

MASONS PREPARING FOR BIG MEETING

When Traveling Trowel Comes; Thelma Gaylord is P. T. A. Speaker

MOLALLA, Feb. 1. — R. R. Hewitt, Salem attorney and former dean of the Willamette university law school, addressed the high school student body Monday afternoon. His topic was "Crime Detection." Preparations to care for 125 guests are being made by the local Masonic lodge for February 8, when the traveling trowel will be in Molalla. Guests from Oregon City, Canby and Portland are expected.

Friday evening will be the birthday meeting of the local Parent Teachers' association. The meeting will be as usual in the grade school at 8 p. m. Thelma Gaylord, county home demonstration agent, will be the principal speaker. Sixth and seventh grade pupils will give a play, "The P. T. A. Birthday Cake."

Camp Fire Girls Meet
Eight new girls attended the meeting of the Ton Ka Wa Camp Fire Girls Monday afternoon at the Forrest Danton home and decided to join the group. Since this will nearly double the organization's membership, the guardian, Mrs. Norman Edmundson, has secured an assistant guardian, Alice Miller. No date has been set for the ceremonial for new members. Those joining are Dawn Danton, Eva Mae Miller, Doris Pederson, Maxine Miller, Frances Waller, Patricia Pembie, Mercedes Bernard and Rena Hart.

More than enough money to pay the local Boy Scout assessment was raised by the Parent Teachers' association at a dinner Monday night at the Methodist church. The assessment is $24 and the profits of the dinner, served to 142 persons, were about $95. Special guests were Carl Moore, county assessor, who talked on scout camps and cub scout work, and George M. Hankins, scout county treasurer, who talked on finances. Other speakers were Oliver Buxton, local scout master, and Emery Wood, committee chairman. A tenderfoot badge was awarded Scout Donald Burns, and one year service pins were awarded Robert Quist, Donald Klecker, James Waller, Burnell Ward, Allison Stogers and Richard Stogers. C. W. Kendall, who has been active in scout work in other towns and who is a newcomer here, agreed to be the leader of a cub scout group, if such an organization is formed.

AMITY ART GROUP PLANS BENEFIT TEA

AMITY, Feb. 1. — The art appreciation class met at Mrs. A. W. Newby's Monday night. Mrs. H. W. Torbert, president, presided. The group decided to continue the study of the old masters the rest of the year and voted to give a silver tea sometime in April and have artists present from various places in the Willamette valley.

Proceeds of the tea will go to buy books of art to be given to the Amity library. Lessons on the life work of Correggio was given by Mrs. E. O. Morris, with pictures and the history being given by Mrs. J. W. Knight. Mrs. A. N. Arnold gave a paper on the life of Titian and the history of the pictures was given by Mrs. Grant Carrick.

There were 13 members present and the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Orlie Robins.

Mrs. G. D. Thomas held open house on Monday to celebrate her 85th birthday. The study club presented her with a large birthday cake. More than 75 attended. The house was decorated with primroses, China lilies and spirea, which were grown and picked in Amity yards during January. Out-of-town friends were present from Salem, Portland and McMinnville. Mrs. Thomas has been active in church and community work the past 30 years. She came here from Minnesota.
