floyd Miller, Mrs. Carl Ramseyer and Mrs. Floyd McClellan were attractive in gowns of blending hues.

Floyd Miller acted as best man for Rev. Ross and the six ushers were Van Ausdell, Walter Lottis, Don Stowe, Ed Lucas, Bernard Zobel and George Hutcheson. Carl Ramseyer gave the bride in marriage.

An informal reception followed the service, and to climax the evening the group presented Rev. and Mrs. Ross with a console radio as their wedding gift.

Brooks — The new officers of Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 75, and Gertrude I. O. O. F. No. 121, were jointly installed Saturday night by the district deputy president, Mrs. Alice Barnett, Rebekah, and Robert Massey, deputy grand master of the Odd Fellows. The lodge hall was very beautifully decorated. Mrs. S. A. Harris and Albert Lengren acted as grand marshals. Mrs. Minnie McDonald, and Harry Martin were the retiring noble grands.

Installing officers were Mrs. Minnie Aisup, William Aisup, Ed Rogers, Frances Morgan, Al Collins, Anna Dunlavy, Sylvester Harris and Alma Cramer.

The new officers for the Rebekahs are: Noble grand, Marie Harold; vice grand, Marie Cole; recording secretary, Jessie Coomer; financial secretary, Rose Collins; treasurer, Mary Sawyer; warden, Ellen Vogt; conductor, Myrtle Oakes; chaplain, L. Massey; outside guardian, Frances Morgan; inside guardian, Alma Cramer; musician, Helen Weisner; R. S. N. G., Alice Barnett; L. S. N. G., Minnie Seigmund; R. S. V. G., Florence Oddie; L. S. V. G., Adolphine Harris.

Officers of the Odd Fellows No. 121 are: Noble grand, Sam Weisse; vice grand, J. S. Coomer; recording secretary, Robert Massey; financial secretary, Kenneth Coomer; treasurer, William Bowley; warden, Milton Oakes; conductor, Albert Lengren; R. S. N. G., Sylvester Harris; L. S. N. G., William Aisup; R. S. S., Grant Buchanan; L. S. S., Dean Clark; outside guardian, Cullis Massey; inside guardian, Mr. Ballweber; chaplain, Emil Cramer.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Brown will return to Salem this week from Los Angeles, where Dr. Brown has been attending an eye clinic during the past fortnight.

The East division of the Ladies' Aid, First Presbyterian church, will meet at the home of Mrs. Roy Mills this afternoon with Mrs. Otto Wilson assisting hostess.

Albany Plays Host on Saturday

Phillips camp and auxiliary of Albany were hosts to the Hal Hibbard camp and auxiliary of Salem and General Lawton camp and auxiliary of Eugene Saturday night in the veterans' memorial building for a 6:30 o'clock potluck supper.

The Eugene auxiliary and camp assisted in the installation ceremonies of Phillips camp and auxiliary. Mrs. Mamie Stauffer installed the auxiliary and Dr. R. C. Faust the camp.

Those making the trip from Salem were J. E. Chenoweth, J. J. Chaignat, Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mickelson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millet and daughter, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Buckles, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinley, Mrs. Lulu Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abrams.

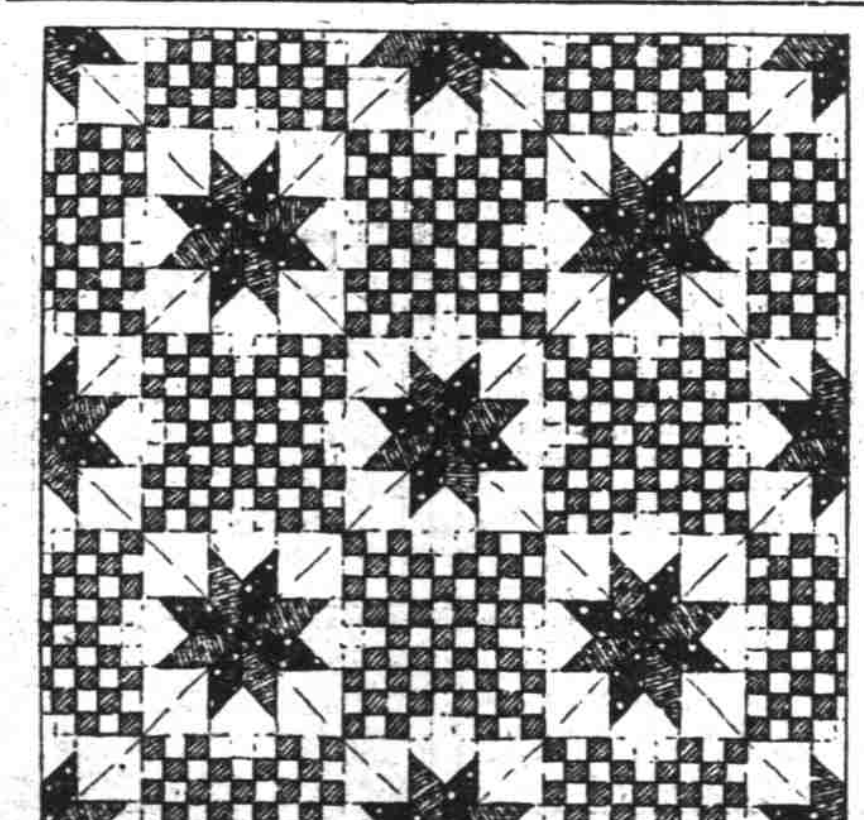

Van Slyke Home Open Saturday Night

A delightful evening of music was spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Van Slyke. Supper was served late with Mrs. Arthur Cummings assisting the hostess.

Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Priem, Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker and daughter, Miss Audrey, Henry Isherwood, Mrs. Alice Siewert and daughter, Miss Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cummings and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Van Slyke.

A quilting party was held last week at the home of Mrs. J. T. Hafner. Dinner was served to the following guests: Mrs. John Stubb, Mrs. Lewis Montgomery, Mrs. Jessie Boedighelmer, Mrs. Clifford Stubb and the hostess, Mrs. J. T. Hafner.

Large Block Makes Striking Quilt

Checked Star is a quilt that every quiltmaker would be proud to own. It is among the most handsome of designs and since the block is a very large one — 17 inches — only few blocks are needed to make it. This gives the newswoman the opportunity of having a quilt in the checked effect that is so lovely, with little work. The size of the block makes the patches that form the checks a good size. The quilt is one that is effective in two or three materials or even in scraps, should that be preferred.

Pattern 624 comes to you with complete, simple instruction for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 10 cents for this pattern to The Oregon Statesman Needlecraft Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem.

Sans Souci Card Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dennis entertained members of the Sans Souci card club Saturday night in their home on State street. The evening was spent in playing a "500," five tables of cards being in play. High scores were won by Mr. Louis Bechtel and Mrs. Charlie Andressen. Second honors were won by Mr. Guy Williams and Mrs. William Moses.

At a late hour refreshments were served informally by the hostess. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bechtel and Miss Frances Williams.

Club members present were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case, Mr. and Mrs. William Moses, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Deneer, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andressen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Auman, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rains and the hostess. The members will meet again in a fortnight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt.

Chemeketas Enjoy Gay Party

With a unique program of entertainment which kept the banqueters hilarious, the Salem Chemeketas celebrated their annual banquet at the Masonic temple Saturday night. Miss Dorothy M. Taylor, club president, and Ed Loasdale, secretary, presided over the program which followed the dinner. Entertainment features included yodeling songs by Saucy brothers, numbers by the famed Haywire orchestra, and a skit by Mrs. Elsie Holman and Mike Panek. The latter was a take-off on Augusta Notturdt's ascent of the Matterhorn in the Alps last summer, and in the skit Mrs. Holman took the part of the climber and Panek that of the guide. C. W. Noble, travel traveler, "told one" which rivaled Cook's discovery of the north pole.

More serious parts of the program were an outline of the history of the hiking organization by E. M. Hoffnell, a review of the annual outing at Lost Lake by Mrs. C. A. Downs, and a presentation of the plan for the 1934 outing by Richard Uppjohn. The club hopes to make the outing this summer in Wallowa mountains.

Dancing and cards concluded the evening.

Friars Club Dines at Spa Sunday

In honor of Wayne Harris of Hollywood, Cal., and Virgil Harrison of the Friars club held a dinner in the Green Gate room of the Spa Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Harris is now in business in Hollywood but is well known in Salem athletic and dramatic circles. Mr. Harrison is leaving for Phoenix, Ariz., where he will play with Joe Alexander and his orchestra at the Dude Ranch Inn.

Present at the dinner were the honor guests, Wayne Harris and Virgil Harrison, special guests, Louis Caehler, Bill Burrell, Lawrence Shaw, Lester Carter, Fred Baxter, George Miltenberger, Stanley Knight and George Grabenhorst and members, Marvin Headrick, Kenneth Allen, Jack McNeil, Henry Meyer, Daryl Myers, Virgil Moorhead, Earl Viesko, Kenneth Rich, Barney Fuller, Grant Fallon, Max Pemberton, Eddie Burnside, Ellis Harris, Garlen Simpson, Fred Wolfe, Gerald Simpson, Sam Harrison, Clair Thomas, Jim Burrell and Loren Kitchen.

Silverton — F. M. Powell of Silverton and Walton Worrell of Albany held their annual birthday reunion Sunday with Mrs. Powell as this year's hostess. The birthday dinner was given at 1 o'clock at the Argo hotel at Salem and followed by a theatre party. The two birthdays fall on January 30 but each year the reunion is held on the Sunday closest to that date.

The reunions were begun at Albany in 1901 when both the men were employed in the post office there. During the 33 years that two reunions have been missed, those two being the years that Mr. Powell was in the World War.

Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Worrell take turns about being hostesses.

Present at Sunday's dinner were Mrs. and Mrs. Worrell, Mary E. Worrell, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Marshal Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lake and children and Janice Dunivan.

Woodburn — Chapter J. P. E. O. sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. Fred G. Evenden, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Constance E. Caswell of Corvallis, state organizer of the P. E. O. sisterhood, visited the local chapter and inspected the ritualistic work.

She also gave an interesting talk and spoke of her visit at the grand chapter of Kansas City, Mo.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. E. J. Allen, Miss Helen Jensen and Mrs. H. F. Butterfield. Mrs. Caswell will be the next guest at the home of Mrs. Butterfield preceding the meeting.

Liberty — The Liberty Women's club will hold its regular meeting Thursday, February 1, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. R. D. Gibson. Mrs. E. C. Free will be assistant hostess.

Miss Laura Garnjobst, who has been a missionary to Arabia for the last seven years, will be guest speaker. She will also exhibit interesting articles collected there.

Birthday Cake for the President

Photo shows the 250-pound birthday cake baked of California fruits, which was shipped by air mail to President Franklin D. Roosevelt in time for his natal day celebration, Tuesday, January 30. The cake is the gift of Culver City, Calif., to President Roosevelt. An exact duplicate of the cake will be served at the banquet and ball honoring the president on that day at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles. Miss Muriel Evans is pictured "testing" one of the cake's many decorations.

In the Valley Social Realm

Mill City — Honoring Mrs. Vincent Gowen who is leaving soon for her home in Mountain province, Becca, Philippine islands, Mrs. C. M. Cline and Mrs. Richard Saucier were hostesses for an evening of bridge Thursday at the home of Mrs. Saucier. Daffodils and ferns were used for decorating. Six tables of contract were in play during the evening with Mrs. R. L. Cooper holding high score for Mrs. Hal Ladd, second. Mrs. Gowen received the guest prize. At a late hour the hostesses served a supper.

Mrs. Gowen in company with Mr. Gowen and their young son have spent the past six months in the states, most of the time in Mill City with Mrs. Gowen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olin.

Enjoying the evening Thursday were Mrs. T. W. Allen, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. B. L. Cooper, Mrs. W. C. Chesnut, Mrs. Vivian Alberts, Mrs. Leroy E. Dike, Mrs. Lloyd Dunivan, Mrs. Sven Eliassen, Mrs. Charles Gentry, Mrs. A. A. Holthous, Miss Daisy Hendrickson, Mrs. C. T. Haseman, Mrs. Hal Ladd, Mrs. W. W. Mason, Mrs. F. R. Olin, Mrs. Robert Faust, Mrs. A. D. Scott, Mrs. R. E. Silvis, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. R. L. Schroeder, Miss Marcella Race, the honor guest, Mrs. Gowen and Mrs. Saucier and Mrs. Cline.

Brooks — Grand prizes for the series of nine card parties were won by Mrs. Virgil Loomis, high score for women, and James Riggs Jr. won high score for men. Low score for women went to Mrs. Mae Aspinwall, and men's low prize to Del Vibert.

Six tables of 500 were in play at the card party held recently in the community club house. High score was won by Mrs. Mae Aspinwall and Al Potts. Women's low score went to Miss Bessie Aspinwall, and men's low prize to Monroe Sturgis.

Refreshments were served to 25 guests. On account of an epidemic of scarlet fever in the neighborhood there will be no card parties for an indefinite period.

Sublimity — The women's community club met at the home of Mrs. Anna Benedict, with Mrs. Benedict and Mrs. Glover as hostesses. They spent the afternoon in piecing a quilt. Lunch was served.

Those present were Mrs. Rose Riestler, Mrs. Grace Ditter, Mrs. Mary Meier, Mrs. Katie Robl, Mrs. Mary Zuber, Mrs. Ida Steffes, Mrs. Angelina Hassler, Theresa Ditter, Mrs. Margaret Hoffman, Mrs.

Mountain View — Women members of the P. T. A. entertained a crowded house Friday night with an hour and a half of delightful fun. The program was the first of two competitive ones and included the following numbers: greeting in original verse, Mrs. A. R. Southwick; numbers by impromptu orchestra; group of violin numbers, Mrs. Arnold Coffel; pantomime; song, Mrs. John Norwood; one-act play, "Fountain of Youth"; village newspaper; "It's School days"; mock wedding; college yell.

The men will put on a show at the February meeting and the side adjudged losers in histrionic ability will later banquet the winners at an oyster supper. Judges appointed are: Mrs. Leon Brown of Salem, Mrs. A. L. Applewhite of Kingwood, and Fred Gibson of Salem.

Hazel Green — The date of the Nemo sewing club meeting, January 30, has been changed to February 7. Mrs. Albert Haslebacher and Mrs. Henry Rasmussen will be hostesses at Mrs. Haslebacher's home.

The guest meeting of the Sunshine sewing club will be January 30 at the G. G. Looney home. J. H. Wortman, Mrs. Robert Masie and Mrs. Looney are hostesses. Each member has the privilege of bringing a guest.

Mrs. Rudolph Wacken's side is ahead in the attendance contest.

Miss Crystal Rydell spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. E. Rydell. Miss Rydell is teaching in southern Oregon.
